Arbitration and Mediation in International Business Christian Bühring-Uhle, Lars Kirchhoff, Gabriele Scherer, 2006-01-01 Arbitration and mediation in international business was first published in 1996 and was one of the first comprehensive studies on the practice of international business dispute resolution covering both international commercial arbitration and the so called alternative techniques such as mediation The book also provided an empirical analysis of how both arbitration and mediation are conducted in a crossborder context along with a normative guide to the relative costs and benefits of these two methods This second edition is not just an updated version of the first edition but a new book in itself Benefitting from the contributions of two co authors the work has been enhanced by discussions of innovative tools for making settlement negotiations more effective and by the in depth analysis of practical techniques to integrate mediation and arbitration in international business Also a comprehensive new empirical survey was conducted in order to capture new trends in this rapidly developing field The result is a must have resource for anyone having to deal with potential conflict in international business relationships

Baruch

Bush, Joseph P. Folger, 2004-10-28 The award winning first edition of The Promise of Mediation published ten years ago is a landmark classic that changed the field s understanding of the theory and practice of conflict intervention That volume first articulated the transformative model of mediation which greatly humanized the vision of how the mediation process could help parties in conflict In the past decade the transformative model has proved itself and gained increasing acceptance It is now being used in such diverse arenas as workplace community family organizational and public policy conflicts among others In this new edition the authors draw on a decade of work in theory development training practice research and assessment to present a thoroughly revised and updated account of the transformative model of mediation and its practical application including a compelling description of how the field has moved toward increasing acceptance of the transformative model a new and clearer presentation of the theory and practices of transformative mediation with many concrete examples a new case study that provides a vivid picture of the model in practice with a commentary full of new information about how to use it effectively clarifications of common misconceptions about the model a vision for the future that shows how the model can coexist with other approaches and where the market for transformative mediation is emerging This volume is a foundational resource on transformative practice for both readers of the first edition and new readers including mediators facilitators lawyers administrators human resource professionals policymakers and conflict resolution researchers and educators More generally this book will strike a chord with anyone interested in humanizing our social institutions and building on a relational vision of society

Nation-building and Identity Conflicts Ariel Hernandez, 2014-07-08 Ending identity conflicts through negotiated agreements is an intractable process that is embedded complexly in the nation building process Ariel Hernandez looks on the complexity of the nation building process in the Philippines and how its social and political context constrains the achievement of a peace agreement that would withhold new challenges as the process unfolds Mediation as one of the possible modes of intervention to resolve identity conflicts is taken as the self evident instrument to end the 40 year old conflict between the Filipino society at large and the Bangsamoro The analysis confirms that mediation and other types of intervention are contributing to the intractability of identity conflicts by bringing in further complexities in the negotiation process The conceptualization of stumbling blocks may provide knowledge based resources to develop strategies to facilitate the mediation process that allows negotiating parties to cope with the complexity of the bargaining table

Conflicts and Conflict Dynamics in Business Families Arist von Schlippe, Tom A. Rüsen, 2024-02-20 Conflicts within the owner circle or rather within the family of the family business are often the main cause of existential crises for family businesses The damaging effects of unchecked family conflicts affect two social systems the family business and the business family itself The impairment of the survival capability of the family business goes hand in hand with the reduced chance of constructive follow up communication between family members Once caught up in conflict communication it is extremely difficult for business families to get out of it without the help of external knowledge It is therefore surprising that the topic of conflict prevention in business families has so far been given relatively little attention Against this background this book takes a closer look at the topic of Conflicts in the Business Family and deals with a number of topics that are essential to understanding the subject the specific challenges and conflicts that business families typically face as well as practically proven methods of conflict resolution at different levels The content is based on the experiences that the two authors have gained in a variety of research projects conflict moderation and family strategic consulting projects over the past 18 years The key findings from this wealth of experience are now made available to the general public

of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution. It brings out its key issues, methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry. This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be: an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution. Peter Wallensteen, Professor of Peace and Conflict Research, Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame; Bercovitch, Kremenjuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field. They have pieced together, with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries, a state-of-the-art review of the sources of international conflict, available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict-ridden times. The collection is brimming with penetrating insights, trenchant analyses, compelling cases and disciplined speculation. They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution. Lawrence Susskind, Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program. The last three sentences of this persuasive book: We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment. It is absolutely necessary. Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option; it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess. If you are part of that, we intellectually or professionally, you will find this book a superb companion. Thomas C. Schelling, Professor Emeritus, Harvard University and University of Maryland. Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today. Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950s, it has rapidly grown into a self-contained vibrant interdisciplinary field. The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual, methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters. The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields, presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice. Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch, New Zealand. Victor Kremenjuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow. He is also a research associate at IIASA. William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University.
