Sex And The Single Mother Romance And Relationships In The Eighties:

Sex and the Single Mother Dawn B. Sova,1987 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1988 Sex, Love, and Marriage in the 21st Century Robert T. Francoeur,Martha Cornog,Timothy Perper,1999 Love sex and marriage are changing faster than ever before in human history The current tidal wave of social changes will continue into the next century and we will have to adapt our sexual values and relationships to these accelerating changes These 22 honest authentic stories tell of the unconventional paths pioneering church leaders and spiritually aware women and men have taken in their quest to link their sexuality with their spiritual needs Some might see in these unorthodox explorations only tales of promiscuous couplings But these are not stories of wild thrill seekers These are tales told from the core of their being about their deeply felt need for genuine responsible love and intimacy within a spiritual context Their journeys do not promise paradise or instant happiness as popular magazines do with recipes for lifelong marital bliss and fiery passion These sojourners have much to teach us even when we decide that this or that path is not for us Their individual paths are not nearly as important as the simple message of God and Eros being inseparable that underlies journey God and Eros can come together in many different relationships And they must come together if we want to nourish and fulfill the divine spark at the core of our being These women and men challenge our assumptions and our willingness to adapt to our radically changing world

Love Your Neighbor and Yourself Elliot N. Dorff,2006-02-15 In this topically relevant book on modern ethical issues Dorff focuses on personal ethics Judaism s distinctive way of understanding human nature our role in life and what we should strive to be both as individuals and as members of a community Dorff addresses specific moral issues that affect our personal lives privacy particularly at work as it is affected by the Internet and other modern technologies sex in and outside of marriage family matters such as adoption surrogate motherhood stepfamilies divorce parenting and family violence homosexuality justice mercy and forgiveness and charitable acts and social action

Labor of Love Heather Jacobson,2016-03-15 While the practice of surrogacy has existed for millennia new fertility technologies have allowed women to act as gestational surrogates carrying children that are not genetically their own While some women volunteer to act as gestational surrogates for friends or family members others get paid for performing this service The first ethnographic study of gestational surrogacy in the United States Labor of Love examines the conflicted attitudes that emerge when the ostensibly priceless act of bringing a child into the world becomes a paid occupation Heather Jacobson interviews not only surrogate mothers but also their family members the intended parents who employ surrogates and the various professionals who work to facilitate the process Seeking to understand how gestational surrogates perceive their vocation she discovers that many regard surrogacy as a calling but are reluctant to describe it as a job In the process Jacobson dissects the complex set of social attitudes underlying this resistance toward conceiving of pregnancy as a form of employment Through her extensive field research Jacobson gives readers a firsthand look at the many challenges faced by gestational surrogates who deal with complicated medical procedures delicate work family balances and tricky social dynamics Yet Labor of Love also demonstrates the extent to which advances in reproductive technology are affecting all Americans changing how we think about maternity family and the labor involved in giving birth For more visit <http://www.heatherjacobsononline.com> All You Need is Love? Rachel Thomson, Sue Sharpe, 2005-01-01 Providing a unique insight into young people's sexual values for adults working with them this book relays the voices of young people and their views about the morality of sexual relationships

Sexual Revolutions in Cuba Carrie Hamilton, 2012 Chronicling the history of sexuality in Cuba since the 1959 revolution this book frames the relationship between passion and politics in the revolution's wider history and argues that the Cuban revolutionary regime intervened in the sexual lives of Cubans in a variety of ways and transformed key areas of Cuban life including the family reproduction sexual values and sexual relationships Drawing from a major oral history project the Memories of the Revolution oral history project conducted by a team of British and Cuban researchers Hamilton was one of the British researchers on the team between 2003 and 2007 Hamilton explores the experiences and perceptions of sexuality among Cubans across generations and social groups She contextualizes the oral histories within an array of archival and secondary sources relating them to issues of race class and gender as well as to social economic and political change Organized thematically the volume opens with a historical overview that points out that after 1959 revolutionary values continued to coexist with pre revolutionary ideologies in a potent and often contradictory mix Succeeding chapters examine discourse on love romance and passion on both personal and national levels male and female homosexuality sexual repression and changing gender roles and service to the revolution Hamilton explores conflicting notions of Cuba as a site of desire on the one hand and as a place of intense sexual repression especially with regard to homosexuality on the other She identifies many ways in which revolutionary policy affected sexual behavior including changes to policy and laws mass education programs leaders pronouncements on the relationship between good revolutionaries and private life and the provision of incentives to encourage certain forms of sexual union and repressive measures to discourage and punish others Hamilton argues that sexual politics were central to the construction of a new revolutionary society

Ethics in Practice Andrew Alexandra, Seumas Miller, 2009 Dozens of times a day in matters both grave and mundane we make moral choices Guided by our sense of what is right or wrong fair or unfair kind or cruel we usually have no doubt about what to do Sometimes however we find ourselves facing situations of moral complexity and uncertainty Wayne an orderly finds Mrs Smith slumped in her bathroom her vital signs non-existent Should he administer the life saving drugs even though he is not qualified to do so and will risk losing his job Miss B a tetraplegic paralysed from the neck down remains indefinitely in an intensive care unit where she is dependent entirely upon a ventilator She asks to have the ventilator switched off Does she have the right to die As two police officers approach a block of flats to arrest a known drug dealer and pedophile a parcel of heroin flies out the window Subsequently the senior officer makes a statement claiming that the heroin was found in the suspect's fat Should the junior officer perjure himself when questioned in court and put this dangerous felon behind bars once and for all Focusing on a range of problematic issues likely to be confronted by human service professionals Ethics in Practice uses numerous absorbing case studies to show how moral theory can guide us in the face of morally hard choices

Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2013-05-06 Few of us have been spared the agonies of intimate relationships They come in many shapes loving a man or a woman who will not commit to us being heartbroken when we re abandoned by a lover engaging in Sisyphean internet searches coming back lonely from bars parties or blind dates feeling bored in a relationship that is so much less than we had envisaged these are only some of the ways in which the search for love is a difficult and often painful experience Despite the widespread and almost collective character of these experiences our culture insists they are the result of faulty or insufficiently mature psyches For many the Freudian idea that the family designs the pattern of an individual s erotic career has been the main explanation for why and how we fail to find or sustain love Psychoanalysis and popular psychology have succeeded spectacularly in convincing us that individuals bear responsibility for the misery of their romantic and erotic lives The purpose of this book is to change our way of thinking about what is wrong in modern relationships The problem is not dysfunctional childhoods or insufficiently self aware psyches but rather the institutional forces shaping how we love The argument of this book is that the modern romantic experience is shaped by a fundamental transformation in the ecology and architecture of romantic choice The samples from which men and women choose a partner the modes of evaluating prospective partners the very importance of choice and autonomy and what people imagine to be the spectrum of their choices all these aspects of choice have transformed the very core of the will how we want a partner the sense of worth bestowed by relationships and the organization of desire This book does to love what Marx did to commodities it shows that it is shaped by social relations and institutions and that it circulates in a marketplace of unequal actors Sex, Love, and Friendship Adrienne Leigh McEvoy, 2011-08 The joke is that all the prostitutes go on vacation when the philosophers come to town The reason that the other conventioners do it philosophers just talk about it And talk about sex and love and friendship is what the contributors to this volume do They talk and argue split hairs and clarify all trying to advance our understanding of this most interesting practice of the human species Some of the best minds on three continents from four nations and eighteen of the United States discuss such topics as adultery commitment cross dressing gender politics date rape family friendship friends as lovers gayness love marital pluralism marriage prostitution religiously motivated anti queer sentiments same sex marriage seduction and self respect Rather than preach participants probe our attitudes and practices involving these issues with the aim of better understanding the broad range of sexual practices of our species The result is a collection of stimulating essays that can enliven class discussions as well as provide guidance for the sexually perplexed The work is accessible to readers from high school through college and beyond Chasing Sex: Wanting Love, Finding Myself Patti Britton, 2024-09-17 Patti's passion for sex love and intimacy will inspire you with her hopeful messages and insightful lessons learned John Gray best selling author of Men Are from Mars Women Are from Venus Out of the depths of adversity a fierce and compassionate warrior emerged In Chasing Sex Wanting Love Finding Myself Dr Patti Britton shares her unforgettable journey of resilience reinvention and reclaiming power Overcoming the trauma of multiple sexual violations and the challenges of single motherhood on welfare Patti forged a revolutionary path that earned her the titles Grande Dame of Sexology and Mother of Sex Coaching Throughout her groundbreaking career Patti has become a beacon for women reclaiming their pleasure power and purpose Her deeply personal memoir not only shares her triumphs but offers insightful lessons on overcoming grief trauma and struggle This book will resonate with anyone seeking to heal and reclaim their own strength and voice Chasing Sex Wanting Love Finding Myself invites you to step into your own power embrace your sexual self and rediscover joy
