Contemporary Popular Writers Dave Mote, 1997 Included are authors both living and dead who were active in the early 1960s or later and remain popular in the mid 1990s representing several fiction and nonfiction categories including poets short story writers biographers and other niche authors Page xi Index of American Periodical Verse 1979 Sander W. Zulauf, James D. Anderson, Rafael Català, 1995-05-30 The Index of American Periodical Verse is an important work for contemporary poetry research and is an objective measure of poetry that includes poets from the United States Canada and the Caribbean as well as other lands cultures and times It reveals trends in the output of particular poets and the cultural influences they represent The publications indexed cover a broad cross section of poetry literary scholarly popular general and little magazines journals and reviews Navigating the Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs, Doug Haynes, 2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American-ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric It includes discussions of travel migration disease media globalization and countless other examples of inflowing Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel

the impact of Caribbean history on American thought and vice versa transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world but how that world is resistant this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies
