Settling A Dispute Towards A Legal Anthropology Of Late Antique Egypt:

Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University Egypt in the Byzantine World, 300-700 Roger S. Bagnall, 2007-08-16 A comprehensive portrayal of Egypt from the fourth to the seventh centuries The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt's monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late antiquity A Companion to Greco-Roman and Late Antique Egypt Katelijn Vandorpe, 2019-03-19 An authoritative and multidisciplinary Companion to Egypt during the Greco Roman and Late Antique period With contributions from noted authorities in the field A Companion to Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt offers a comprehensive resource that covers almost 1000 years of Egyptian history starting with the liberation of Egypt from Persian rule by Alexander the Great in 332 BC and ending in AD 642 when Arab rule started in the Nile country The Companion takes a largely sociological perspective and includes a section on life portraits at the end of each part The theme of identity in a multicultural environment and a chapter on the quality of life of Egypt's inhabitants clearly illustrate this objective The authors put the emphasis on the changes that occurred in the Greco Roman and Late Antique periods as illustrated by such topics as Traditional religious life challenged Governing a country with a past between tradition and innovation and Creative minds in theory and praxis This important resource Discusses how Egypt became part of a globalizing world in Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine times Explores notable innovations by the Ptolemies and Romans Puts the focus on the longue duree development Offers a thematic and multidisciplinary approach to the subject bringing together scholars of different disciplines Contains life portraits in which various aspects and themes of people's daily life in Egypt are discussed Written for academics and students of the Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt period this Companion offers a guide that is useful for students in the areas of Hellenistic Roman Byzantine and New Testament studies From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt Maged S. A.

Mikhail, 2014-08-25 The conquest of Egypt by Islamic armies under the command of Amr ibn al As in the seventh century transformed medieval Egyptian society Seeking to uncover the broader cultural changes of the period by drawing on a wide array of literary and documentary sources Maged Mikhail stresses the cultural and institutional developments that punctuated the histories of Christians and Muslims in the province under early Islamic rule From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt traces how the largely agrarian Egyptian society responded to the influx of Arabic and Islam the means by which the Coptic Church constructed its sectarian identity the Islamisation of the administrative classes and how these factors converged to create a new medieval society The result is a fascinating and essential study for scholars of Byzantine and early Islamic Egypt

Petitions, Litigation, and Social Control in Roman Egypt Benjamin Kelly, 2011-10-13 This book examines the contribution that petitioning and litigation made to the maintenance of the social order in Roman Egypt between 30 BC and AD 284 Through the analysis of the many hundreds of documents surviving on papyrus especially petitions reports of court proceedings and letters Kelly focuses on how the legal system achieved its formal goals that is the resolution of disputes through judgments and discusses in detail the contribution made by the litigation process to informal methods of social control With particular emphasis on the roles that this process played in the transmission of political ideologies in the maintenance of family solidarity and in the fostering of private mechanisms of dispute resolution the book argues that although the legal system was less than successful when judged by its formal aims it did have a real social impact by contributing indirectly to some of the informal mechanisms that ensured order in this province of the Roman Empire However arguing that on occasion one can also see petitioning and litigation being abused for the pursuit of feud and vengeance Kelly also recognizes that the social impacts of petitioning and litigation were multifaceted and in some senses even contradictory A State of Mixture Richard E. Payne,2015-09-01 Christian communities flourished during late antiquity in a Zoroastrian political system known as the Iranian Empire that integrated culturally and geographically disparate territories from Arabia to Afghanistan into its institutions and networks Whereas previous studies have regarded Christians as marginal insular and often persecuted participants in this empire Richard Payne demonstrates their integration into elite networks adoption of Iranian political practices and imaginaries and participation in imperial institutions The rise of Christianity in Iran depended on the Zoroastrian theory and practice of hierarchical differentiated inclusion according to which Christians Jews and others occupied legitimate places in Iranian political culture in positions subordinate to the imperial religion Christians for their part positioned themselves in a political culture not of their own making with recourse to their own ideological and institutional resources ranging from the writing of saints lives to the judicial arbitration of bishops In placing the social history of East Syrian Christians at the center of the Iranian imperial story A State of Mixture helps explain the endurance of a culturally diverse empire across four centuries

Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall,2021-09-09 Egypt played a crucial role in the Roman Empire for seven centuries It was wealthy and occupied a strategic position between the Mediterranean and Indian Ocean worlds while its uniquely fertile lands helped to feed the imperial capitals at Rome and then Constantinople The cultural and religious landscape of Egypt today owes much to developments during the Roman period including in particular the forms taken by Egyptian Christianity Moreover we have an abundance of sources for its history during this time especially because of the recovery of vast numbers of written texts giving an almost uniquely detailed picture of its society economy government and culture This book the work of six historians and archaeologists from Egypt the US and the UK provides students and a general audience with a readable new history of the period and includes many illustrations of art archaeological sites and documents and quotations from primary sources

Localized Law Kimberley Czajkowski,2017 Localized Law examines the legal archives of Babatha and Salome Komaise

which offer a window onto the practice of law in Maoza as it came under the control of the Roman Empire A series of case studies of the various agents involved in the legal transactions illuminates the legal culture of this community and its practice of law and justice

Unending Variety ,2024-03-11 This is a Festschrift offered by friends and colleagues to papyrologist and ancient historian Peter van Minnen The volume contains the edition or re edition of 52 papyri and ostraca dating from between the third century BCE and the eighth century CE Their subjects vary from Demosthenes to the delivery of camels in early Islamic Egypt and their provenances stretch from the Eastern to the Western Desert and from the Egyptian Nile valley to Qasr Ibrim in northern Nubia All texts are published with transcription translation commentary and colour photographs In addition there are five studies reflecting the honoree's wide ranging interests

Holy Bishops in Late Antiquity Claudia Rapp,2005 Between 300 and 600 Christianity experienced a momentous change from persecuted cult to state religion One of the consequences of this shift was the evolution of the role of the bishop as the highest Church official in his city from model Christian to model citizen Claudia Rapp's exceptionally learned innovative and groundbreaking work traces this transition with a twofold aim to deemphasize the reign of the emperor Constantine which has traditionally been regarded as a watershed in the development of the Church as an institution and to bring to the fore the continued importance of the religious underpinnings of the bishop's role as civic leader Rapp rejects Max Weber's categories of charismatic versus institutional authority that have traditionally been used to distinguish the nature of episcopal authority from that of the ascetic and holy man Instead she proposes a model of spiritual authority ascetic authority and pragmatic authority in which a bishop's visible asceticism is taken as evidence of his spiritual powers and at the same time provides the justification for his public role In clear and graceful prose Rapp provides a wholly fresh analysis of the changing dynamics of social mobility as played out in episcopal appointments

Economy and Society in the Age of Justinian Peter Sarris,2006-09-28 The reign of the Byzantine Emperor Justinian 527-65 stands out in late Roman and medieval history Justinian reconquered far flung territories from the barbarians overhauled the Empire's administrative framework and codified for posterity the inherited tradition of Roman law This work represents a modern study in English of the social and economic history of the Eastern Roman Empire in the reign of the Emperor Justinian Drawing upon papyrological numismatic legal literary and archaeological evidence the study seeks to reconstruct the emergent nature of relations between landowners and peasants and aristocrats and emperors in the late antique Eastern Empire It provides a social and economic context in which to situate the Emperor Justinian's mid sixth century reform programme and questions the implications of the Eastern Empire's pattern of social and economic development under Justinian for its subsequent post Justinianic history
