Save Our History Dear Home Letters From World War II:

Letters from World War II Lorretta Cutler Thompson, 2020-07-14 The contents of this fabulous read are the letters written between mother and son during world war II we are privileged to see the love between mother and son during a time that held fear not only for Cuppy and Jimmy but for the whole world Between the Bylines Susan E. Wiant, 2011 Intro contents foreword preface acknowledgments prologue glossary index World War II Dispatches to Akron: An Airman's Letters Home Christopher M. LaHurd, 2017-01-30 On his twenty sixth horrifying mission over the hostile skies of Nazi Europe a charismatic bombardier seated at the nose of a B 17 strapped on his parachute as his disintegrating bomber dropped uncontrollably to the ground What got him to this point the ensuing months behind barbed wire and his daily letters written to his family in Akron Ohio makes for an emotionally intense memoir This is the true account of a single unknown individual who stands in for the unsung warriors of the greatest generation during World War II When is Daddy Coming Home? Richard Carlton Haney, 2005 World War II was coming to a close in Europe and Richard Haney was only four years old when the telegram arrived at his family's home in Janesville Wisconsin That moment when Haney learned of his father's death in the final months of fighting changed his and his mother's lives forever In this emotionally powerful book Haney now a professional historian explores the impact of war on an American family Unlike many of America's 183 000 World War II orphans Richard Haney has vivid memories of his father He skillfully weaves together those memories with his parents wartime letters and his mother's recollections to create a unique blend of history and memoir Through his father's letters he reveals the war's effect on a man who fought in the Battle of the Bulge with the 17th Airborne but wanted nothing more than to return home a man who expressed the feelings of thousands when he wrote to his wife I've seen and been through a lot but want to forget it all as soon as I can Haney illuminates life on the home front in small town America as well describing how profoundly the war changed such communities At the same time his memories of an idyllic family life make clear what soldiers like Clyde Haney felt they were defending With When Is Daddy Coming Home Richard Haney makes an exceptional contribution to the literature on the Greatest Generation one that is both devastatingly personal and representative of what families all over America endured during that testing time No one who reads this powerful story will come away unmoved

Letters from the Southern Home Front Joseph A. Fry, 2022-10-05 Joseph A Fry's Letters from the Southern Home Front explores the diversity of public opinion on the Vietnam War within the American South Fry examines correspondence sent by hundreds of individuals of differing ages genders racial backgrounds political views and economic status reflecting a broad swath of the southern population These letters addressed to high profile political figures and influential newspapers took up a myriad of war related issues Their messages enhance our understanding of the South and the United States as a whole as we continue to grapple with the significance of this devastating and divisive conflict Daily Life in the United States, 1940-1959 Eugenia Kaledin, 2000-09-30 Examine the everyday lives of ordinary Americans from the 1940s and 1950s and discover how very different the two decades were World War II affected Americans and the way they behaved not only in the 1940s but also in the years that followed when the depression that preceded the war was replaced with an economic boom Explore how women's roles and lives changed during these two very distinct decades how politics and political decisions impacted all walks of life and what the advent of growing technology much of it developed during the war meant to the general population What was it like to be a woman suddenly earning her own money while men were off fighting How did children and teenagers contribute to the war effort How did housing change in postwar America What pastimes were popular during these two decades and how did they reflect the times These questions and others are explored in detail encouraging students teachers and interested readers to recognize the tremendous shift in society between the war years and the atomic age that immediately followed This text presents the 1940s as a time of social problems that existed alongside community commitment to the war while the 1950s are presented as a time when exciting social change such as the beginning of the civil rights movement and the building of Levittowns occurred After the war ordinary people began to question long accepted ideas The exploration of these everyday details provides a rich look at two very important decades in our country's history

More than words John Willis, 2007-01-01 More Than Words features the work of more than twenty scholars from Canada and abroad on post related topics Drawing on recent trends in social and cultural history these new essays address the history and importance of the post from such perspectives as infrastructure technology nation building and interpersonal communications Published in English Letters from Prison Antonio Gramsci, 2011 Hailed by Terry Eagleton in The Guardian as definitive this is the only complete and authoritative edition of Antonio Gramsci's deeply personal and vivid prison letters The Texas History Teachers' Bulletin, 1917 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1999

Christian Globalism at Home Hillary Kaell, 2020-06-09 An exploration of how ordinary U S Christians create global connections through the multibillion dollar child sponsorship industry Child sponsorship emerged from nineteenth century Protestant missions to become one of today's most profitable private fund raising tools in organizations including World Vision Compassion International and ChildFund Investigating two centuries of sponsorship and its related practices in American living rooms churches and shopping malls Christian Globalism at Home reveals the myriad ways that Christians who don't travel outside of the United States cultivate global sensibilities Kaell traces the movement of money letters and images along with a wide array of sponsorship's lesser known embodied and aesthetic techniques such as playacting hymn singing eating and fasting She shows how through this process U S Christians attempt to hone globalism of a particular sort by oscillating between the sensory experiences of a God's eye view and the intimacy of human relatedness These global aspirations are buoyed by grand hopes and subject to intractable limitations since they so often rely on the inequities they claim to redress Based on extensive interviews archival research and fieldwork Christian Globalism at Home explores how U S Christians imagine and experience the world without ever leaving home Allen Peck's WWI Letters Home c 1917-1919

Charles E Peck, 2005 Allen Peck's WW I Letters Home tell of his patriotic volunteer service for the brand new U S Army Air Service to fight for his country Allen's American group was sent to France to be trained by and to fly with a French escadrille The airplanes were small flimsy and slow with open cockpits and no heat No oxygen masks For young pilots these were exciting challenging and for some fatal months Allen survived plane crashes enemy planes shooting bullets through his cockpit and enemy ground fire A Croix de Guerre was earned for downing a German But the trauma was great After Armistice he wrote of the tragic toll on his original gang Twelve of us reached the front seven gone three wounded one unheard from and I was untouched After November 11 his letters tell of experiences at a French university of adventures at the American Embassy in London and of helping with Inter Allied Games He fell in love with and married a young French girl When his two year enlistment was up Allen chose at first to stay in Paris But after five months he headed back home to America with his new wife Marguerite 65 names of individuals with whom he flew or interacted are indexed Interior ,1918 TV Guide ,1999 Brooklyn Public Library News Bulletin Brooklyn Public Library, 1918 The Republic of Letters ,1834 The Republic of Letters Mrs. A.
