Saul Bellow And American Transcendentalism:

Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism Mohammad A. Quayum, 2004 Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism explores Saul Bellow's moral and philosophical affinity with the writers of American transcendentalism especially Emerson and Whitman. Its focus is on the vintage Bellow or his mature novels from Henderson (1959) to The Dean (December 1982). In these novels Bellow highlights a moral crisis arising from humankind's despiritualization and dehumanization which he believes is responsible for an ongoing dichotomy in the modern world. Bellow describes this as a dichotomy of the Cleans and the Dirties in the context of American culture. To rectify this dichotomy and redeem humankind from its current death-ridden state, Bellow and his protagonists advance a vision of life that corresponds to the transcendental vision of dialogue and double consciousness or coordination and balance. Like Emerson, they advocate 'The mid world is best'. A man is a golden impossibility; the line he must walk is a hair's breadth. Comparable to Whitman, they urge the individual to knit the knot of contrariety and act as an arbiter of the diverse.

The Cambridge Companion to Saul Bellow Victoria Aarons, 2017 This book demonstrates the complexity of Bellow's work by emphasizing the ways in which it reflects the changing conditions of American identity.

Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia, Canada, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, and the US. It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama, fiction, and poetry from its beginnings to the present, focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends. The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender, ethnicity, nationalism, multiculturalism, diaspora, hybridity, and transnationalism, which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers. The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by the colonisers has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post-independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government. The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature, Southeast Asian studies, and postcolonial literatures.

Both Pulitzer and Nobel Prize Laureates in Literature Heinz-Dietrich Fischer, 2021-01-01 This volume portrays outstanding writers that earned the Pulitzer Prize as well as the Nobel Prize for literary achievements: Sinclair Lewis, Eugene O'Neill, Pearl S. Buck, William Faulkner, Ernest Hemingway, John Steinbeck, Saul Bellow, Toni Morrison, and Bob Dylan. Each double winner is presented by important career steps and detailed background information about the decision-making processes leading to their prizes, based on documents from the Pulitzer Prize Archive at Columbia University in New York and the Nobel Prize Archive at the Swedish Academy in Stockholm. Style samples of award-winning works of each author are added, as well as the texts of their Nobel Lectures.

Midamerica, 2006 Mapping the World of Anglo-American Studies at the Turn of the Century Marija Knežević, 2015-10-05 This volume revisits the most important issues that Anglo

American studies are facing at the beginning of the twenty first century with regards to both research and teaching Given the English language s status as a lingua franca the culture that produced it and that has been changing it the literature written in English and relevant linguistic and literary discourse have come to largely dominate critical theory globally Therefore the subjects of Anglo American studies and their traditional and modern concepts must be approached from a multidisciplinary perspective and must also be problematized in and determined by other spheres of the world especially at the universities at which they are studied This book consequently approaches both mainstream cultural literary linguistic and academic achievements and often by way of comparison those smaller more distant and marginalized fields traditionally subordinate studies as well as instances of cultural hybridization Given its concern with a broad field of culture literature linguistics and methodology of teaching English as a foreign language this book consists of two main parts comprising the closest research and teaching fields one attending to culture and literature and the other approaching linguistics and methodology

Romantic Presences in the Twentieth Century Mark Sandy, 2016-04-08 Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth century British Irish and American artists this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period's influence on the twentieth century

The Hero in Contemporary American Fiction S. Halldorson, 2007-12-09 This book sets out to write nothing short of a new theory of the heroic for today's world It delves into the why of the hero as a natural companion piece to the how of the hero as written by Northrop Frye and Joseph Campbell over half a century ago The novels of Saul Bellow and Don DeLillo serve as an anchor to the theory as it challenges our notions of what is heroic about nymphomaniacs Holocaust survivors spurious academics cult followers terrorists celebrities photographers and writers of novels who all attempt to claim the right to be hero

Romantic Postmodernism in American Fiction Eberhard Alsen, 2023-12-21 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen's book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni

Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence
