Reelpolitik Political Ideologies In 30s And 40s Films:

Instructor's Edition for World Civilization Jackson J. Spielvogel, 2001-06 Blaming China Benjamin Shobert, 2018-09-01 American society is angrier more fragmented and more polarized than at any time since the Civil War We harbor deep insecurities about our economic future our place in the world our response to terrorism and our deeply dysfunctional government Over the next several years Benjamin Shobert says these four insecurities will be perverted and projected onto China in an attempt to shift blame for errors entirely of our own making These misdirections will be satisfying in the short term but will eventually destabilize the global world that businesses consumers and governments have taken for granted for the last forty years and will usher in an age of geopolitical uncertainty characterized by regional conflict and increasing economic dislocation Shobert a senior associate at the National Bureau of Asian Research explores how America's attitudes toward China have changed and how our economic anxieties and political dysfunction have laid the foundation for turning our collective frustrations away from acknowledging the consequences of our own poor decisions Shobert argues that unless we address these problems a disastrous chapter in American life is right around the corner one in which Americans will decide that conflict with China is the only sensible option After framing how the American public thinks about China Shobert offers two alternative paths forward He proposes steps that businesses governments and individuals can take to potentially stop and reverse America's path to a dystopian future Reelpolitik, 1998 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1976 New York Magazine, 1984-08-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1989-01 America, History and Life, 1997 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Subject Index to Periodicals, 2009 Annual Index, 1999 New Statesman, 2001
