during my four years service in the Confederate army the greater portion was spent with the commissary department in charge of its beef supplies I was wounded early in the second year of the war and disabled as a soldier but rather than remain at home I accepted a menial position under a quartermaster Those were strenuous times During Lee's invasion of Pennsylvania we followed in the wake of the army with over a thousand cattle and after Gettysburg we led the retreat with double that number Near the close of the war we frequently had no cattle to hold and I became little more than a camp follower I was born in the Shenandoah Valley northern Virginia May 3 1840 My father was a thrifty planter and stockman owned a few slaves and as early as I can remember fed cattle every winter for the eastern markets Grandfather Anthony who died before I was born was a Scotchman who had emigrated to the Old Dominion at an early day and acquired several large tracts of land on an affluent of the Shenandoah On my paternal side I never knew any of my ancestors but have good cause to believe they were adventurers My mother's maiden name was Reed she was of a gentle family who were able to trace their forbears beyond the colonial days even to the gentry of England Generations of good birth were reflected in my mother and across a rough and eventful life I can distinctly remember the refinement of her manners her courtesy to guests her kindness to child and slave My boyhood days were happy ones I attended a subscription school several miles from home riding back and forth on a pony The studies were elementary and though I never distinguished myself in my classes I was always ready to race my pony and never refused to play truant when the swimming was good Evidently my father never intended any of his boys for a professional career though it was an earnest hope of my mother that all of us should receive a college education My elder brother and I early developed business instincts buying calves and accompanying our father on his trading expeditions Once during a vacation when we were about twelve and ten years old both of us crossed the mountains with him into what is now West Virginia where he bought about two hundred young steers and drove them back to our home in the valley I must have been blessed with an unfailing memory over fifty years have passed since that my first trip from home yet I remember it vividly can recall conversations between my father and the sellers as they haggled over the cattle I remember the money gold and silver with which to pay for the steers was carried by my father in ordinary saddle bags thrown across his saddle As occasion demanded frequently the funds were carried by a negro man of fours and at night when among acquaintances the heavy saddle bags were thrown into a corner every one aware of their contents But the great event of my boyhood was a trip to Baltimore There was no railroad at the time and as that was our market for fat cattle it was necessary to drive the entire way My father had made the trip yearly since I could remember the distance being nearly two hundred miles and generally carrying as many as one hundred and fifty big beeves They traveled slowly pasturing or feeding grain on the way in order that the cattle should arrive at the market in salable condition One horse was allowed with the herd and on another my father rode far in advance to engage pasture or feed and shelter for his men When on the road a boy always led a gentle ox in the lead of the beeves negro men walked on either flank and the horseman brought up the rear I used to envy the boy leading the ox
