Politics Of Liberation:

Black Power Charles V. Hamilton, Kwame Ture, 2011-06-01 An eloquent document of the civil rights movement that remains a work of profound social relevance 50 years after it was first published A revolutionary work since its publication Black Power exposed the depths of systemic racism in this country and provided a radical political framework for reform true and lasting social change would only be accomplished through unity among African Americans and their independence from the preexisting order

Black power Stokely Carmichael, 1968

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century

Politics of Liberation Enrique D. Dussel, 2011 Offers a reading of the political history of the world as an against story a story of an anti traditional tradition This text presents an alternative reading of the history of the political world and the ideas that have inspired their political philosophy

The Politics of Latino Faith Catherine E. Wilson, 2008-06-01 Pundits and commentators are constantly striving to understand the political behavior of Latinos the largest minority in the United States and a key voting block As Catherine E Wilson makes clear in The Politics of Latino Faith not only are Latinos a religious community but their religious institutions in particular faith based organizations inform daily life and politics in Latino communities to a considerable degree Timely and discerning The Politics of Latino Faith is a unique scholarly work that addresses this increasingly powerful political force As Wilson shows Latino religious institutions whether congregations or faith based organizations have long played a significant role in the often poor and urban communities where Latinos live Concentrating on urban areas in the South Bronx Philadelphia and Chicago she provides a systematic look at the spiritual social and cultural influence Latino faith based organizations have provided in American life Wilson offers keen insight into how pivotal religious identity is in understanding Latino social and political involvement in the United States She also shows the importance of understanding the theological underpinnings at work in these organizations in order to predict their political influences

The Politics of Practical Reason Mark Ryan, 2011-06-09 Ought we conceive of theological ethics as an activity that draws from a community's vision of human goodness and that has implications for the kind of person each of us is to be Or can students of the discipline map the ethical implications of what Christians confess about God themselves and the world while remaining indifferent to these claims Habituated by modern moral theories such as consequentialism and deontology Mark Ryan argues we too often assume that Christian ethics makes no claim on the character of its students and teachers It is rather like yet another department store within the shopping mall of ideas and ideologies to which advanced education provides access By arguing that theological ethics is an activity by nature political the author endeavors to show us that to do Christian ethics is to be habituated into ways of talking and seeing that put us on a path toward the good The author thus affirms the claim that theological ethics is a life changing practice But why is it so This book endeavors to display a philosophical basis for this claim by articulating the political character of practical reason Through rigorous conversation with G E M Anscombe Charles Taylor Stanley Hauerwas Alasdair MacIntyre and Jeffrey Stout Ryan provides an account of practical reasoning that enables us to rightly conceive theological ethics as a discipline that ought to change our lives

The Politics of Jesus John Howard Yoder,1994 Using the text of the New Testament this engaging study critically examines the traditional portrait of Jesus as an apolitical figure and clarifies the true impact of Jesus life work and teachings on his disciples social behavior This second edition is updated and expanded

Towards a Politics of Communion Anna Rowlands,2021-12-02 Anna Rowlands offers a guide to the main time periods key figures documents and themes of thinking developed as Catholic Social Teaching CST A wealth of material has been produced by the Catholic Church during its long history which considers the implications of scripture doctrine and natural law for the way these elements live together in community most particularly in the tradition of social encyclicals dating from 1891 Rowlands takes a fresh approach in weaving overviews of the central principles with the development of thinking on political community and democracy migration and integral ecology and by considering the increasingly critical questions concerning the role of CST in a pluralist and post secular context As such this book offers both an incisive overview of this distinctive body of Catholic political theology and a new and challenging contribution to the debate about the transformative potential of CST in contemporary society

The Politics of the Crucified John C. Peet,2021-07-30 Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place Until the pioneering work of Jürgen Moltmann the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology This book explores the difference Jesus s crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff

and Jon Sobrino In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined In conclusion suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology

Writing the Politics of Difference Hugh J. Silverman, 1991-06-04 This book addresses various phases of continental philosophy both in the context of its multiple traditions and in relation to the alternatives that mark the understanding of its present and future Divided into two parts the authors first focus on the diversity of traditions in continental philosophy in connection with the texts of Hegel Marx Kierkegaard Sartre and De Beauvoir Second they explore the reality of social political sexual and philosophical differences in connection with the writings of Merleau Ponty Arendt Habermas Heidegger Foucault Irigaray Kristeva Derrida and Vattimo They also stress the various theoretical foundations that manifest these differences Issues surrounding the role of philosophical systems language ethical choice relations with others the gendered body socialization and the status of philosophy today constitute the fabric of this book The authors place these ideas in the context of current thought and current debates in continental philosophy and evaluate their significance for the future

Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students

The Politics of Race in Britain and South Africa Elizabeth Williams, 2015-03-18 The postwar government of South Africa led by H F Verwoerd implemented wide ranging racial segregation laws beginning the open policy of apartheid in one of Africa's most prosperous and internationally influential states During the apartheid era the British government faced an uneasy dilemma while repudiating apartheid laws it maintained an ambiguous stance towards the South African government As black South Africans were reduced to the status of non citizens after the 1970 Citizenship Act increasing numbers of exiles and fugitives were finding refuge in Britain which was now home to a growing anti apartheid protest movement This is the first book to examine the British support for the anti apartheid movement among its own black communities Elizabeth Williams highlights the connection between domestic anti racism struggles and the struggle in South Africa showing how black Britons who were themselves fighting racism in British society identified and expressed solidarity with black South Africans during the Apartheid years Williams further assesses the way in which Black communities in Britain viewed Margaret Thatcher's support of South Africa despite the international call for sanctions Featuring the work of acclaimed documentary photographer and civil rights activist Vanley Burke this will be an essential book for students and scholars of race British history international relations post
