Butler, 1975 A Contest of Faiths Susan Mitchell Yohn, 1995 Susan M Yohn here reconstructs the interactions between Presbyterian women missionaries in the southwest and the native Hispanic Catholic people they set out to Americanize between 1867 and 1924 In the process she reveals how many Protestant women reformers shared a series of experiences that contributed to a national dialogue about cultural pluralism Presbyterian Missions and Cultural Interaction in the Far Southwest, 1850-1950 Mark T. Banker, 1993 The primary concern of Banker's book is as he states in its preface not the Presbyterian impact on the Southwest but instead the impact of the Southwest on the Presbyterians George I. Sánchez Carlos Kevin Blanton, 2015-01-28 George I Sánchez was a reformer activist and intellectual and one of the most influential members of the Mexican American Generation 1930-1960 A professor of education at the University of Texas from the beginning of World War II until the early 1970s Sánchez was an outspoken proponent of integration and assimilation He spent his life combating racial prejudice while working with such organizations as the ACLU and LULAC in the fight to improve educational and political opportunities for Mexican Americans Yet his fervor was not always appreciated by those for whom he advocated and some of his more unpopular stands made him a polarizing figure within the Latino community Carlos Blanton has published the first biography of this complex man of notable contradictions The author honors Sánchez's efforts hitherto mostly unrecognized in the struggle for equal opportunity while not shying away from his subject's personal faults and foibles The result is a long overdue portrait of a towering figure in mid twentieth century America and the all important cause to which he dedicated his life Mexican American integration Handbook of Legislative Research Gerhard Loewenberg, 1985 The Handbook of Legislative Research a comprehensive summary of the results of research on nineteenth and twentieth century legislatures is itself a landmark in the evolution of legislative studies Gathered here are surveys by leading scholars in the field each providing inventory of an important subfield an extensive bibliography and a systematic assessment of what has been accomplished and what directions future research must take Selected Papers in School Finance, 1976
