Satan Never Sleeps:

Natural Selection Gary Giddins, 2006 Long recognized as America's most brilliant jazz writer the winner of many major awards including the prestigious National Book Critics Circle Award and author of a highly popular biography of Bing Crosby Gary Giddins has also produced a wide range of stimulating and original cultural criticism in other fields With Natural Selection he brings together the best of these previously uncollected essays including a few written expressly for this volume The range of topics is spellbinding Writing with insight humor and a famously deft touch he offers sharp edged perspectives on such diverse subjects as Federico Fellini and Jean Renoir Norman Mailer and Ralph Ellison Marlon Brando and Groucho Marx Duke Ellington and Bob Dylan horror and noir the cartoon version of Animal Farm and the comic book series Classics Illustrated Giddins brings to criticism an uncommon ability long demonstrated in his music writing to address in very few words an entire career so that we get an in depth portrait of the artist beyond the film book or recording under review For instance Giddins offers a stunning reappraisal of Doris Day who he terms the coolest and sexiest female singer of slow ballads in film history He argues eloquently for a reconsideration of the forgotten German language novelist Soma Morgenstern In a section on comedy he offers fresh perspectives on the three great silent film stars Chaplin Keaton and Lloyd while resurrecting the legendary Jack Benny and reevaluating the controversial Jerry Lewis There's also a memorable look at Bing Crosby's film career he calls Crosby's blockbuster Going My Way a neglected masterpiece and a close examination of Marcel Carne's beloved Children of Paradise Of course Giddins also supplies excellent commentary on jazz major and underrated figures and especially the uses of jazz in film A wonderful gathering of little known treasures Natural Selection will broaden the perception of Gary Giddins as one of our most important cultural critics Satan Never Sleeps

The Screen Is Red Bernard F. Dick, 2016-03-14 The Screen Is Red portrays Hollywood's ambivalence toward the former Soviet Union before during and after the Cold War In the 1930s communism combated its alter ego fascism yet both threatened to undermine the capitalist system the movie industry's foundational core value Hollywood portrayed fascism as the greater threat and communism as an aberration embraced by young idealists unaware of its dark side In Ninotchka all a female commissar needs is a trip to Paris to convert her to capitalism and the luxuries it can offer The scenario changed when Nazi Germany invaded the Soviet Union in 1941 making Russia a short lived ally The Soviets were quickly glorified in such films as Song of Russia The North Star Mission to Moscow Days of Glory and Counter Attack But once the Iron Curtain fell on Eastern Europe the scenario changed again America was now swarming with Soviet agents attempting to steal some crucial piece of microfilm On screen the atomic detonations in the Southwest produced mutations in ants locusts and spiders and revived long dead monsters from their watery tombs The movies did not blame the atom bomb specifically but showed what horrors might result in addition to the iconic mushroom cloud Through the lens of Hollywood a nuclear war might leave a handful of survivors Five none On the Beach Dr Strangelove or cities in ruins Fail Safe Today the threat is no longer the Soviet Union but international terrorism Author Bernard F Dick argues however that the Soviet Union has not lost its appeal as evident from the popular and critically acclaimed television series The Americans More than eighty years later the screen is still red Cinemascope 3 John Howard Reid,2006-01-18 This third collection of widescreen wonders photographed in CinemaScope focuses on such popular movies as Love Is a Many Splendored Thing Cleopatra Three Coins in the Fountain Bus Stop There s No Business Like Show Business The Seven Year Itch Let s Make Love Peyton Place North to Alaska The Longest Day The Eddy Duchin Story Far from the Madding Crowd The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit The Helen Morgan Story A Star Is Born and 2001 A Space Odyssey
