Transform your life with Sex Yoga 2 0 The Sex Rebel Sexual Abuse, Shonda and Concealment in Orthodox Jewish

Communities Michael Leshner,2014-07-15 This book the first of its kind analyzes how and why cases of child sexual abuse have been systematically concealed in Orthodox Jewish communities The book examines many such cover ups in detail showing how denial backlash against victims and the manipulation of the secular justice system have placed Orthodox Jewish community leaders in the position of defending or even enabling child abusers The book also examines the generally disappointing treatment of this issue in popular media while dissecting the institutions that contribute to the cover ups including two rabbinic courts and local Orthodox patrols that are more or less unique to Orthodox Jewish communities Finally the book explores the cultural factors that have contributed to this tragedy and concludes with hopes and proposals for future reform More than a Provocation Stefanie Knauss,2014-04-02 Sex Media and theology a provocative mix

Reactions can vary from rejection to openness and curiosity This volume follows the latter path on the background of changes in contemporary sexual culture and theological developments in the reflection on sexuality three media internet advertising and film are analysed with respect of their representation of sexuality and their contribution to theological reflections on sex This shows sex in media is more than a provocation it provides an inspiration for theological thinking about human beings their relationships with others and also with God The Media and Religious Authority Stewart M. Hoover,2016-09-01 As the availability and use of media platforms continue to expand the cultural visibility of religion is on the rise leading to questions about religious authority Where does it come from How is it established What might be changing it The contributors to The Media and Religious Authority examine the ways in which new centers of power and influence are emerging as religions seek to brand themselves in the media age Putting their in depth incisive studies of particular instances of media production and reception in Asia Africa Latin America and North America into conversation with one another the volume explores how evolving mediations of religion in various places affect the prospects aspirations and durability of religious authority across the globe An insightful combination of theoretical groundwork and individual case studies The Media and Religious Authority invites us to rethink the relationships among the media religion and culture The contributors are Karina Kosicki Bellotti Alexandra Boutros Pauline Hope Cheong Peter Horsfield Christine Hoff Kraemer Joonseong Lee Alf Linderman Bah yyah Maroon Montr Aza Missouri and Emily Zeamer with an afterword by Lynn Schofield

Clark Journal of the History of Sexuality ,2003 Handbook of the New Sexuality Studies Steven Seidman,Nancy Fischer,Chet Meeks,2007-03-12 As the field of sexuality studies has become a growth area in academia and classes on sexuality studies are incorporated into various disciplines the expanding book market has been filled with specialist oriented texts which are often theoretically focused and contain too many summaries for an undergraduate audience Addressing this imbalance this key new volume presents the field of sexuality in an accessible and engaging way for undergraduates Breaking new ground both substantively and stylistically this book offers students academics and researchers an accessible engaging introduction and overview of this emerging field Its central premise is to explore the social character of sexuality the role of social differences such as race or nationality in creating sexual variation and the ways sex is entangled in relations of power and inequality Through this novel approach the field of sexuality is considered for the first time in multicultural global and comparative terms and from a truly social perspective This important volume consists of over fifty short and original essays on the key topics and themes in sexuality studies and interviews with twelve leading scholars in the field which convey some of the most innovative work being done Each contribution clearly conveys the latest research with examples Ideal for students of gender and sexuality studies this topical and timely volume will be an invaluable resource to all those with an interest in sexuality studies Introducing the New Sexuality Studies Steven Seidman,Nancy L. Fischer,Chet Meeks,2011-02-25 Breaking new ground both substantively and stylistically this book offers students academics and researchers an accessible engaging introduction and overview of the emerging field of sexuality studies Reel Spirituality Robert K. Johnston,2006-12 A comprehensive study of theology and film that explores how the Christian faith is portrayed in film throughout history Sexualized Media Messages and Our Children Jennifer W. Shewmaker,2015-02-24 This provocative book takes a look at children s consumption of sexualized media messages while providing parents teachers and professionals with strategies for abating their influence In this eye opening book experienced child psychologist Jennifer W Shewmaker contends that the manner in which a child is raised influences how they respond to media messages particularly those shaded by sexual overtones This text takes a hard look at the impact of advertisements products and entertainment on a child s psyche and offers strategies for helping kids become critical active media consumers Drawing from research in a wide variety of disciplines this book explores the interpersonal factors within children s lives that impact how they learn to process sexualized media messages The book argues that an increase in marketing to children along with media based fabrications of beauty masculinity and femininity impact the confidence and character of young children who are often greatly affected by what they see and hear The author shares invaluable tips for promoting strengths in children and adolescents of both genders and presents the protective influence of communities to help children dismiss distorted media images Sexing the Maple Richard Cavell,Peter Dickinson,2006-09-14 Sexing the Maple is a unique sourcebook designed to raise issues of nationalism and sexuality in Canada through a rich and diverse selection of fiction poetry criticism and history Structured so as to provide an interactive study of these issues the collection considers topics as wide ranging as First Nations sexuality censorship assisted reproduction and religion Literary works by Alice Munro Jane Rule Timothy Findley Leonard Cohen Irving Layton Lynn Crosbie Michael Turner and many others are juxtaposed with criticism and historical documents many of which were previously out of print or unavailable Selections include Marshall McLuhan's 1967 article The Future of Sex and excerpts from Stan Persky and John Dixon's Kiddie Porn SKY Lee's Disappearing Moon Cafe and Margaret Atwood's A Handmaid's Tale
