Reading Race In American Poetry:

Reading Race Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 1988 Reading Race examines the work of twentieth century white American poets from Carl Sandburg to Adrienne Rich from Ezra Pound to Allen Ginsberg revealing within their poetry and casual writings a body of literature that transmits racism even as it sometimes speaks against it Tracing the persistence of racial discourse Aldon Nielsen argues that white Americans throughout their history have used a language of their own primacy a language that treats blacks as an abstract other an aggregate nonwhite to be acted upon and determined by whites White discourse drapes over blacks an intricate veil of images and understandings assertions of inferiority metaphors of exoticism similes of animals tropes of fertility nothingness and death through which whites read race and beneath which blacks remain imprisoned Words Nielsen writes create and maintain relationships of power as surely as do prisons and arms Speaking of the discourse of race in America Nielsen identifies dead metaphors words images ideas that operate in much the same way as the charged detail of Pound or the objective correlative of T S Eliot Embedded in the language they are instantly recognizable to the native speaker Poets when they draw upon these metaphors demand racist thinking in order to be understood

Reading Race in American Poetry Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 2000 Here inter racial poets and critics join together to analyze the role that race plays in the reading and writing of American poetry and the role that poetry plays in our understanding of race

Genders, Races, and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetry, 1908-1934 Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2001-01-11 In Genders Races and Religious Cultures in Modern American Poetries Rachel Blau Duplessis shows how through poetic language modernist writers represented the debates and ideologies concerning New Woman New Negro and New Jew in the early twentieth century From the poetic text emerge such social issues of modernity as debates on suffrage sexuality manhood and African American and Jewish subjectivities By a reading method she calls social philology a form of close reading inflected with the approaches of cultural studies Duplessis engages with the work of such canonical poets as Wallace Stevens Ezra Pound T S Eliot William Carlos Williams Gertrude Stein Marianne Moore and H D as well as Mina Loy Countee Cullen Alfred Kreymborg and Langston Hughes writers she claims still marginalized by existing constructions of modernism This book is an ambitious attempt to remap our understanding of modern poetries and poetics and the relationship between early twentieth century writing and society

Literature and Race in the Democracy of Goods Christopher Albert Chen, 2021 This book conducts a comparative study of three literary traditions post 1960 Asian American Asian Canadian and Black experimental poetry which are usually examined separately In so doing it intervenes in conventional understandings of postwar North American racial formation and argues that through poetry we can examine the intersection between race and capitalism Arguing that contemporary Black Asian American and Asian Canadian poets such as Myung Mi Kim Nathaniel Mackey Larissa Lai and Erica Hunt challenge established definitions of race this book develops an account of experimental poetry's understanding of race as a range of relational configurations of subjects within racial groups and across racial divisions In sum this book redefines some of the basic terms of analysis of contemporary US poetry and poetics critical race ethnic studies racial capitalism and contemporary theories of comparative racialization American Hybrid Poetics Amy Moorman Robbins,2014-07-21 American Hybrid Poetics explores the ways in which hybrid poetics a playful mixing of disparate formal and aesthetic strategies have been the driving force in the work of a historically and culturally diverse group of women poets who are part of a robust tradition in contesting the dominant cultural order Amy Moorman Robbins examines the ways in which five poets Gertrude Stein Laura Mullen Alice Notley Harryette Mullen and Claudia Rankine use hybridity as an implicitly political strategy to interrupt mainstream American language literary genres and visual culture and expose the ways in which mass culture in the twentieth and twenty first centuries has had a powerfully standardizing impact on the collective American imagination By forcing encounters between incompatible traditions consumer culture with the avant garde low culture forms with experimental poetics prose poetry with linguistic subversiveness these poets bring together radically competing ideologies and highlight their implications for lived experience Robbins argues that it is precisely because these poets have mixed forms that their work has gone largely unnoticed by leading members and critics in experimental poetry circles Improvisation and the Making of American Literary

Modernism Rob Wallace,2010-10-14 American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine,Juliana Spahr,2013-10-01 Poetry in America is flourishing in this new millennium and asking serious questions of itself Is writing marked by gender and if so how What does it mean to be experimental How can lyric forms be authentic This volume builds on the energetic tensions inherent in these questions focusing on ten major American women poets whose collective work shows an incredible range of poetic practice Each section of the book is devoted to a single poet and contains new poems a brief statement of poetics by the poet herself in which she explores the forces personal aesthetic political informing her creative work a critical essay on the poet s work a biographical statement and a bibliography listing works by and about the poet Underscoring the dynamic give and take between poets and the culture at large this anthology is indispensable for anyone interested in poetry gender and the creative process CONTRIBUTORS Rae Armantrout Mei mei Berssenbrugge Lucie Brock Broido Jorie Graham Barbara Guest Lyn Hejinian Brenda Hillman Susan Howe Ann Lauterbach Harryette Mullen

Elizabeth Bishop Carole Doreski,1993 In poetry the constraints of language and the tension between desire and possibility constitute the problematic in which the poem occurs Approaching Elizabeth Bishop s work from the standpoint of this problematic C K Doreski s illuminating study examines Bishop s rhetorical strategies and the way they shape the formal and thematic movements of her poetry and stories Unlike other recent studies of Bishop Doreski s does not concern itself primarily with her visual imagery but rather deals with her poetry as a series of linguistic maneuverings designed to create the maximum illusion of representation while resisting the romantic devices of self revelation and solipsistic narration Though highly personal in nature Bishop s works exhibit her success in averting with formal and rhetorical dexterity the temptations of sentiment Doreski argues that Bishop takes advantage of the inadequacies of language and with a postmodern sense of limitation explores the gaps and silences narrative must bridge with the mundane the patently inadequate creating an air of emotional intimacy without committing itself to the banality of full exposure In essence she asserts the restraints of language shaped the tone tensions and even the topics of Bishop s poetry This study finds the poems and stories mutually illuminating but while moving back and forth among her various works acknowledges the intelligent ordering of the volumes Bishop published in her lifetime Persuasively arguing that restraint for Bishop is an essential element in the relationship she finds between language and life this study shows how through her poems and stories she attempts to invent a language adequate to her perception

Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz,Lewis L.B. Fried,2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida s work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida s Master s thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy
