The Origins of the Christian Doctrine of Sacrifice Robert J. Daly, 1978

Sacrifice Unveiled Robert J. Daly, 2009-04-13

Most ideas of sacrifice even specifically Christian ideas as we saw in the Reformation controversies have something to do with deprivation or destruction But this is not authentic Christian sacrifice Authentic Christian sacrifice and ultimately all true sacrifice whether one is conscious of it or not begins with the self offering of the Father in the gift sending of the Son continues with the loving response of the Son in his humanity and in the Spirit to the Father and for us and finally begins to become real in our world when human beings in the power of the same Spirit that was in Jesus respond to love with love and thus begin to enter into that perfectly loving totally self giving relationship that is the life of the triune God The origins of this are in the Hebrew Bible its revelatory high points in Jesus and Paul and its working out in the life of the Church especially its Eucharistic Prayers Special attention will be paid to the atonement not just because atonement and sacrifice are often synonymous but also because traditional atonement theology is the source of distortions that continue to plague Christian thinking about sacrifice After exploring the possibility of finding a phenomenology of sacrificial atonement in Girardian mimetic theory the book will end with some suggestions on how to communicate its findings to people likely to be put off from the outset by the negative connotations associated with sacrifice

Sacrifice in Pagan and Christian Antiquity

Robert J. Daly, 2019-08-22 Robert J Daly S J examines the concept of sacrifice in the ancient Mediterranean world and discusses how the rise of bloodless Christian sacrifice and the use of sacrificial language in reference to highly spiritualized Christian lives would have seemed unsettling and radically challenging to the pagan mind Acknowledging the difficulties posed by an overwhelmingly Christian scholarly narrative around the topic of sacrifice Daly specifically sets out to tell the non Christian side of this story He first outlines the pagan trajectory and then the Jewish Christian trajectory before concluding with a representative series of comparisons and contrasts Covering the concept of sacrifice in relation to prayer ethics and morality the rhetoric and economics of sacrificial ceremonies and heroes and saints Daly finishes with an estimation of how this study might inform further study of sacrifice
