Young People, Sex and the Media D. Buckingham, S. Bragg, 2003-12-05 Are children today growing up too soon How do they and their parents feel about media portrayals of sex and personal relationships Are the media a corrupting influence or a potentially positive and useful resource for young people Drawing on an extensive research project which investigated children's interpretations of sexual content in films TV and print media this book considers how young people aged 9-17 use such material to understand their experiences and build their identities and how they and their parents respond to public concerns about these issues The book offers a clearly written and entertaining insight into children s and parents perspectives on these difficult issues perspectives that are often ignored or trivialised in public debate Young People's Lives and Sexual Relationships in Rural Africa Mary Louisa Plummer, Daniel Wight, 2011-08-16 New infections with HIV remain an urgent problem among young people in Africa but many young Africans pursue sexual relationships with little thought about the epidemic This book examines young people s sexual relationships in a region typical of rural sub Saharan Africa and investigates why the risk of HIV infection generally was not a salient concern for them It is based on an extraordinarily large and representative qualitative study that was affiliated with an adolescent sexual health intervention trial and included three person years of participant observation conducted by young East Africans in nine Tanzanian villages The book describes typical patterns of sexual relationship formation in adolescence and early adult life the variety of young people s relationships and practices and the contradictory social ideals and expectations that led premarital and extramarital relationships to be concealed Young men s main motivations for sex were pleasure and masculine identity while young women s was to receive money or materials to meet their basic needs such as soap or a daytime meal By their late teens most young people had experienced one time sexual encounters open ended opportunistic relationships and main sometimes semi public partnerships Relationships could involve desire possessiveness and affection but romantic idealization of a partner was rare Many young people expected their partners to be monogamous but themselves had had concurrent relationships by age 20 The practice of hiding premarital sexual relationships from adults often also concealed them from other sexual partners which helped maintain concurrency and inhibited realistic risk perception Understanding of the biology of HIV AIDS was very limited Condoms were rarely used because they were associated with reduced pleasure infection and promiscuity Sexually transmitted infections were common but several factors hindered young people from seeking biomedical treatment for them Many instead relied on tradit Young People, Vulnerabilities and Prostitution/Sex for Compensation in the Nordic Countries: A Study of Knowledge, Social Initiatives and Legal Measures Holmström, Charlotta, Bjønness, Jeanett, Jensen, Mie Birk, Seikkula, Minna, Antonsdóttir, Hildur Fjóla, Skilbrei, May-Len, Söderholm, Tara, Grönvall, Ylva, 2019-11-20 What do we know about the extent of young people s experiences of sex for compensation in the Nordic countries Are such experiences addressed by social initiatives and how do legal measures affect them This report is based on country studies focusing on knowledge about sex for compensation among young people in the Nordic countries The five country studies show how research on the extent of and the motivations and conditions for young people selling sex in the Nordic countries is rather scarce and that there are few social initiatives that target young people specifically The interviews with service providers and the literature reviewed point to individual vulnerabilities related to young people s experiences of compensational sex In order to develop preventive measures more knowledge on structural factors related to experiences of compensational sex is needed Sex, Teens, and Everything in Between Shafia Zaloom, 2019-09-03 The ultimate guide for parenting today s
