The Environment in Anthropology Nora Haenn, Richard Wilk, 2006 Presenting ecology and current environmental studies from an anthropological point of view this book gives readers a strong intellectual foundation as well as offering practical tools for solving environmental problems Special Bibliography Series, 1957 Environment, Capitalism & Socialism, 1999 Our planet is gripped by twin crises of the most fundamental nature social mass poverty austerity militarism etc and environmental In this document the Democratic Socialist Party argues that they spring from the same cause the capitalist system which places the ruthless pursuit of profit by the few before the needs of the vast majority of humanity Environment Capitalism and Socialism provides a comprehensive overview of the environmental crisis the various explanations advanced for it and the responses to it The document argues strongly for the need to build a mass popular movement to fight corporate planet wreckers and create a socialist order in which human beings will be in harmony with their environment Included here as an appendix is editor Dick Nichols thorough critique of so called green taxation often put forward as the answer to the crisis Provided by publisher The Planetary Interest Kennedy Graham, 2003-09-02 This text suggests that contemporary political and institutional arrangements for problem solving based on sovereignty as a principle and the nation state as a decision making unit are not equipped to handle such problems and that concepts and methods of decision making are therefore needed to augment existing ones in dealing with the challenges of the 21st century Kennedy Graham argues that henceforth the planet and humanity must be considered as a single entity for decision making purposes He introduces and develops the idea of the planetary interest as a vital conceptual tool to assist citizens and policy makers in understanding emerging global problems and approaching them with global solutions The book includes contributions from 20 current or former politicians who discuss the particular global problems threatening their countries looking at the ways in which the planetary interest can help them pursue a legitimate national interest Global Transformations and World Futures - Volume I Sohail Tahir Inayatullah, 2009-10-20 Global Transformations and World Futures is a component of Encyclopedia of Creating Sustainable Community Programs Mark R. Daniels, 2001-02-28 Public opinion polls consistently reveal the lack of confidence disillusionment and mistrust that citizens feel toward government Daniels and his contributors believe that the relationship between citizens and their governments can be changed by facilitating greater citizen collaboration with government particularly through local sustainable programs As the case studies show often sustainable community programs are created through grassroots movements that are initiated and managed by citizens themselves bringing them in contact with their local elected and appointed officials Unlike traditional programs that are administered by local officials on behalf of their citizens once sustainable community programs are created citizens administer their own programs in collaboration with local officials The case studies look at a variety of sustainable programs primarily in the United States that help to deal with issues such as recycling transportation microcredit site redevelopment pollution health care and hunger Creating Sustainable Community Programs is the first book on sustainable programs that is intended for an audience of public administration scholars researchers and students as well as practitioners who are searching for ways to change the relationship between citizens and their governments

Unsafty Shigeo Atsugi, 2016-11-15 This is the first book to examine the linkages among natural and organizational accidents and disasters in the modern era and clarifies the mechanisms involved and the significance of emerging problems from the aging of vital infrastructure for the supply of water gas oil and electricity to the breakdown of pensions healthcare and other social systems The book demonstrates how we might check the underlying civilizational collapse and then explore translational systems approaches toward resilient management and policy for sustainability In Unsafty the author focuses on the kinds of unnatural disasters and organizational accidents that arise as repercussions of natural hazards Japan serves as an example where earthquakes tsunamis and typhoons are common with the Fukushima nuclear disaster as an outstanding case of this link between natural disasters and organizational accidents Natural and human made disasters happen worldwide and cause misery through loss of life destruction of livelihoods as in agriculture fisheries and the manufacturing industry and interruption of urban life Unsafty from a disaster in one place increases uncertainty elsewhere presenting urgent issues in all nations for individuals organizations regions and the state The author explains that one factor in the Fukushima catastrophe which followed in the wake of the earthquake and tsunami in 2011 was the latent deterioration and aging of systems at all levels from the physical to the social leading through a chain reaction to unsought and unforeseen consequences Here the aging of the nuclear reactor system the breakdown of safety management and inappropriate instructions from the regulatory authorities combined to create the three fold disaster in which technological organizational and governmental dysfunction have been diagnosed as reflecting a systems pathology infecting all levels

John A Collected Essays 1 John S Avery,2016-02-06 This book contains a collection of essays and articles by John Scales Avery discussing the severe problems and challenges which the world faces during the 21st century Human civilization and the biosphere are threatened by catastrophic climate change Unless rapid steps are taken to replace fossil fuels by 100% renewable energy we risk passing a tipping point beyond which uncontrollable feedback loops could produce a 6th extinction event comparable to those observed in the geological record Another serious threat to human civilization and the biosphere is the danger of a catastrophic thermonuclear war Over a long period of time there is an ever increasing risk that such a war will occur by accident or miscalculation Thirdly there is threat of an extremely serious and widespread famine produced by the climate change rapidly growing populations and the end of the fossil fuel era We must urgently address all three challenges

Living is Risky Felix M Berardo,2006-07 It has been suggested that the best hope for achieving a longer and healthier life lies in voluntary efforts derived from personal choices This means that individual change must be directed toward the modification of lifestyles and the choices associated with them Every lifestyle is a complex of related attitudes habits and other behaviors that in essence constitute a death style Each death style in turn carries with it various degrees of risk taking Our survival potential both in terms of quality and longevity is significantly enhanced or diminished by certain attitudes and habits and their associated risks This dimension of survivor education is a central focus of this book While it largely concentrates on individual culpability the societal context is also emphasized Indeed threats to our welfare often come from institutional or corporate activities that are beyond our control
