Sex Positives Cultural Politics Of Dissident Sexualities:

Sex Positives? Thomas Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1997 The feminist pornography debates are centered around the opposition between pro censorship factions and the pro sex radicals or sex positives But what exactly is the relationship between these debates and postmodern theories of reading and performativity What happens to these debates when they are placed in the context of colonial or U S racial histories What is the history behind today s sexual radicalism How radical is it In the first section of Sex Positives Nicola Pitchford Naomi Morgenstern Victoria L Smith and Gabrielle N Dean focus on the recent sex wars in U S feminism especially within lesbian culture Elissa J Rashkin Gaurav Desai and James Smalls broaden the terms of the sex wars debates in the second section to include sexualized racial and colonial representations from Chicana African and African American perspectives Finally Sander L Gilman Laura Ciolkowski and Laura Frost explore a variety of historical contexts for understanding contemporary forms of sexual representation and the repression of such representations

Public Rape Tanya Horeck, 2013-04-15 Second wave feminism fought to end the blanket silence shrouding rape and bring it to public attention Now feminist critics must confront a different issue In Public Rape Tanya Horeck considers the public investment in images of rape and the figure of the raped woman Introducing the idea of public rape Horeck looks at how images of rape serve as cultural fantasies of sexual racial and class difference Looking at rape in real life as well as in literature and films such as The Accused and Boys Don t Cry Horek reveals how representations of rape raise vital questions about the relationship between reality and fantasy and between violence and spectacle

Beauty is in the Street Joachim C. Häberlen, 2023-10-05 A rich and readable account of left wing activism in the West and opposition to Soviet style communism in the East Katja Hoyer The Spectator A dream perhaps but one that still sounds worth fighting for even beautiful Stuart Jeffries The Observer An ambitious and masterly account of utopian protest in Europe Fast paced with an eye for telling detail and written with a light touch Robert Gildea In post war Europe protest was everywhere On both sides of the Iron Curtain from Paris to Prague Milan to Wroclaw ordinary people took to the streets fighting for a better world Their efforts came to a head most dramatically in 1968 and 1989 when mass movements swept Europe and rewrote its history In the decades between Joachim C H berlen argues new movements emerged that transformed the nature of protesting Activism moved beyond traditional demonstrations from squatting to staging happenings and camping out at nuclear power plants People protested in the way they dressed the music they listened to the lovers they slept with the clubs where they danced all night New movements were born notably anti racism women s liberation gay liberation and environmentalism And protest turned inward as activists experimented with new ways of living and feeling from communes to group therapy in their efforts to live a better life in the here and now Some of these struggles succeeded others failed But successful or not their history provides a glimpse into roads not taken into futures that did not happen The stories in H berlen s book invite us to imagine different futures to struggle to fail and to try again In a time when we are told that there are no alternatives they show us that there could be another way Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus,2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers Intercourse in Television and Film Lindsay Coleman,Carol Siegel,2018-03-12 As many critics and theorists have noted non pornographic films documentaries and quality television series have increasingly included explicit sex scenes since the 1990s some of such scenes featuring the performance of actual sex acts The incidence of sex in narratively powerful resonant visual media can no longer be dismissed as a trend What was once an aesthetic weapon in the arsenal of provocateurs is now frequently integrated seamlessly into the mise en sc ne and exposition of widely viewed and culturally significant films and television series Intercourse in Television and Film The Presentation of Explicit Sex Acts analyzes the aesthetic and narrative contexts for the visual media presentation of the sexual act both those which are non simulated and those which are explicit to that point that their simulation is brought into question by the viewer In this book questions involving the performance choices of actors the framing and editing of the sex act and the director s attempts at integrating sexuality into the overall narrative structure as well as their effects are explored Subject to Identity Susan Talburt,2000-03-09 Challenges the ways lesbian academics have been socially constructed Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico,1998-03-20 The Reader s Guide to Women s Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women s studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Joyce Studies Annual 2009 Philip T. Sicker,Moshe Gold,2025-01-14 An indispensable resource for scholars and students of James Joyce Joyce Studies Annual gathers essays by foremost scholars and emerging voices in the field The Masochistic Pleasures of Sentimental Literature Marianne Noble,2000-04-04 For generations critics have noticed in nineteenth century American women s sentimentality a streak of masochism but their discussions of it have over simplified its complex relationship to women s power Marianne Noble argues that tropes of eroticized domination in sentimental literature must be recognized for what they were a double edged sword of both oppression and empowerment She begins by exploring the cultural forces that came together to create this ideology of desire particularly Protestant discourses relating suffering to love and middle class discourses of true womanhood She goes on to demonstrate how sentimental literature takes advantage of the expressive power in the convergence of these two discourses to imagine women s romantic desire Therefore in sentimental literature images of eroticized domination are not antithetical to female pleasure but rather can be constitutive of it The book however does not simply celebrate that fact In readings of Warner s The Wide Wide World Stowe s Uncle Tom s Cabin and Dickinson s sentimental poetry it addresses the complex benefits and costs of nineteenth century women s literary masochism Ultimately it shows how these authors both exploited and were shaped by this discursive practice The Masochistic Pleasures of Sentimental Literature exemplifies new trends in Third Wave feminist scholarship presenting cultural and historical research informed by clear lucid discussions of psychoanalytic and literary theory It demonstrates that contemporary theories of masochism including those of Deleuze Bataille Kristeva Benjamin Bersani Noyes Mansfield are more relevant and comprehensible when considered in relation to sentimental literature
