Sex Ray:

X-Ray Vision Richard M. Swiderski, 2012 X ray vision at first was the revival of the phantasmagoria and ground penetrating sight of earlier centuries attached to the new technology of X rays in the early twentieth century The image idea of the existence of rays that allow prepared eyes to see into clothing through walls and into the earth not feasible in fact generated fictions and surrogates of how living beings would experience such an ability what they would do with it and what it would do to them Expressing both a need and a desire X ray vision underwent its own development gathering elements of play inquiry and assault independent of X ray technology but converging with microscopy telescopic television and surveillance

Kiss Kill Michael Karol, 2009-11 Ray Abreu just met his forever guy a handsome New York detective who s a cool hot piece of man candy But someone or something else is after Ray and he s not used to losing He s killer And he ll redefine the meaning of forever

Transecology Douglas A. Vakoch, 2020-06-10 There is a growing recognition of the importance of transgender perspectives about the environment Unlike more established approaches in the environmental humanities and queer studies transecology is a nascent inquiry whose significance and scope are only just being articulated Drawing upon the fields of gender studies and ecological studies contributors to this volume engage major concepts widely used in both fields as they explore the role of identity exclusion connection intimacy and emplacement to understand our relationship to nature and environment The theorists and ideas examined across multiple chapters include Stacy Alaimo s notion of trans corporeality as a contact zone between humans and the environment Timothy Morton s concept of mesh to explore the interconnectedness of all beings Susan Stryker s notion of trans identity as ontologically inescapable Catriona Mortimer Sandilands and Bruce Erickson s history of the development of queer rural spaces Judith Butler s analysis of gender as performative with those who are not properly gendered being seen as abjects and Julia Serano s contrasting rejection of gender as performance Transecology Transgender Perspectives on Environment and Nature will be of great interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates in transgender studies gender studies ecocriticism and environmental humanities

Women Serial and Mass Murderers Kerry Segrave, 2013-04-16 It is at 31 4 years of age that the average woman multiple murderer kills the first of her 17 victims whom she usually knows or is related to The preferred method is poison usually arsenic She is more likely to prey on the vulnerable the very young or the very old than is her male counterpart Her killing spree lasts five years when caught she shows little remorse This study of 85 women focuses on those who have killed at least three people not including themselves in murder suicide cases Though the work is international emphasis is on the United States during the late 19th and 20th centuries Excluded are accomplices who though legally guilty of multiple murders were in fact passive participants The life of each killer is examined as well as descriptions of the murders the methods and the trial

Late Bloomer Melissa Pritchard, 2007-12-18 Prudence True Parker teaches a course called Advanced Personal Journey at a community college in Arizona but her own personal journey is not really advancing She s divorced debt ridden and starting to feel desperate when she meets Digby Deeds alias Mildred Crowley the author of the wildly successful Savage Passion romance series at her local library When the dying Deeds offers Prudence the final forty plots of his popular series her financial needs trump her literary aspirations and she accepts To her astonishment her own life soon begins to outpace Passion s fevered tales and she finds herself in the midst of a plot involving psychics a sexy young Comanche lover Native American activists medicine men and even a few wolves Quick witted and laugh out loud funny Late Bloomer follows Prue on her madcap journey as she finds her real life surpassing the wildest flights of her imagination

Perversion Stephanie S. Swales, 2012-08-21 Lacan s psychoanalytic take on what makes a pervert perverse is not the fact of habitually engaging in specific abnormal or transgressive sexual acts but of occupying a particular structural position in relation to the Other Perversion is one of Lacan s three main ontological diagnostic structures structures that indicate fundamentally different ways of solving the problems of alienation separation from the primary caregiver and castration or having limits set by the law on one s jouissance The perverse subject has undergone alienation but disavowed castration suffering from excessive jouissance and a core belief that the law and social norms are fraudulent at worst and weak at best In Perversion Stephanie Swales provides a close reading a qualitative hermeneutic reading of what Lacan said about perversion and its substructures i e fetishism voyeurism exhibitionism sadism and masochism Lacanian theory is carefully explained in accessible language and perversion is elucidated in terms of its etiology characteristics symptoms and fundamental fantasy Referring to sex offenders as a sample she offers clinicians a guide to making differential diagnoses between psychotic neurotic and perverse patients and provides a treatment model for working with perversion versus neurosis Two detailed qualitative clinical case studies are presented one of a neurotic sex offender and the other of a perverse sex offender highlighting crucial differences in the transference relation and subsequent treatment recommendations for both forensic and private practice contexts Perversion offers a fresh psychoanalytic approach to the subject and will be of great interest to scholars and clinicians in the fields of psychoanalysis psychology forensic science cultural studies and philosophy
