in thirteenth century poetry and prose the divine Sufi reflections on the topic and post revolutionary love encounters in Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia The Beloved in Middle Eastern Literatures connects the affective and cultural with the political and the obscene In focusing on the diverse manifestations of love and tropes of the lover beloved binary this book is unique in foregrounding what is often regarded as a taboo subject in the region The multi faceted outlook reveals the variety of philological philosophical poetic and literary forms that treat this significant motif Unmasking the Powers Walter Wink,1993-03-01 Angels Spirits principalities powers gods Satanthese along with all other spiritual realities are the unmentionables of our culture The dominant materialistic worldview has absolutely no place for them But materialism itself is terminally ill and let us hope in process of replacement by a worldview capable of honoring the lasting values of modern science without succumbing to reductionism Therefore we find ourselves returning to the ancient traditions searching for wisdom wherever it may be found We do not capitulate to the past and its superstitions but bring all the gifts our race has acquired along the way as aids in recovering the lost language of our souls In Naming the Powers I developed the thesis that the New Testament s principalities and powers is a generic category referring to the determining forces of physical psychic and social existence In the present volume we will be focusing on just seven of the Powers mentioned in Scripture Their selection out of all the others dealt with in Naming the Powers is partly arbitrary they happen to be ones about which I felt I had something to say But they are also representative and open the way to comprehending the rest They are Satan demons angels of churches angels of nations gods elements and angels of nature Evil Andrew P. Chignell,2019-04-16 Thirteen original essays examine the conceptual history of evil in the west from ancient Hebrew literature and Greek drama to Darwinism and Holocaust theory Thirteen reflections contextualize the philosophical developments by looking at evil through the eyes of animals poets mystics witches librettists film directors and tech executives Islamic Mysticism Alexander Knysh,2015-01-27 The book provides a general survey of the history of Islamic mysticism Sufism since its inception up to the modern time It combines chronological and personality based approaches to the subject with a thematic discussion of principal Sufi notions and institutions Sufism is examined from a variety of different perspectives as a vibrant social institution a specific form of artistic expression mainly poetic an ascetic and contemplative practice and a distinctive intellectual tradition that derived its vitality from a dialogue with other strands of Islamic thought The book emphasizes the wide variety of Sufism s interactions with the society and its institutions from an ascetic withdrawal from the world to an active involvement in its affairs by individual Sufi masters and organizations Islamic Mysticism by Knysh is a comprehensive survey of the interesting and fascinating world of Islamic Mysticism The Qur'an Oliver Leaman,2006-05-02 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Qur an is the source of inspiration for one of the world s major religions followed today by over a billion people It plays a central role in Islam and ever since it appeared fourteen hundred years ago has been the subject of intense debate Some of this has been carried out by Muslims and some by those hostile or indifferent to Islam producing a very wide range of views Authored by forty three international experts the objective of The Qur'an Encyclopedia is to present this diversity of thought approach and school without priority in order to give a strong appreciation of the range of response that the text has provoked throughout its history and providing students and researchers with a powerful one volume resource covering all aspects of the text and its reception Islam and the Qur'an are much in the news today and there is a public debate going on in which things are said about the Qur'an without much knowledge or understanding of the book Every effort has been made to help the reader use the Encyclopedia as an investigative tool in Quranic studies The volume assumes no previous knowledge of the Qur'an Islam or Arabic Technical terms are explained in the text itself and the style of each entry is designed to be as self contained as possible Entries are cross referenced and many include a brief bibliography At the end of the work there is a substantial annotated bibliography providing a detailed guide to the most significant books journals and articles in Quranic Studies There is a full index The readership will include those seeking basic information on the Qur'an however the substantial number of longer entries means that it will also be used by specialists

Violence in Islamic Thought from the Qur'an to the Mongols Robert Gleave, 2015-04-14 This volume brings together some of the leading researchers on early Islamic history and thought to study the legitimacy of violence The Real Devil Duncan Heaster, 2009 The Innocence of the Devil Nawal El

Saadawi, 1998-11-04 Nawal El Saadawi's books are known for their powerful denunciation of patriarchy in its many forms social political and religious Set in an insane asylum The Innocence of the Devil is a complex and chilling novel that recasts the relationships of God and Satan of good and evil Intertwining the lives of two young women as they discover their sexual and emotional powers Saadawi weaves a dreamlike narrative that reveals how the patriarchal structures of Christianity and Islam are strikingly similar physical violation of women is not simply a social or political phenomenon it is a religious one as well While more measured in tone than Salman Rushdie's Satanic Verses Saadawi's novel is similar in its linguistic literary and philosophical richness Evoking a world of pain and survival that may be unfamiliar to many readers it speaks in a universal voice that reaches across cultures and is the author's most potent weapon Islamophobia and the Novel Peter

Morey, 2018-08-14 In an era of rampant Islamophobia what do literary representations of Muslims and anti Muslim bigotry tell us about changing concepts of cultural difference In Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey analyzes how recent works of fiction have framed and responded to the rise of anti Muslim prejudice showing how their portrayals of Muslims both reflect and refute the ideological preoccupations of media and politicians in the post 9 11 West Islamophobia and the Novel discusses novels embodying a range of positions from the avowedly secular to the religious and from texts that appear to underwrite Western assumptions of cultural superiority to those that recognize and critique neoimperial impulses Morey offers nuanced readings of works by John Updike Ian McEwan Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid John le Carr Khaled Hosseini Azar Nafisi and other writers emphasizing the demands of the literary marketplace for representations of Muslims

He explores how depictions of Muslim experience have challenged liberal assumptions regarding the novel's potential for empathy and its ability to encompass a variety of voices. Morey argues for a greater degree of critical self-consciousness in our understanding of writing by and about Muslims in contrast to both exclusionary nationalism and the fetishization of difference. Contemporary literature's capacity to unveil the conflicted nature of anti-Muslim bigotry expands our range of resources to combat Islamophobia. This in turn might contribute to Islamophobia's eventual dismantling.

Milton & Toleration Sharon Achinstein, Elizabeth Sauer, 2007-08-02 Locating John Milton's works in national and international contexts and applying a variety of approaches from literary to historical, philosophical and postcolonial, Milton and Toleration offers a wide-ranging exploration of how Milton's visions of tolerance reveal deeper movements in the history of the imagination. Milton is often enlisted in stories about the rise of toleration; his advocacy of open debate in defending press freedoms, his condemnation of persecution and his criticism of ecclesiastical and political hierarchies have long been read as milestones on the road to toleration. However, there is also an intolerant Milton whose defence of religious liberty reached only as far as Protestants. This book of sixteen essays by leading scholars analyses tolerance in Milton's poetry and prose, examining the literary means by which tolerance was questioned, observed and became an object of meditation. Organized in three parts: Revising Whig Accounts, Philosophical Engagements, Poetry and Rhetoric, the contributors, including leading Milton scholars from the USA, Canada and the UK, address central toleration issues including heresy, violence, imperialism, republicanism, Catholicism, Islam, church, community, liberalism, libertinism, natural law, legal theory and equity. A pan-European perspective is presented through analysis of Milton's engagement with key figures and radical groups. All of Milton's major works are given an airing, including prose and poetry, and the book suggests that Milton's writings are a significant medium through which to explore the making of modern ideas of tolerance.

Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil, 2012-05-03 Can non-Muslims be saved? And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed? In Islam and the Fate of Others, Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial and consequential question of non-Muslim salvation. This is an illuminating study of four of the most prominent figures in the history of Islam: Ghazali, Ibn Arabi, Ibn Taymiyya and Rashid Rida. Khalil demonstrates that though these paradigmatic figures tended to affirm the superiority of the Islamic message, they also envisioned a God of mercy and justice and a Paradise populated by Muslims and non-Muslims. Along the way, Khalil examines the writings of many other important writers such as Ibn Qayyim al-Jawziyya, Mulla Sadra, Shah Waliullah of Delhi, Muhammad Ali of Lahore, James Robson, Sayyid Qutb, Yusuf al-Qaradawi, Farid Esack, Reza Shah Kazemi, T. J. Winter and Muhammad Legenhausen.

Quest for Divinity Mohamed A. Mahmoud, 2015-02-01 A highly influential Sudanese reformist thinker, Mahmud Muhammad Taha is regarded as a product of a dual legacy rooted in mystical Islam on the one hand and in the tradition of modernity on the other. Publicly executed in 1985 following his conviction of apostasy, Taha offered distinctly original interpretations of the Qur'an and a radical theory of Islamic prayer In Quest for Divinity Mohamed Mahmoud presents an in depth and balanced treatment of Taha's controversial yet significant thought The author's ability to provide access to relevant literature in both Arabic and English offers readers a rare view of the considerable nuance in Taha's thought With rich detail Mahmoud explores Taha's theories of human freedom and his social message referred to as the second message of Islam with its emphasis on political economic and social equality Taha's embrace of modernity is further assessed relative to his position on science law and art areas that have always attracted Muslim modernists Quest for Divinity will attract attention to Taha's compelling but little known intellectual contribution as a seminal modern reformer of Islam Such recognition is long overdue and will enrich the current debates on Islam and modernity

Rage, Power, and Aggression

Robert A. Glick, Steven P. Roose, Steven T. Roose, 1993-01-01 Rage aggression and the will to power are significant human characteristics that have been relatively neglected in psychoanalytic literature In the past rage has been viewed as a response to threat or frustration aggression as an instinctual drive and the will to power as causing destructive and maladaptive behavior In this volume the authors probe these dimensions of human experience to show how they serve adaptive needs assuage anxiety protect against threat and foster maturation

American Journal of Islam and Society (AJIS) - Volume 40 Issues 3-4 Sam Houston, Muhammad Amasha, Syamsuddin Arif, Fateh Saeidi, Mehraj Din, Zainab Bint Younus, Sümeyye Sakarya, Samira I. Ibrahim, Felipe Freitas de Souza, Akif Tahiiiev, 2023-11-15 This issue of the American Journal of Islam and Society comprises four main research articles each shedding light on the diverse ways in which the Islamic legal and theological tradition has shaped and intersected with premodern and modern societies To start closer to home Sam Houston's contribution entitled The Metaphysical Monster and Muslim Theology William James Sherman Jackson and the Problem of Black Suffering places American Muslim scholar Sherman A Jackson's important monograph Islam and the Problem of Black Suffering in conversation with the work of American pragmatist philosopher William James and suggests that Jackson's account parallels James's account of religion in that it speaks of the practical effectiveness of the web of beliefs constituting Islamic doctrines of God Our next article explores the practical engagement of the official ulama as spokespersons of the Islamic legal and theological tradition in a different field post 2011 Egypt In his article entitled Ideals and Interests in Intellectuals Political Deliberations The Arab Spring and the Divergent Paths of Egypt's Shaykh al Azhar Ahmad al Tayyib and Grand Mufti Ali Gomaa Muhammad Amasha calls into question the commonplace generalizations about the ulama as being either pro revolution or pro regime by examining the politics of two prominent members of the pro establishment ulama class Syamsuddin Arif in his Rethinking the Concept of Fi ra Natural Disposition Reason and Conscience turns our attention to an understudied dimension of Islamic psychology the role of innate human nature or fi ra in the motivation behind human action Drawing on recent Western as well as Islamicate scholarship it attends to the biological epistemological and ethical dimensions of this Qur'anic concept suggesting that it be treated not only as the natural tendency for humans to act or think in a particular way but specifically as the religious ethical and rational instinct Finally Fateh Saeidi s The Early Sufi Tradition in Hamad n Nah wand and Abhar Stories of Devotion Mystical Experiences and Sufi Texts explores the history of the development of early Sufism in Hamad n Nah wand and Abhar through an analysis of three significant but understudied early Sufi texts Kar m t Sheikh ab al al Q ms n by Ibn Z rak al Nah wand d 471 1078 d b al fuqar by B b Ja far al Abhar d 428 1036 and Raw at al mur d n by Ibn Yazd ny r
