

THE NEW SATURDAY NIGHT

AT MOODY'S
DINER

An illustration of a diner at night. Two men are standing in front of the entrance, holding a white sign. The man on the left is older, with a mustache, wearing a green cap and a dark jacket over a red shirt. The man on the right is younger, wearing glasses and a red sweater. The diner has a red awning over the entrance and a large red sign above the door that reads "MOODY'S DINER". To the left of the entrance is a framed picture of a yellow landscape. To the right is a framed picture of a red and white sign that says "Specialty Coffee & Pastries". The background is a dark blue night sky.

Moody Jr, 2013-01-15 A Swift and Deadly Maelstrom The Great Norwich Flood of 1963 A Survivors Story by Thomas R Moody Jr The winter of 1962-63 in Norwich Connecticut had been unbearable Snow ice and sub freezing temperatures added to an already gloomy and drawn out New England winter one which had seen its onset begin virtually at the end of the summer of 1962 Spaulding Pond in Mohegan Park a large wooded enclave in the northern section of town was abundantly full again this Wednesday

March 6th So full in fact that it once again posed a challenge to the 110 year old dam by which it was held in place and where a small leak another in an ever growing line of recent seepages was now discovered this afternoon by park workers and reported up to the Public Works Director himself a witness to these myriad other leaks and who would summarily dismiss it this day as understood leakage And so it was on this Wednesday March 6th 1963 that Norwich Public Works foreman Monroe Cilley first noticed leakage coming from the southeast side of the dam After a day of digging ditches in and around the park and checking catch basins throughout the area Cilley along with fellow employee Clarence Vantour returned to the dam at around 4 00 p m to check the spillway for trees debris or other obstructions following the days saturating rains In the immediate downstream area of the dam there was a small gravel based square duck pond which now upon closer observation was also immensely flooded over The two men initially attributed this to the recent torrential rains as indeed it was sprinkling even now but observing the dam up close Cilley now noticed that water was clearly trickling through it on the eastern end at a point above the southern retaining wall and down the south face and into the small pond Somewhat alarmed he now suggested that he and Vantour get out of their truck and perform an inspection at closer range This time unfortunately this minor leakage episode would be different A Swift and Deadly Maelstrom is the true fully documented story of a horrible tragedy borne out of ignorance and complacency As he Norwich Public Works Director Harold Walz entered the park on Mohegan Park Rd driving past the skating pond and travelling north to the immediate east of the dam he suddenly heard a sound that gave him pause Slowing his car and opening his window he heard the unmistakable and unnerving sound of rushing water Clearly concerned he quickly maneuvered his headlights onto the south face of the dam and there he now saw water gushing out of a fist sized hole above the base rock wall This breach was in a different location from where hed observed the earlier seepage it was lower and more easterly and thus presented a whole new and dangerous development in the dams integrity Instantly understanding that he had a catastrophic problem on his hands one with enormous consequences Walz again in his personal car and with no radio raced into action turning his car around and dashing down to the Public Works garage on Brook St Arriving there he rushed in and spoke with night foreman Angelo Yeitz immediately ordering him to send a worker back up to the dam I just came down from the dam and we might lose it he exclaimed It is also the story alternately of life saving heroics of the efforts of two young men suddenly trapped in the ensuing floodwaters to rescue three very young children those that would tragically lose their mother in this disaster With a manic survival instinct now taking hold the adults while struggling managed to somehow re orient themselves while upside down The doors to the car had sprung open in the crash and while the onrushing flow cascaded through the overturned car Ronnie Honey and Tony all managed to locate the children and physically grasp them before the unthinkable could occur Noticing their proximity to the for now dr
