Savage Fields An Essay In Literature And Cosmology:

The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-06-08 A fully revised second edition of this multi author account of Canadian literature from Aboriginal writing to Margaret Atwood

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault, Will Straw, 2019-03-20 The chapters in The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema present a rich diverse overview of Canadian cinema Responding to the latest developments in Canadian film studies this volume takes into account the variety of artistic voices media technologies and places which have marked cinema in Canada throughout its history Drawing on a range of established and emerging scholars from a range of disciplines this volume will be useful to teachers scholars and to a general readership interested in cinema in Canada Moving beyond the director focused approach of much previous scholarship this book is concerned with communities institutions and audiences for Canadian cinema at both national and international levels The choice of subjects covered ranges from popular genre cinema to the most experimental of artistic interventions Canadian cinema is seen in its interaction with other forms of art making and media production in Canada and at the international level Particular attention has been paid to the work of Indigenous filmmakers members of diasporic communities and feminist and LGBTQ artists The result is a book attentive to the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed

Indigenous Women's Theatre in Canada Sarah MacKenzie, 2020-11-15T00:00:00Z Despite a recent increase in the productivity and popularity of Indigenous playwrights in Canada most critical and academic attention has been devoted to the work of male dramatists leaving female writers on the margins In Indigenous Women's Theatre in Canada Sarah MacKenzie addresses this critical gap by focusing on plays by Indigenous women written and produced in the socio cultural milieu of twentieth and twenty first century Canada Closely analyzing dramatic texts by Monique Mojica Marie Clements and Yvette Nolan MacKenzie explores representations of gendered colonialist violence in order to determine the varying ways in which these representations are employed subversively and informatively by Indigenous women These plays provide an avenue for individual and potential cultural healing by deconstructing some of the harmful ideological work performed by colonial misrepresentations of Indigeneity and demonstrate the strength and persistence of Indigenous women offering a space in which decolonial futurisms can be envisioned In this unique work MacKenzie suggests that colonialist misrepresentations of Indigenous women have served to perpetuate demeaning stereotypes justifying devaluation of and violence against Indigenous women Most significantly however she argues that resistant representations in Indigenous women's dramatic writing and production work in direct opposition to such representational and manifest violence

Angus, Lenore Langsdorf, 1993 Concerned with criticizing representational theories of knowledge by developing alternative concepts of knowing and communicating Ian Angus and Lenore Langsdorf bring together eight essays that are united by a common theme the convergence of philosophy and rhetoric In the first chapter Angus and Langsdorf illustrate the centrality of critical reasoning to the nature of questioning itself arguing that human inquiry has entered a new situation where the convictions and orientations that have traditionally marked the separation of rhetoric and philosophy the concern for truth and the focus on persuasion have begun to converge on a new space that can be defined through the central term discourse In these essays this convergence of rhetoric and philosophy is addressed as it presents itself to a variety of interests that transcend the traditional boundaries of these fields The two editors Raymie E McKerrow Michael J Hyde and Craig R Smith James W Hikins and Kenneth S Zagacki Calvin O Schrag and David James Miller and Richard L Lanigan map this new space recognizing that such mapping simultaneously constitutes the territory mapped

Savage Fields Dennis Lee, 1977

The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 1995 The Post Colonial Studies Reader is the most comprehensive selection of key texts in post colonial theory and criticism yet compiled This collection covers a huge range of topics featuring nearly ninety of the discipline's most widely read works The Reader's 90 extracts are designed to introduce the major issues and debates in the field of post colonial literary studies This field itself however has become so varied that no collection of readings could encompass every voice which is now giving itself the name post colonial The editors in order to avoid a volume which is simply a critical canon have selected works representing arguments with which they do not necessarily agree but rather which above all stimulate discussion thought and further exploration Post colonial theory has occurred in all societies into which the imperial force of Europe has intruded though not always in the official form of theoretical text Like the description of any other field the term has come to mean many things but this volume hinges on one incontestable phenomenon the historical fact of colonialism and the palpable consequences to which this phenomenon gave rise The topic involves talk about experience of various kinds migration slavery suppression resistance representation difference race gender place and reaction to the European influence and about the fundamental experiences of speaking and writing by which all these come into being In compiling this reader the editors have sought to stimulate people to ask How might a genuinely post colonial literary enterprise proceed The fourteen sections include Issues and Debates Universality and Difference Textual Representation and Resistance Postmodernism and Post Colonialism Nationalism Hybridity Ethnicity and Indigeneity Feminism and Post Colonialism Language The Body and Performance History Place Education and Production and Consumption Contributors include many of the leading post colonial theorists and critics such as Franz Fanon Chinua Achebe Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ngugi wa Thiong'o Homi Bhabha Derek Walcott Edward Said and Trinh T Minh-ha in addition to a number of the discourse's newer voices The Post Colonial Studies Reader will prove an authoritative compilation representing an invaluable contribution to the study of post colonial theory and criticism
