Heretic Blood Michael W. Higgins, 2016-10-31 Thirty years after his death we are finally catching up to Thomas Merton as one of the greatest spiritual figures of the twentieth century The genius and spirituality of this unusual man could not be contained in his life as a monk but spilled over richly into his life and work as a poet critic rebel sage and even artist and photographer Merton was aware that he had heretic blood within him and it soon became apparent to the world The balding French English intellectual living as a Trappist monk at Our Lady of Gethsemani Abbey in Kentucky took a vow of silence yet corresponded with and befriended such luminaries as Joan Baez Jacques Maritain John Howard Griffin Martin Luther King Jr Erich Fromm and Boris Pasternak His famous autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain captured the imagination of a generation selling more than six hundred thousand copies in its first year Merton also took a vow of obedience yet feuded constantly with his second abbot As a monk he promised to remain celibate yet he found himself passionately in love with a nurse he met while in hospital in Louisville Kentucky And at the end of his life Merton a monk within the western Roman Catholic tradition was moving closer and closer to Eastern spirituality This brilliant new book is the first to use recently released diary entries and correspondence by Merton and includes new insights about the recently published diary of his episode of the heart Higgins compares Merton with William Blake the monk's intellectual and spiritual hero and comes to startling conclusions about the emotional and intellectual passions that drove Thomas Merton a man and thinker for all seasons

An Asian Woman's Religious Journey with Thomas Merton Jung Eun Sophia Park, 2021-11-30 Join Jung Eun Sophia Park on her personal quest for God and her true self through the writings of Thomas Merton Approaching Merton as an Asian immigrant feminist in the postcolonial era Park's perspective is a unique one and in this dance sometimes it is her and sometimes Merton who leads Throughout Eastern and Western spirituality are organically woven together in reflection on Merton's narratives and in the examination of late capitalism poverty beauty and violence These reflections are insightful provocative and illuminating particularly with regard to his androcentric spirituality especially as it relates to his relationships with women Messages from the Beloved Celeste Anand, Robert R. Anand, 2007-03-21 This book is written for those who wish to explore the many types of religious experiences and pathways available to us a human beings Celeste is a born again charismatic Christian who sought and received many manifestations of the Gifts of God's Holy Spirit in the end of the 1960s Her people believe in reading the Bible prayer and pure living Charismatic believers of all faiths know He has never stopped communing with His own people even until the end of time It is believed by many He is again pouring out His Spirit upon all flesh Miracles tongues prophecy discernment healing knowledge etc are still in operation He told His people they would perform even greater miracles than He has done The authors are attempting to allow readers to find their own personal pathways and interpretations as seekers of knowledge and wisdom as they read through the prophetic messages received by Celeste since that time in 1965 He desires to share Himself with her and others who will hear His voice If one is able to open one's heart He may come into your heart center as the Living Lord Jesus He wishes to show Himself to those who may not have had a chance to know Him or to understand the powers of His manifold life and teachings Closing Comments Brian A.
