Seventh Division 1914-1918:

The Seventh Division, 1914-1918 Christopher Thomas Atkinson, 1927 The Seventh Division, 1914-1918 Christopher Thomas Atkinson, 1927 The Seventh Division, 1914-1918. By C. T. Atkinson. [With Plates, Including Portraits, and Maps.]. Great Britain. Army. Division, 7th, 1927 Seventh Division 1914-1918 Christopher Thomas Atkinson, 2000-02-01 Trench Warfare 1914-1918 A.E. Ashworth, 1980-11-27 A classic of military history about the smaller personal battles of the First World War The Fifty-Second (Lowland) Division, 1914-1918 Ralph Reakes Thompson, 1923 The History of the 19th Division, 1914-1918 Everard Wyrall, 1932 The First World War, 1914-1918 Charles à Court Repington, 1920 The Grenadier Guards in the Great War 1914-1918 Vol 1 Sir Frederick Ponsonby, 2013-02-18 The Grenadier Guards began the war with three battalions of which only one the 2nd was committed to the BEF it was in the 4th Guards Brigade 2nd Division As soon as war was declared the 4th Reserve Battalion was formed and within five days 1 700 reservists had reported In September 1914 the 7th Division was formed and the 1st Battalion was allocated to 20th Brigade of the new division On 14th July 1915 another Grenadier battalion was formed and numbered the 4th the Reserve battalion then became the 5th A month later the 4th battalion went to France to join the newly created Guards Division and it was at this stage also that the 3rd Battalion which hitherto had been retained in London by Kitchener for some undefined reason was sent out to join the new division Thus by August 1915 there were four battalions of Grenadiers on the Western front where they remained for the rest of the war By the end the Regiment had suffered 11 915 casualties of which 203 Officers and 4 508 Other Ranks were dead seven VCs had been won and 34 Battle Honours awarded This as might be expected is a very good history with detailed descriptions of the fighting and of the conditions the men endured One sentence in particular paints a graphic picture of the state of the trenches in January 1915 The gruesome task of removing the dead was effected by floating the bodies down the communication trenches The author tells the story in chronological order vol I takes the record of the four battalions to the end of 1915 vol II to the German offensive of March 1918 and vol III to the armistice and beyond to the division's march into Germany Each volume is paginated separately with its own contents list though the chapters run consecutively through all three Each chapter covers a specific period and the chapter heading indicates which battalions are involved There are plenty of maps to support the narrative showing tactical details Among the appendices are the Roll of Honour a list of officers wounded with dates lists of Awards Mentions in Despatches and of Divisional Certificates of Gallantry and an account of the 7th Guards Entrenching Battalion There is a table naming all other ranks who were commissioned during the war showing the regiment or corps to which they went Finally there is an index to the names of officers The History of the 51st (Highland) Division, 1914-1918 Frederick William Bewsher, 1921 If it were possible for the General who for three years commanded all the British Divisions in France and was served with equal gallantry devotion and success by each to admit a predilection for any of them my affection would naturally turn to the Division that drew so many of its recruits from the same part of Scotland where my boyhood was spent and my own people lived Those who read the pages of this book will find therein a tale of patient endeavour and glorious achievement of which I claim a good right to be as proud as any of my fellow countrymen The 51st Division does not need to boast of its prowess or its record It can point to the story of its deeds plainly and simply told and leave the world to judge

The History of the Second Division 1914-1918 - Volume 1 Everard Wyrall,2013-01-02 Of the six pre war regular divisions only two 2nd and 5th published a detailed history of their part in the Great War The 2nd Division landed in France with the original BEF as part of I Corps Haig between 11 and 16 August 1914 It was not directly engaged at Mons and such casualties as were sustained 10 killed 80 wounded were from artillery fire During the retreat it was engaged at Landrecies 4th Guards Brigade and Villers Cotterets but its first major battles were at the Marne and the Aisne and subsequently it fought in all the battles of First Ypres During the three months September to the end of November 1914 it suffered some 8 500 casualties At the end of 1914 the division moved south to the Bethune sector where it remained throughout 1915 still in I Corps It was at Festubert Loos and the Hohenzollern Redoubt which in all cost almost 9 000 casualties In February 1916 it moved down to the Vimy sector in IV Corps where it stayed till July the next move was to the Somme Here the division had a protracted spell till March 1917 during which time it was in action at Delville Wood Guillemont and the Ancre incurring nearly 8 000 casualties The 2nd was one of the few divisions not involved Third Ypres July November 1917 but it had earlier taken part in the April May Arras offensive and later in November December in the Battle of Cambrai Throughout 1918 the division was in the line for much of the time in the German offensive and in the Advance to Victory its final action was the Battle of the Selle 23 25 October The final casualty figure was around 45 000 Seventeen VCs were won and two of the commanders went on to greater things Monro to Commander in Chief India and Horne to command of First Army The division took part in the march to the Rhine occupying the area around Cologne In March 1919 the division ceased to exist as such when it was redesignated The Light Division The history is a very good one by probably the most prolific of all the authors of formation and regimental histories of the Great War The detailed account is easy to follow and the Wyrall has taken care to name many individuals in the actions and events he is describing Casualty details are given in appendices and in the text and there is a nominal roll of divisional staff with all the changes throughout the war

where it remained throughout 1915 still in I Corps It was at Festubert Loos and the Hohenzollern Redoubt which in all cost almost 9 000 casualties In February 1916 it moved down to the Vimy sector in IV Corps where it stayed till July the next move was to the Somme Here the division had a protracted spell till March 1917 during which time it was in action at Delville Wood Guillemont and the Ancre incurring nearly 8 000 casualties The 2nd was one of the few divisions not involved Third Ypres July November 1917 but it had earlier taken part in the April May Arras offensive and later in November December in the Battle of Cambrai Throughout 1918 the division was in the line for much of the time in the German offensive and in the Advance to Victory its final action was the Battle of the Selle 23 25 October The final casualty figure was around 45 000 Seventeen VCs were won and two of the commanders went on to greater things Monro to Commander in Chief India and Horne to command of First Army The division took part in the march to the Rhine occupying the area around Cologne In March 1919 the division ceased to exist as such when it was redesignated The Light Division The history is a very good one by probably the most prolific of all the authors of formation and regimental histories of the Great War The detailed account is easy to follow and the Wyrall has taken care to name many individuals in the actions and events he is describing Casualty details are given in appendices and in the text and there is a nominal roll of divisional staff with all the changes throughout the war

The Grenadier Guards in the Great War of 1914-1918 Vol 1, 2, 3 Frederick Ponsonby, 2021-08-30 Excerpt When the Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria was assassinated at Sarajevo in Serbia on June 28 1914 it never for a moment occurred to any one in this country that the crime could in any way affect the destinies of the First or Grenadier Regiment of Footguards No one dreamed that before another year had passed not only would the three Battalions be fighting in a European war but there would even be a 4th Battalion at the front in addition to a 5th Reserve Battalion of almost unwieldy proportions Even when Austria began to show her teeth it still seemed an incident quite beyond our horizon If Austria and Serbia did come to blows Great Britain was not even indirectly involved and the British Army therefore remained unmoved The Balkan peoples were constantly in a state of warlike commotion but their troubles hardly affected the great British Empire The war clouds that from time to time darkened the European sky had hitherto always been dispersed More than once of late years the German Emperor had rattled his sword in the scabbard and talked or telegraphed to the very limits of indiscretion but nothing had ever come of it nor did it seem at all probable that the assassination of an Austrian Archduke could be made the pretext for a European conflagration

The Somme Robin Prior, Trevor Wilson, 2005-05-11 In the long history of the British Army the Battle of the Somme was its bloodiest encounter Between July 1 and mid November 1916 432 000 of its soldiers became casualties about

3 600 for every day of battle German casualties were far fewer despite British superiority in the air and in lethal artillery What went wrong for the British and who was responsible Robin Prior and Trevor Wilson have examined the entire public archive on the Battle of the Somme to reconstruct the day by day course of the war The result is the most precise and authentic account of the campaign on record and a book that challenges almost every received view of the battle The colossal rate of infantry casualties in fact resulted from inadequate fire support responsibility for tactical mistakes actually belonged to the High Command and the civilian War Committee Field Marshall Haig the records show was repeatedly deficient in strategy tactics command and organization Hundreds of thousands of soldiers died for a cause that lacked both a coherent military plan and responsible political leadership Prior and Wilson decisively change our understanding of the history of the Western Front     The History of the Second Division, 1914-1918 Everard Wyrall, 1916     History of the 53rd (Welsh) Division (T.F.), 1914-1918 Charles Humble Dudley Ward, 1927
