Reflections On The Revolutions In Europe:

Reflections on the Revolution in Europe Ralf Dahrendorf, 2017-09-29 The fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 effectively ended the division of Europe into East and West and the features of our world that have resulted bear little resemblance to those of the forty years that preceded the Wall's fall. The rise of a new Europe prompts many questions most of which remain to be answered. What does it all mean? Where is it going to lead? Are we witnessing the conclusion of an era without seeing anything to replace an old and admittedly dismal way of life? What will a market economy do to the social texture of various countries of Central Europe? Will it not make some rich while many will become poorer than ever? How can the rule of law be brought about? In this incisive and lucid book Ralf Dahrendorf, one of Europe's most distinguished scholars, ponders these and other equally vexing questions. He regards what has happened in East Central Europe as a victory for neither of the social systems that once opposed each other across the Iron Curtain. Rather, he views these events as a vote for an open society over a closed society. The continuing conundrum he argues, which will plague peoples everywhere, will be how to balance the need for economic growth with the desire for social justice while building authentic and enduring democratic institutions. Reflections on the Revolution in Europe which includes a new introduction from the author is a humane, skeptical and anti-utopian work, a manifesto for a radical liberalism in which the social entitlements of citizenship are as important a condition of progress as the opportunities for choice. A fascinating study of change and geopolitics in the modern world, Reflections points the way towards a new politics for the twenty-first century. Ralf Dahrendorf, born in Hamburg, Germany, in 1929, is a member of Britain's House of Lords. He was professor of sociology at Hamburg, Tübingen and Konstanz from 1957 to 1968 and in 1974 moved to Britain. He has been the director Reflections on the Revolution in France Edmund Burke, 2006-02-10 Published in 1790, two years before the start of the Terror, this work offered a remarkably prescient view of the chaos that lay ahead. It articulates a defense of property, religion and traditional values.

The Revolutions of 1989 Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2005-07-28 The Revolutions of 1989 is a collection of both classic and recent articles examining the causes and consequences of the collapse of communism in East and Central Europe, the most important event in recent world history. It includes discussion of the economic, political and social nature of revolutions, the role of dissidents and civil society in encouraging the breakdown of eastern European communist regimes, comparisons with other revolutions, the extent of the collapse of Leninist regimes in East Central Europe. European historians, scholars and students will want to make this an integral part of their studies.

The 1989 Revolutions in Central and Eastern Europe Kevin McDermott, Matthew Stibbe, 2015-11-01 This important book reassesses a defining historical, political and ideological moment in contemporary history: the 1989 revolutions in central and eastern Europe. Adopting a multi-disciplinary approach, the authors reconsider such crucial themes as the broader historical significance of the 1989 events the complex interaction between external and internal factors in the origins and outcomes of the revolutions the impact of the Gorbachev phenomenon the West and the end of the Cold War the political and socio economic determinants of the revolutionary processes in Poland Hungary the German Democratic Republic Czechoslovakia Romania and Bulgaria and the competing academic cultural and ideological perceptions of the year 1989 as communism gave way to post communist pluralism in the 1990s and beyond Concluding that the contentious term revolution is indeed apt for the momentous developments in eastern Europe in 1989 this book will be essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and specialists alike
