They are, however, extraordinary. So extraordinary in fact that in themselves they are a kind of paradise. In Ordinary Paradise, acclaimed author, critic, and editor Richard Teleky considers a variety of artistic forms, from novels and poems to paintings and sculptures to movies and musical compositions, in celebration of the creative achievements that surround us and affect our daily lives. He examines as well some of the challenges and tensions in any artist's life. The essays in Ordinary Paradise challenge conventional wisdom and exemplify a dynamic and lively critical approach, pointing out troubling trends in contemporary appreciation of art and culture. They reveal the rewarding complexities of the demanding art of translation, the nostalgic power of re-reading, in provoking self-assessment and the fraught connection between language, silence, and identity as they relate to marginalized voices. Teleky immerses himself into ideas of truth, beauty, and humanity, and in so doing provides a compelling exemplar for engaging with contemporary culture and learning the innumerable lessons that artistic accomplishments have to teach us. Therapeutic Expedition John C. Thomas, Lisa Sosin, 2011-04-01 Based on fifty years of clinical and classroom experience, a comprehensive basic helping skills textbook for undergraduates as well as master's degree students in counseling, psychology, social work, or pastoral counseling. Group Action Martin Ringer, 2002-01-15 Martin Ringer, an internationally known consultant and writer on group psychology, here outlines techniques for understanding groups that will be relevant to those who lead teams in any setting. The result is an accessible guide both to leading a group and to understanding the necessary dynamics that will result in the best team work.

God's Englishwomen Hilary Hinds, 1996 This book offers a detailed study of the spiritual autobiographies and prophecies produced by Quaker Baptist and Fifth Monarchist women and asks how such a proliferation of texts was produced in a culture dismissive of women's writing. On the Move Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, Helga Ramsey-Kurz, 2012-12-18 In the postcommunist world of organized mobility, commodified hospitality, and portable devices, the category of people labelled as migrants, the displaced, and refugees symbolize a different kind of movement. Among them, the postnational figure of the refugee stands out. Fleeing their land alone or in a group, on foot or on buses and trains or via makeshift boats and commercial flights, dressed in unfamiliar clothes and borrowed identities, the refugees travel to dare a future from the taken roads. Their journey of escape is fraught with danger and despair, their survival complicated by the politics of suspicion and their right to return compromised by the power game between sovereign states. Waiting for ever in transit zones or living underground like animals but exploited for their labour, the refugees are the untouchables of the 21st century who put to test the universal and moral duty of hospitality. When the international legal regime of human and humanitarian rights does not come to their rescue, refugee women and children feel twice abandoned. This volume of collected essays tries to explore the journey of refugees as represented in New Literatures in English Who are these refugees What circumstances triggered their movement At what point in history Where do they go How do they cope What are their dreams When does the refugees silence break into speech and story How does life assert itself in spite of impending death Could the death of a refugee be as insignificant as her bare life of exile Scholars from Europe Africa India and Sri Lanka give here a comprehensive picture of the refugee movement across the globe since the Second World War The refugee narratives highlight the need to extend the logic of protection from persecution to asylum from economic crisis and ecological imbalance in order to offset the after effects of imperial outreach and industrial expansion With a short story by Chika Unigwe by way of a foreword and contributions from Petra Tournay Theodotou Helga Ramsey Kurz Marta Cariello Stavros Karayanni Jean Marie Soungoua Federico Fabris Evelyne Hanquart Turner Annie Cottier Geetha Ganapathy Dor G Sujatha and V Vinod Kumar Quaker Quicks - In Step with Quaker Testimony Joanna Godfrey Wood,2021-04-30 Margaret Fell was an inspiring and practical leader in the early Quaker movement in 17th century England Remembered as the wife of George Fox her writings have been largely forgotten This book brings them to life again with excerpts and reflections structured around the four testimonies that have continued to shape Quaker witness to this day Simplicity Truth Equality and Peace To do this Joanna Godfrey Wood follows each passage with a modern adaptation of Fell s words and then explores her own personal responses from a 21st century perspective We are left with a sense of a strong and beautiful bridge linking past and present Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy D.
