7 Ways of Teaching the Bible to Children Barbara Bruce,2011-12-01 There are seven distinct ways of teaching and learning verbal linguistic logical mathematical visual spatial body kinesthetic musical rhythmic interpersonal and intrapersonal In 7 Ways of Teaching the Bible to Children Barbara Bruce uses these seven learning styles to show you how to meet the various learning needs of each child in your classroom The 25 Old and New Testament lessons which are included feature warm up exercises scripture readings activities and options for tailoring the lesson to all your students individual learning needs Practical advice for discovering each child s learning preferences reproducible patterns and handouts and a teacher training session are also included The Bible story lessons can be used independently or with existing class curriculum Many Ways to Learn Sharon Roop,Kristen Watson,Kelly Caldwell,2001 Ten theme based units suggest creative activities based on the theory of multiple intelligences The monthly themes kick off the school year with my favorites favorite books people colors etc then move on to apples and pumpkins harvest stories about runaways hot soup for January authors weather for March ecology and careers closing out the year with a June unit on friendship Units offer key questions a framework addressing each of eight learning styles a one week sample lesson plan lists of related children s literature and reproducible handouts to ease implementation Grades K 2 Bibliography Illustrated Good Year Books 164 pages Seven Ways of Teaching David G. Lazear,1991 This guide provides a rationale and approach for translating Howard Gardner s theory of multiple intelligences into classroom practice The introduction explains Gardner s theory gives the definitions of the seven intelligences he identifies verbal linguistic logical mathematical visual spatial body kinesthetic musical rhythmic interpersonal intrapersonal and defines specific capacities that are related to these intelligences The seven chapters present model lessons that emphasize one of the intelligences as the primary mode of knowing and learning Each of these lessons includes 1 a lesson pallet that helps teachers select the appropriate tools for the intelligence being emphasized 2 a brief overview of the processes of awakening amplifying teaching and transferring as they apply to the intelligence being emphasized in the lesson 3 the lesson procedures 4 suggestions for adapting the lesson to needs different from the proposed grade level 5 assessment tips 6 lesson pallets designed to help teachers reflect on how a past or future lesson could be restructured to incorporate the intelligence being emphasized in the lesson and 7 a chart of ideas for lessons in a given intelligence area The appendices contain helpful examples of lesson procedures and graphic organizers a glossary and 110 references AA Multiple Intelligences, Curriculum and Assessment Project Áine Hyland,2000 The Holistic Curriculum John P. Miller,2007-03-17 Holistic education is concerned with connections in human experience connections between mind and body between linear thinking and intuitive ways of knowing between individual and community and between the personal self and the transpersonal self First published in 1988 The Holistic Curriculum examines the philosophical psychological and social foundations of holistic education outlining its history and discussing practical applications in the classroom This revised and expanded second edition concisely describes how holistic thinking integrates spiritual and scientific perspectives drawing on romantic humanistic and other radical alternatives to the atomistic worldview of the modern age The role of the teacher the issue of accountability and strategies for implementing the Holistic Curriculum are also discussed The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools, Third Edition Jo Nelson,2013-08-20 Why don t kids learn Why can t students do higher order thinking Why do educators have endless staff meetings with few results How can parents and teachers communicate better The pressure upon educators to teach more to a wider range and number of students with decreasing resources and supports makes it urgent to find tools to answer such questions The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools demonstrates how the Focused Conversation method widely used in organizations and businesses can effectively be used in a K 12 educational setting Each section deals with interactions among students staff and parents and elaborates with over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful prevent and solve problems and make communications in meetings more effective Appendices showcase integrated curriculum examples where conversations have been used in unique combinations and list sample questions for each level of the conversation method

With a bibliography and index included and patterned after its highly successful predecessor The Art of Focused Conversation 100 Ways to Access Group Wisdom in the Workplace this book will be welcomed by parents students educators and school administrators everywhere The Institute of Cultural Affairs has over 40 years experience in more than 32 nations A unique facilitation research and training organization ICA Canada has provided participatory skills to many thousands of people worldwide

Intelligence Reframed Howard E Gardner,2000-09-18 Harvard psychologist Howard Gardner has been acclaimed as the most influential educational theorist since John Dewey His ideas about intelligence and creativity explicated in such bestselling books as Frames of Mind and Multiple Intelligences over 200 000 copies in print combined have revolutionized our thinking In his groundbreaking 1983 book Frames of Mind Howard Gardner first introduced the theory of multiple intelligences which posits that intelligence is more than a single property of the human mind That theory has become widely accepted as one of the seminal ideas of the twentieth century and continues to attract attention all over the world Now in Intelligence Reframed Gardner provides a much needed report on the theory its evolution and revisions He offers practical guidance on the educational uses of the theory and responds to the critiques leveled against him He also introduces two new intelligences existential intelligence and naturalist intelligence and argues that the concept of intelligence should be broadened but not so absurdly that it includes every human virtue and value Ultimately argues Gardner possessing a basic set of seven or eight intelligences is not only a unique trademark of the human species but also perhaps even a working definition of the species Gardner also offers provocative ideas about creativity leadership and moral excellence and speculates about the relationship between multiple intelligences and the world of work in the future

Educating Christian Teachers for Responsive Discipleship Peter P. DeBoer, 1993 Five members of the Calvin College Center for Christian Scholarship 1991 1992 team present some creative and constructive proposals for changes that could occur in the teacher education programs of hundreds of church related colleges Theoretically committed to a biblical vision of responsive discipleship the authors sketch out 1 a curricular theory that encourages many sided encounters with created reality which stimulate varieties of student responses that should arise ultimately from a commitment of the heart 2 a collaborative model of teacher education that urges congruent values to be held by the local school school district and the teacher education college and 3 a curriculum that arises in part out of the laboratory of the classroom through the interaction of teacher and student in a school organized to develop collegiality among teachers and students where through the use of evaluative portfolios student teachers learn to be reflective practitioners of the art and craft of teaching Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies

On Cultivating Faith and Science Janez Juhant, Bojan Žalec, 2007 The ethical distress of the post modern world stimulates and directs us to reflect our ethical and cultural grounds Man is a transcendent being He cannot reach or put in order immediate goods he needs if he is not prepared to acknowledge the grounds of his person and develop the virtues of prudence love hope faith wisdom justice courage temperance etc These are ethical questions concerning different worldviews and cannot be solved only by scientific methods Many people who in the past did not care for religion as such now take seriously religious personal and societal aspects of humane life The fundamental crucial questions of man are ethical questions They are in various ways related or perplexed with the question of faith and of science
