Adults as Children James M. M. Francis, 2006 This book is a study of the image of the child in the teaching of Jesus and the literature of the New Testament set against the background of the ancient world the Old Testament and Judaism It also reflects on the complex relationship between attitudes to children and the imaging of the child It is suggested that child imagery serves generally speaking as a window on tradition and in religious discourse in particular it offers perspectives on the relationship between believing and belonging In exploring how child imagery informs the teaching of Jesus it is argued that his own use of such imagery whilst not unique being influenced primarily by the wider imagery of Israel as God's son child and servant is nevertheless distinctive As a metaphor symbolising primarily a call to change and renewal it conveys in microcosm the central themes of his message of the kingdom of God The study goes on to explore the meanings of child imagery in the theologies of the Gospel writers and in other New Testament literary contexts
