Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner, 2006-02-22 A key decade in world cinema the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain A Cinema of Contradiction the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco s authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period Contradiction the unavoidable effect of that unevenness is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history the New Spanish Cinema art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state s protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today The Americanization of Europe Alexander Stephan,2006 Using Germany as a case study of the impact of American culture throughout a period characterized by a totalitarian system two destructive wars ethnic cleansing and economic disaster this book explores the political and cultural parameters of Americanization and anti Americanism
