Religion As Art:

Religion as Art Thomas R. Martland, 1982-06-30 Religion in its most authentic part is an art form Religion does what art does This idea is richly illustrated and supported by materials of diverse origin The vast range of the author's experience in the arts and in religious texts and works of aesthetics allows him to lay hold of a great mass of disparate material and to bring out new dimensions in all of it He always has just the example he needs at his fingertips a Tibetan Buddhist text next to a French impressionist painting and a remark about early Banogu counterpoint and each example is seen in a new and interesting way Through this gentle yoking together of heterogeneous materials common roots are discovered Most studies of art and religion describe and explain them as data Thomas Martland identifies them as expressions of ideals and asks what they are when they are authentic rather than merely what they are when they are self identified as art and religion This is an identification through assessment not an Aristotelian classification and the means of assessment are provided Religion and the Arts: History and Method Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 2017-11-06 In Religion and the Arts History and Method Diane Apostolos Cappadona presents an overview of the 19th century origins of this discrete field of study and its methodological journey to the present day through issues of repatriation museum exhibitions and globalization Apostolos Cappadona suggests that the fluidity and flexibility of the study of religion and the arts has expanded like an umbrella since the 1970s and the understanding that art was simply a visual exegesis of texts to now support the study of material popular and visual culture as well as gender She also delivers a careful analysis of the evolution of thought from traditional iconographies to the transformations once scholars were influenced by response theory and challenged by globalization and technology Religion and the Arts History and Method offers an indispensable introduction to the questions and perspectives essential to the study of this field Art, Creativity, and the Sacred Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 1984 Contributors include Doug and Linda Altshuler Mircea Eliade Langdon Gilkey Barbara Novak and many others A seminal work widely adopted Religious Studies Review On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art James Elkins, 2004 Can contemporary art say anything about spirituality Answering this question and more On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art explores the curious disconnection between spirituality and current art Religion and Art Davor Džalto, 2019-06-18 How can we think of the aura of sacred contexts and sacred works How to think of individual and collective esthetic religious experiences What to make of the manipulative dimension of religious and esthetic auratic experiences Is the work of art still capable of mediating the experience of the sacred and under what conditions What is the significance of the eschatological dimension of both art and religion the sense of ending Can theology offer a way to reaffirm the creative capacities of the human being as something that characterizes the very condition of being human This Special Issue aspires to contribute to the growing literature on contemporary art and religion and to explore the new ways of thinking of art and the sacred in their esthetic ideological and institutional dimensions in the context of contemporary culture Philosophy, Art, and Religion Gordon

Graham,2017-09-07 At a time when religion and science are thought to be at loggerheads art is widely hailed as religion's natural spiritual ally Philosophy Art and Religion investigates the extent to which this is true It charts the way in which modern conceptions of Art often marginalize the sacred arts construing choral and instrumental music painting and iconography poetry drama and architecture as applied arts that necessarily fall short of the ideal of art for art's sake Drawing on both history of art and philosophical aesthetics Graham sets out the historical context in which the arts came to free themselves from religious patronage in order to conceptualize the cultural context in which religious art currently finds itself The book then relocates religious art within the aesthetics of everyday life Subsequent chapters systematically explore each of the sacred arts using a wide range of illustrative examples to uncover the ways in which artworks can illuminate religious faith and religious content can lend artworks a deeper dimension God in the Gallery Daniel A. Siedell,2008-10 An art historian develops a theological philosophical and historical framework within which to experience and interpret modern and contemporary art that is in dialogue with the Christian faith Religion & Art Alessandro della Seta,1914 Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett,1998-10-01 Africa's religious and artistic traditions constitute a primary example of its intellectual and cultural vitality Artistic works play a vital role especially where oral traditions dominate in communicating ideas about the relationship between the human spiritual and natural worlds This work is a comparative study of Africa's visual and performing arts concentrating on their geographical material and gendered diversity and focusing on the relation of these arts to African religion The author combines ethnographic and art historical methodology but does not assume any prior knowledge of African art or African religion The text seeks a greater understanding of the philosophical and religious aspects of African art thus challenging western perceptions of what is important in terms of artistic representation This approach reveals the transformative capacities and multi dimensionality of African art The work also highlights the changes brought about by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa Religion and Contemporary Art Ronald R. Bernier,Rachel Hostetter Smith,2023-05-11 Religion and Contemporary Art sets the theoretical frameworks and interpretive strategies for exploring the re emergence of religion in the making exhibiting and discussion of contemporary art Featuring essays from both established and emerging scholars critics and artists the book reflects on what might be termed an accord between contemporary art and religion It explores the common strategies contemporary artists employ in the interface between religion and contemporary art practice It also includes case studies to provide more in depth treatments of specific artists grappling with themes such as ritual abstraction mythology the body popular culture science liturgy and social justice among other themes It is a must read resource for working artists critics and scholars in this field and an invitation to new voices curious about its promises and possibilities
