Sex Art And American Culture:

Sex, Art, and American Culture Camille Paglia, 2011-08-31 A collection of twenty of Paglia's outspoken essays on contemporary issues in America's ongoing cultural debate such as Anita Hill Robert Mapplethorpe the beauty myth and the decline of education in America     Selections from Sex, Art, and American Culture Camille Paglia, 1990     Feminism in Practice Karen A. Foss, Sonja K. Foss, Alena Amato Ruggerio, 2021-09-23 Feminism in Practice uses feminism as a blueprint for exploring change strategies It features twenty contemporary feminists from diverse arenas including activists comedians musicians politicians poets and showrunners The women come to life through line drawings brief biographies extensive quotations their definitions of feminism and the change strategies they employ Questions for reflection encourage readers to think through their own relationship to feminism and change Chapter 1 defines feminism raising issues with the typical definition of feminism as the effort to achieve equality between women and men It concludes with a description of over twenty types of feminism Chapter 2 describes the triggering events happening places and key ideas of the four waves of feminism The opening chapters provide a comprehensive understanding of the diversity and complexity of feminist movement The book is organized around five primary objectives that animate contemporary change efforts proclaiming identity naming a problem enriching a system changing a system and creating an alternative system Each objective is developed through theoretical assumptions and twelve change strategies that show it at work in feminist movement Feminism in Practice also serves as a practical handbook that readers can use to experiment with the strategies and expand their toolkits for creating change in their lives and worlds The authors are uniquely qualified to explore issues of feminism and change Karen Foss and Sonja Foss are second wave feminists who have written extensively on alternative change strategies feminist communication and feminist theory Alena Ruggerio brings to the project the standpoint of a third wave feminist at home in pop culture Her scholarship lies at the intersection of rhetoric feminism and religious studies To learn more about Feminism in Practice listen to the authors October 2021 interview on The Jefferson Exchange     Sexual Harassment Linda LeMoncheck, Mane Hajdin, 2000-01-01 The question of what constitutes sexual harassment from suggestive remarks to outright threats from off color jokes to lewd posters on office walls is contentious as is the question of how to address sexual harassment Do all instances of sexual harassment constitute sex discrimination Are some instances merely sexual attraction gone wrong Do social policies aimed at eliminating sexual harassment in the workplace violate freedom of expression or do they make working relationships possible between women and men In this uncompromising yet respectful debate two philosophers of widely divergent views present clear arguments and then respond directly to each other's reasoning LeMoncheck argues for a feminist perspective on sexual harassment that is sensitive to the politics of gender Hajdin contends that this perspective is both morally confusing and legally problematic and that sexual harassment can be better addressed by traditional moral and legal categories     The Encarta Book of Quotations Bill Swainson, 2000-09-30 Here are 25 000 quotations drawn from the history politics literature religions science and popular culture of the world ranging from the earliest Chinese sages through Shakespeare to the present day     Loose Women, Lecherous Men Linda LeMoncheck, 1997 The author discusses methods for mediating the tensions among apparently irreconcilable feminist perspectives on women's sexuality and shows how a feminist epistemology and ethic can advance the dialogue in women's sexuality across a broad political spectrum     Updike and Politics Scott Dill, Matthew Shipe, 2019-06-27 Presenting the first interdisciplinary consideration of his political thought Updike and Politics New Considerations establishes a new scholarly foundation for assessing one of the most recognized and significant American writers of the post 1945 period This book brings together a diverse group of American and international scholars including contributors from Japan India Israel and Europe Like Updike himself the collection canvases a wide range of topics including Updike's too often overlooked poetry and his single play Its essays deal with not only political themes such as the traditional aspects of power rights equality justice or violence but also the more divisive elements in Updike's work like race gender imperialism hegemony and technology Ultimately the book reveals how Updike's immense body of work illuminates the central political questions and problems that troubled American culture during the second half of the twentieth century as well as the opening decade of the new millennium     Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden, 2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis     The Intellectual Species John Rodden, 2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens

Crossing Ocean Parkway Marianna De Marco Torgovnick, 2008-06-18 Growing up an Italian American in the Bensonhurst neighborhood of New York city Marianna De Marco longed for college culture and upward mobility Her daydreams circled around WASP White Anglo Saxon Protestant heroes on television like Robin Hood and the Cartwright family but in Brooklyn she never encountered any So she associated moving up with Ocean Parkway a street that divides the working class Italian neighborhood where she was born from the middle class Jewish neighborhood into which she married This book is Torgovnick's unflinching account of crossing cultural boundaries in American life of what it means to be an Italian American woman who became a scholar and literary critic Included are autobiographical moments interwoven with engrossing interpretations of American cultural icons from Dr Dolittle to Lionel Trilling The Godfather to Camille Paglia Her experiences allow her to probe the cultural tensions in America caused by competing ideas of individuality and community upward mobility and ethnic loyalty acquisitiveness and spirituality
