Religion Politics And Rationality In A Philippine Community:

Religion, Politics, and Rationality in a Philippine Community Raul Pertierra, 1988 Religion, Politics, and Rationality in a Philippine Community Raul Pertierra, 1988 Between Two Worlds - Society, Politics, and Business in the Philippines Rupert Hodder, 2003-08-29 Considers varying attitudes to social relationships in the West and Asia in the context of the Philippines and how bound up these are with material progress business and politics Philippine Politics Lynn White III, 2014-12-17 Philippine political history especially in the twentieth century challenges the image of democratic evolution as serving the people and does so in ways that reveal inadequately explored aspects of many democracies In the first decades of the twenty first century the Philippines has nonetheless shown gradual socioeconomic progress This book provides an interpretive overview of Philippine politics and takes full account of the importance of patriotic Philippine factors in making decisions about future political policies It analyses whether regional and local politics have more importance than national politics in the Philippines Discussing cultural traditions of patronism it also examines how clan feuds localize the state and create strong local policies These conflicts in turn make regional and family run polities collectively stronger than the central state institution The book goes on to explore elections in the Philippines and in particular the ways in which politicians win democratic elections the institutionalized role of public money in this process and the role that media plays Offering a new interpretive overview of Philippine progress over many decades the author notes recent economic and political changes during the current century while also trying to advance ideas that might prove useful to Filipinos Presenting an in depth analysis of the problems and possibilities of politics and society in the Philippines the book will be of interest to those researching Southeast Asian Politics Political History and Asian Society and Culture Asian American Christianity Reader Timothy Tseng, Viji Nakka-Cammauf, 2009-08-20 This textbook is an interdisciplinary collection of scholarly and religious articles about Asian American Christianity Its four sections contexts sites identity and voices offer in depth understanding of both Catholic and Protestant traditions practices theologies and faith communities It also highlights diversity and complexity across lines of gender generation denomination race and ethnicity in Asian American Christianity

Global Filipinos Deirdre McKay, 2012-06-07 Contract workers from the Philippines make up one of the world's largest movements of temporary labor migrants Deirdre McKay follows Filipino migrants from one rural community to work sites overseas and then home again Focusing on the experiences of individuals McKay interrogates current approaches to globalization multi sited research subjectivity and the village itself She shows that rather than weakening village ties temporary labor migration gives the village a new global dimension created in and through the relationships imaginations and faith of its members in its potential as a site for a better future Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH s ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place

World Christianity and Indigenous Experience David Lindenfeld, 2021-05-20 In this book David Lindenfeld proposes a new dimension to the study of world history Here he explores the global expansion of Christianity since 1500 from the perspectives of the indigenous people who were affected by it and helped change it giving them active agency Integrating the study of religion into world history his volume surveys indigenous experience in colonial Latin America Native North America Africa and the African diaspora the Middle East India East Asia and the Pacific Lindenfeld demonstrates how religion is closely interwoven with political economic and social history Wide ranging in scope and offering a synoptic perspective of our interconnected world Lindenfeld combines in depth analysis of individual regions with comprehensive global coverage He also provides a new vocabulary with a spectrum ranging from resistance to acceptance and commitment to Christianity that articulates the range and complexity of the indigenous conversion experience Lindenfeld s cross cultural reflections provide a compelling alternative to the Western narrative of progressive development
