

The background of the slide is a painting of a woman with dark hair, wearing a bright yellow dress with a white collar. She is seated at a desk, leaning forward and writing with a quill pen on a piece of paper. The lighting is warm, highlighting the yellow of her dress and the texture of the paper. The overall style is that of a 19th-century oil painting.

Sex And Subterfuge Women Novelists To 1850:

Sex and Subterfuge Eva Figes,1982 Sex and Subterfuge Eva Figes,1988 British Women Writers, 1700-1850 Barbara Joan Horwitz,1997 A guide to British women authors their works and the writing about them Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author Sonia Hofkosh,1998-06-18 Exploring a range of early nineteenth century cultural materials from canonical poetry and critical prose to women s magazines and gift book engravings Sexual Politics and the Romantic Author offers new perspectives on the role of gender in Romanticism s defining paradigms of authorship The Romantic author s claim to individual agency is complicated by its articulation in a market system perceived to be impelled in large part by fantasies of female desire by what women read and write what they buy and sell how they look and where they look for pleasure These studies in the contested public spaces of literary labour elaborate the fundamental if invisible function of the woman as embodiment of authorial ambivalence in writing by Austen Byron Coleridge William Hazlitt Sarah Hazlitt Leigh Hunt Keats Mary Shelley William Wordsworth and others Cultural Constructions of Madness in Eighteenth-Century Writing A. Ingram,M. Faubert,2004-11-30 Cultural Constructions of Madness in the Eighteenth Century deals with the mis representation of insanity through a substantial range of literary forms and figures from across the eighteenth century and beyond Chapters cover the representation distortion sentimentalization and elevation of insanity and such associated issues as gender personal identity and performance in some of the best as well as some of the least known writers of the period A selection of visual material including works by Hogarth Rowlandson and Gillray is also discussed While primarily adopting a literary focus the work is informed throughout by an alertness to significant issues of medical and psychiatric history Frances Burney, Dramatist Barbara Darby,2021-12-14 The position Frances Burney 1752 1840 holds as a novelist journalist and letterwriter is now undisputed thanks to reevaluations of the canon in recent years Yet Burney was always intrigued by and wrote for the stage Though only one of Burney s dramas was performed in her lifetime Barbara Darby places the plays in the context of performance and feminist theory challenging past assertions about Burney that were based entirely on her novels and journals Darby maintains that in exposing the failure of such practices and institutions as courtship marriage family government and the church Burney s dramas often exceed her novels in the depth of their social commentary In her four comedies and four tragedies Burney uses stage space dialogue blocking and gesture to highlight the ways power is distributed among society s members According to Darby these plays show that the eighteenth century female experience was dominated by physical psychic and emotional regulation that included bodily punishment and the limitation of personal choice Placing Burney alongside other prominent female playwrights of the period Darby brings to light a substantial body of work revealing that Burney s drama was not a casual sideline to her novel writing Frances Burney Dramatist expands our appreciation of the extent to which eighteenth century women playwrights used the stage as a forum

Modern Genre Theory David Duff, 2014-09-11 Since Aristotle genre has been one of the fundamental concepts of literary theory and much of the world's literature and criticism has been shaped by ideas about the nature function and value of literary genres Modern developments in critical theory however prompted in part by the iconoclastic practices of modern writers and the emergence of new media such as film and television have put in question traditional categories and challenged the assumptions on which earlier genre theory was based This has led not just to a reinterpretation of individual genres and the development of new classifications but also to a radically new understanding of such key topics as the mixing and evolution of genres generic hierarchies and genre systems the politics and sociology of genres and the relations between genre and gender This anthology the first of its kind in English charts these fascinating developments Through judicious selections from major twentieth century genre theorists including Yury Tynyanov Vladimir Propp Mikhail Bakhtin Hans Robert Jauss Rosalie Colie Fredric Jameson Tzvetan Todorov Gérard Genette and Jacques Derrida it demonstrates the central role that notions of genre have played in Russian Formalism structuralism and post structuralism reception theory and various modes of historical criticism Each essay is accompanied by a detailed headnote and the volume opens with a lucid introduction emphasising the international and interdisciplinary character of modern debates about genre Also included are an annotated bibliography and a glossary of key terms making this an indispensable resource for students and anyone interested in genre studies or literary theory

The Wanderer, Or, Female Difficulties Fanny Burney, 2001 The Wanderer or Female Difficulties is the tale of a penniless emigree from Revolutionary France trying to earn her living in England while guarding her own secrets Combining the best elements of the Gothic and historical novels this newly appreciated work is an extraordinary piece of Romantic fiction Burney's tough comedy offers a satiric view of complacent middle class insularity that echoes Godwin and Wollstonecraft's attacks on the English social structure The problems of the new feminism and of the old anti feminism are explored in the relationship between the heroine and her English patroness and rival the Wollstonecraftian Elinor Joddrel and the racism inherent within both the French and British empires is exposed when the emigree disguises herself as a black woman This edition is fully annotated with appendices on the French Revolution race relations amusements and geography and a previously unpublished manuscript revealing the connection between The Wanderer and Camilla

Re-reading the Short Story Clare Hanson, 1989-06-18 This collection of essays maintaining links with theory and practice applies a critical approach to the short story form Some are theoretical in orientation covering such issues as gender and marginality while others offer readings of works by writers such as Alice Munro and John McGahern
