nuclear weapons militarism climate change corporate abuses of power environmental destruction and much more Sister Jaguar'S Journey Sister Judy Bisignano, Sandra C. Morse, 2018-02-23 Sister Jaguar's Journey is the fiercely honest story of Sister Judy Bisignano a Dominican nun who after spending sixty eight years looking for God in all the wrong places finally found the peace and divine connection she was looking for in Ecuador's Amazon rainforest It all starts with a simple invitation to visit the Achuar community in the Amazon jungle Here in this place with these special people using the plant medicine ayahuasca she was propelled onto a new path Guided by the indigenous wisdom of Pachamama Mother Earth and the sacred rituals of the Achuar people she confronts and lets go of her turbulent abusive and angry past ultimately discovering that her life's purpose was not to become an American educator author and nun but rather a compassionate human being In many ways Sister Jaguar's Journey is the story of one nun's transformational passage from self rejection to self acceptance and from self blame to self love It is perhaps the journey of each of us as we search for peace in this life and beyond The Achuar call her Hermana Otorango Sister Jaguar and so will you The Rotarian, 2000-10 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Environmentalism of the Rich Peter Dauvergne, 2018-02-09 What it means for global sustainability when environmentalism is dominated by the concerns of the affluent eco business eco consumption wilderness preservation Over the last fifty years environmentalism has emerged as a clear counterforce to the environmental destruction caused by industrialization colonialism and globalization Activists and policymakers have fought hard to make the earth a better place to live But has the environmental movement actually brought about meaningful progress toward global sustainability Signs of global unsustainability are everywhere from decreasing biodiversity to scarcity of fresh water to steadily rising greenhouse gas emissions Meanwhile as Peter Dauvergne points out in this provocative book the environmental movement is increasingly dominated by the environmentalism of the rich diverted into eco business eco consumption wilderness preservation energy efficiency and recycling While it's good that for example Barbie dolls packaging no longer depletes Indonesian rainforest and that Toyota Highlanders are available as hybrids none of this gets at the source of the current sustainability crisis More eco products can just mean more corporate profits consumption and waste Dauvergne examines extraction booms that leave developing countries poor and environmentally devastated with the ruination of the South Pacific island of Nauru a case in point the struggles against consumption inequities of courageous activists like Bruno Manser who worked with indigenous people to try to save the rainforests of Borneo and the manufacturing of vast markets for nondurable goods for example convincing parents in China that disposable diapers made for healthier and smarter babies Dauvergne reveals why a global political economy of ever more more growth more sales more consumption is swamping environmental gains Environmentalism of the rich does little to bring about the sweeping institutional change necessary to make progress toward global sustainability

Passport to Change Susan Lee Pasquarelli, Robert A. Cole, Michael J. Tyson, 2023-07-03 There has been enormous growth in faculty led short term study abroad programs because they offer flexibility and expand opportunities for students and faculty members who wish to study and work abroad but do not have the resources or time to spend a semester or year away These experiential programs offer unique opportunities for university faculty to teach their disciplines abroad while engaging students in direct authentic cultural encounters for transformative change This volume provides a detailed framework and guidance on how to plan and implement a faculty led study abroad program Seasoned faculty leaders and administrators describe an overall program development process comprehensively identify the elements for designing the curriculum and offer advice and solutions to unique challenges inherent in various types of programs The contributors cover the logistics for managing program details at home and abroad provide advice on writing a university proposal creating a budget the marketing and recruitment of students handling abroad logistics and preparing students for the abroad experience all illustrated by examples drawn from their experiences Most importantly readers will come to understand the difference between experiences that are more touristic than scholarly and gain guidance on designing or redesigning their own programs to ensure academically sound culturally relevant curricula that complements the international field site The opening section sets the scene by describing the overall process of designing and delivering faculty led abroad programs from conception to implementation The core of the book is grounded in evidence based research for designing international curricula and syllabi and includes five case studies illustrating short term programs focused on interdisciplinary subject matter field study global service learning internship immersion and language and cultural study This practical guide concludes with faculty activities critical to a program s success marketing and recruiting students preparing teaching events for before during and after the abroad experience and formulating a plan to leave a small footprint abroad This book constitutes a handbook for college and university professors who plan to or already conduct short term study abroad programs as well as administrators and staff of global and international programs Contributors Bilge Gokhan Celik Robert A Cole Darla K Deardorff Candela Gala Javier Garcia Garrido Dale Leavitt Roxanne O Connell Susan Lee Pasquarelli Michele V Price Autumn Quezada de Tavaréz Victor Savicki Michael Scully Michael Tyson Kerri Staroscik Warren Paul Webb Brian Wysor Min Zhou

Where Song Began Tim Low, 2016-09-27 An authoritative and entertaining exploration of Australia s distinctive birds and their unheralded role in global evolution Renowned for its gallery of unusual mammals Australia is also a land of extraordinary birds But unlike the mammals the birds of Australia flew beyond the continent s boundaries and around the globe many millions of years ago This eye opening book tells the dynamic but little known story of how Australia provided the world with songbirds and parrots among other bird groups why Australian birds wield surprising ecological power how Australia became a major evolutionary center and why scientific biases have hindered recognition of these discoveries From violent swooping magpies to tool making cockatoos Australia's birds are strikingly different from birds of other lands often more intelligent and aggressive often larger and longer lived Tim Low a renowned biologist with a rare storytelling gift here presents the amazing evolutionary history of Australia's birds The story of the birds it turns out is inseparable from the story of the continent itself and also the people who inhabit it 1 yan xi,2025-01-14 When I opened the first aid kit a chill rose from it and this box actually had its own freezing function Unrooted Erin Zimmerman,2024-04-16 Evolutionary botanist Zimmerman discusses her passion for plants and inveighs against sexism in the sciences in her marvelous debut memoir Throughout Zimmerman's enthusiasm and expertise make the science accessible even to those without a background in the subject The results are as edifying as they are galvanizing Publishers Weekly STARRED Review Erin Zimmerman has exposed a rooted gender failure in science Her book is important not for this alone Her work is essential for understanding the future resilience of all flora on this planet Diana Beresford Kroeger author of To Speak for the Trees An exploration of science motherhood and academia and a stirring account of a woman at a personal and professional crossroads Growing up in rural Ontario Erin Zimmerman became fascinated with plants an obsession that led to a life in academia as a professional botanist But as her career choices narrowed in the face of failing institutions and subtle but ubiquitous sexism Zimmerman began to doubt herself Unrooted Botany Motherhood and the Fight to Save an Old Science is a scientist's memoir a glimpse into the ordinary life of someone in a fascinating field This is a memoir about plants about looking at the world with wonder and about what it means to be a woman in academia an environment that pushes out mothers and those with any outside responsibilities Zimmerman delves into her experiences as a new mom her decision to leave her position in post graduate research and how she found a new way to stay in the field she loves She also explores botany as a dying science worth fighting for While still an undergrad Zimmerman's university started the process of closing the Botany Department a sign of waning funding for her beloved science Still she argues for its continuation not only because we have at least 100 000 plant species yet to be discovered but because an understanding of botany is crucial in the fight against climate change and biodiversity loss Zimmerman is also a botanical illustrator and will provide 8 original illustrations for the book Travel Therapy Karen Schaler,2009-03-24 Highlights more than 100 vacation options that help people pick the right trip whether they are going through a breakup are stressed out are looking for inspiration or romance want to give back to the community reconnect with family etc
