Bryant, Barbara Fifer, 2017-01-09      Sarah Starts Living Gina Medvedz, 2015-07-31 For eighteen years Sarah has been a devoted wife and doting mother When her only child leaves for college Sarah wonders how she will spend her days But when her husband announces that he is leaving too Sarah is forced to reexamine everything that she holds to be true On a dare from her best friend Sarah agrees to listen to God and do what He suggests Following signs that she interprets as divine she winds up in a convent in Connecticut on a mission in West Virginia and in a metaphysical bookstore in Pennsylvania Learning lessons along the way that shift her belief in the nature of God and her mindset about herself for the first time in her forty five years Sarah Starts Living      Sarah Thornhill Kate Grenville, 2012-06-05 The Orange Prize Winning author of The Secret River delivers brilliant fiction and illuminating personal history in the finale of her Australian trilogy The Independent With The Secret River Kate Grenville dug into her own family's history to create an unflinching tale of frontier violence in early Australia She continued her bold exploration of Australia's beginnings in The Lieutenant Now Sarah Thornhill brings this acclaimed trilogy to an emotionally explosive conclusion Sarah is the youngest daughter of William Thornhill an ex convict from London Unknown to Sarah her father has built his fortune on the blood of Aboriginal people With a fine stone house and plenty of money Thornhill has reinvented himself teaching his daughter to never look back or ask about the past Instead Sarah fixes her eyes on handsome Jack Langland whom she's loved since she was a child Their romance seems idyllic but the ugly secret in Sarah's family is poised to ambush them both Driven by the captivating voice of the illiterate Sarah at once headstrong sympathetic curious and refreshingly honest this is an

Sarah s Laughter Vinoth Ramachandra,2020-05-31 Sarah s Laughter provides a reflection on suffering that is deeply personal and both theologically and philosophically astute Vinoth Ramachandra draws on his distinctive positioning as a Sri Lankan Christian theologian one who has lived and ministered in contexts shaped by the destruction of natural disasters and the violence of human evil to confront the intellectual moral and political challenges posed to faith in the increasingly broken world of the twenty first century Yet far from being an abstract discussion of theodicy this book is intimate and vulnerable embracing the biblical practice of lament and inviting an authentic response to grief one that makes space for serious doubt and profound questioning Sharing his own ongoing journey with suffering and a questing faith Ramachandra reminds us that lament and joy faith and protest clarity and ambiguity belong together in faithful Christian discipleship It is not in bypassing the darkness of the world but in embracing it in imitation of the incarnate God that we may glimpse the new creation
