Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya,2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi

Post-conflict Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Antonio Giustozzi,2016-04-08 This book revisits post Cold War Disarmament Disintegration and Reintegration DDR programmes in the light of previous experiences of disarmament demobilisation and reintegration In the history of North America and Europe in particular such programmes had a major impact on state building contributing to the development of the welfare state shaping political settlements and directing government policy to maintain social peace The authors in this important book ask what is left of these state building dimensions in contemporary DDR programmes and whether the constraints imposed by international organisations on DDR programmes have more negative effects than positive ones The role of political leadership in DDR processes is highlighted can bureaucratically driven processes deliver success Only if political elites take full control and manage DDR programmes can there be a lasting impact on state building Even then most political elites avoid deep changes in their relationship with the veterans Is there a chance of reshaping international intervention in such a way as to favour the development of a social contract between political elites and veterans In taking a historical perspective this book is unique in the existing literature on DDR and will be essential reading for policy makers students and scholars of conflict studies and those working in NGOs particularly donor agencies This volume was produced with the contribution of the Crisis States Research Centre LSE

The International Committee of the Red Cross and its Mandate to Protect and Assist Christy Shucksmith, 2017-08-24 The purpose of this book is to consider the legality of the changing practice of the International Committee of the Red Cross ICRC It provides extensive legal analysis of the ICRC as an organisation legal person and humanitarian actor It draws on the law of organisations International Humanitarian Law International Human Rights Law and other relevant branches of international law in order to critically assess the mandate and practice of the ICRC on the ground The book also draws on more abstract human centric concepts including sovereignty as responsibility and human security in order to assess the development of the concept of humanity for the mandate and practice of the ICRC Critically this book uses semi structured interviews with ICRC delegates to test the theoretical and doctrinal conclusions The book provides a unique insight into the work of the ICRC It also includes a case study of the work of the ICRC in the Democratic Republic of Congo Ultimately the book concludes that the ICRC is no longer restricted to the provision of humanitarian assistance on the battlefield It is increasingly drawn into long term and extremely complicated conflicts in which civilians soldiers and non State actors intermingle In order to remain useful for the people on the ground therefore the ICRC is progressively developing its mandate This book questions whether on occasion this could threaten its promise to remain neutral impartial and independent Finally however it should be said that this author finds that the work of the ICRC is unparalleled on the international stage and its humanitarian mandate is a vital component for those embroiled in the undertaking of and recovery from conflict

Approaches to Peacebuilding H. Jeong, 2002-08-11 Ho Won Jeong and a cast of experts explore the ways in which the dynamics of post conflict situations can be transformed to sustainable peace Contributors focus on designs and models of peacebuilding functions of peacekeeping capacity building through negotiations reconciliation the role of gender in social reconstruction and policy coordination among different components of peacebuilding The analysis illustrates past and current experiences of peacebuilding and suggests conceptual and policy approaches that can overcome the weaknesses of existing strategies The ^AOxford Handbook of Peacebuilding, Statebuilding, and Peace Formation Oliver P. Richmond, Gëzim Visoka, 2021-05-31 Peacebuilding and statebuilding is one of the main approaches for preventing managing and mitigating global insecurities dealing with the humanitarian consequences of civil wars and expanding democracy and neoliberal economic regimes Peace formation is a relatively new concept addressing how local actors attempt to shape or work in parallel to international and national projects The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding Statebuilding and Peace Formation serves as an essential guide to this vast intellectual landscape It offers a systematic overview of conceptual foundations political implications and tensions at the global regional and local levels as well as key policies practices examples and discourses underlining all segments of peacebuilding and statebuilding Peacebuilding and Civil Society in Bosnia-Herzegovina Martina Fischer (historicus), 2006 The Dayton Accords ended the war in Bosnia Herzegovina in 1995 The 10th anniversary gives reason to investigate the post war period today s realities and future perspectives Bosnian authors and international experts express their views on recent developments Insiders and outsiders working in the conflict and on its transformation have been invited to tackle the questions Which conflict lines mark the present society Did peacebuilding activities address the underlying causes What are obstacles for conflict transformation What are the potentials and limits of international support What does civil society mean in Bosnia and how is it related to statebuilding and democratisation How can people constructively deal with the past in order to design the future in the region of former Yugoslavia The book gives an overview on an important research focus of the Berghof Research Center highlighting the work of its most important cooperation partners Peace without Politics? Ten Years of State-Building in Bosnia David Chandler, 2013-09-13 Ten years on from the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement in November 1995 the legacy of the Bosnian war still shapes every aspect of the political social and economic environment of the tiny state This state of affairs is highlighted by the fact that Bosnia is still under international control with the Office of the International High Representative regularly using its powers to dismiss elected presidents prime ministers and MPs and to impose legislation over the resistance of elected legislatures at national regional and local level What has changed in the ten years since Dayton Is international regulation helping to establish a sustainable peace in Bosnia What lessons can be learned for nation building in Bosnia This volume was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping Local Ownership of Peacebuilding in Afghanistan Chuck Thiessen, 2013-11-08 The international community has followed up its 2001 invasion of Afghanistan with a complex multi faceted peacebuilding project However informed observers believe that this Western led mission in Afghanistan has failed to address the inherent peacebuilding needs of Afghanistan and has hindered the formation of a locally experienced sustainable peace In response emerging peacebuilding theories and rhetoric have pointed to an urgent need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and strategies that hold local Afghan ownership of peacebuilding activities as a central concern This book responds to this need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and 1 introduces the topic of local ownership of peacebuilding in Afghanistan 2 surveys current shifts in peacebuilding theory and practice that are only starting to be realized on the ground 3 sets the context for a discussion of local ownership of peacebuilding 4 reports on the perceptions of foreign and Afghan peacebuilding leaders working in Afghanistan in regards to the journey towards local ownership of peacebuilding and 5 suggests the creation of a locally designed and led conflict transformation system that might help restructure local foreign relations and advance the journey towards Afghan ownership of peacebuilding
