WRONG TURN: The Fifth Season of Love Vincent Risoli-Black, 2010-09-23 Using the Bible especially the Gospels as a source of consolation for the believed potential devastation that would result in the Wrath of God once seen imminent through Global Warming one is led through by the author to view positive signs of God's mercy and a new City of God that the Bible promises in Revelations The dolphins trapped in our rivers were our delight as we witnessed the twists and turns brought upon life through our eco systems and society Also a film maker Risoli Black details this additional dialog in the novel with anecdotes and criticisms of films of the fifties sixties and seventies when one had choices of decent role models with ideal standards not idols that led away from God

Epidemic Cinema Julia Echeverría, 2023-12-08 This book examines the recent trend in global cinema to feature infectious disease As the global crisis of the COVID 19 pandemic materialised the anxieties and discourses of world risk that had long been portrayed in popular media the book provides a novel definition of the epidemic film genre and offers a systematic look into the narrative and stylistic conventions that characterise it

Epidemic Cinema traces the evolution of the genre from its early cinematic origins to establish the founding principles of a genre standing at the crossroads between science fiction and horror It draws on close textual analysis to show how the pandemic reified one of the central predicaments of epidemic narratives the constant tension existing between free floating phenomena and the impulse to control and resist such phenomena ultimately epitomised by the trope of the border Showing how infectious diseases offer a rich allegorical frame which cinema uses to articulate timely anxieties of growingly invisible and deterritorialised risks the author presents the prevalence of contagion in popular culture as a symptom of this growingly viral and virus ridden context both in its most literal and metaphorical sense This insightful study will interest students and scholars of film studies global cinema science fiction horror popular culture and genre theory
