Religious Institutions and Cults in the Deccan, C. A.D. 600-A.D. 1000 Ramendra Nath Nandi,1973-01-01

Religious Institutions and Cults in the Deccan: A.D. 600-A.D. 1000 Ramendra Nath Nandi,1973-01-01 The present book draws attention to the institutional basis of medieval sectarianism and shows that the temples and monasteries became in the hands of a powerful priesthood effective means of religious control and publicity It highlights the increasing patronage extended by heterogeneous social ranks including the landed gentry moneyed bureaucrats and traders to these institutions This changed them into big employers and encouraged the growth of feudal ties and manorial interests which the priest of a temple or the superior of a monastery tried to preserve and perpetuate on a hereditary basis The Daśanāmī-Saṃnyāsīs

Matthew Clark,2006-06-01 This book provides an account of the organisation practices and history of the Da an m Sa ny s s one of the largest sects of s dhu s holy men in South Asia According to tradition the sect was founded by the legendary south Indian philosopher a kar c rya whose floruit was most probably around 700CE While the first three chapters of this book examine the sect s organisation and its various branches the latter chapters explore its history This is the first full length study of the Da an m Sa ny s s to be published since the 1970s and will be particularly useful both for students of Hinduism and for readers with a particular interest in the religious history of mediaeval India Herrschergenealogie und religiöses Patronat Annette Schmiedchen,2014-04-07 In Herrschergenealogie und religiöses Patronat Annette Schmiedchen analyses some 250 inscriptions from the time of the early medieval royal dynasties of the R rak as il h ras and Y dasvas who reigned in central India from the 8th to the 13th centuries The information derived from copper plate charters and stone inscriptions primarily consists of genealogies of the ruling kings as well as of data regarding their religious foundations and endowments and the donations of other members of society Annette Schmiedchen shows how genealogical accounts were modified to legitimize individual claims to power and she convincingly proves that the 10th and 11th centuries were a period of religious change which witnessed a shift in patronage patterns and a closer link between Vedic Brahmanism and Hindu temple worship Jaina Culture in Medieval Karnataka Julia A.B. Hegewald,2025-04-21 Why did the Jainas in Karnataka plunge from a position of supremacy into one of severe dependency After a steep and steady rise throughout the region from about the fifth century CE Jaina influence waned dramatically from the late eleventh or early twelfth centuries onwards In this publication specialists in Indian history religious studies and anthropology as well as historians of art and architecture discuss various expressions of this sudden and detrimental decline and explore the reasons for it focusing in particular on the relations of the Jainas with V ra aivas and Muslims The evidence provided by the five international scholars who offer insights from different disciplinary backgrounds indicates that the reasons for the Jainas loss of authority in the region were manifold Certain internal triggers such as changes in Jaina social structure and religious practices adversely affected their position over time In particular however the withdrawal of royal patronage the success of the V ra aivas as traders and the emergence

in the area at this time of a number of competing religious groups caused the Jainas to slip into a position of strong asymmetrical dependency

Jain Rāmāyaṇa Narratives Gregory M. Clines, 2022-04-28 Jain R m ya a Narratives Moral Vision and Literary Innovation traces how and why Jain authors at different points in history rewrote the story of R ma and situates these texts within larger frameworks of South Asian religious history and literature The book argues that the plot characters and the very history of Jain R ma composition itself served as a continual font of inspiration for authors to create and express novel visions of moral personhood In making this argument the book examines three versions of the R ma story composed by two authors separated in time and space by over 800 years and thousands of miles The first is Ravi e a who composed the Sanskrit Padmapur a The Deeds of Padma and the second is Brahma Jinad sa author of both a Sanskrit Padmapur a and a vernacular bh version of the story titled R m R s The Story of R m While the three compositions narrate the same basic story and work to shape ethical subjects they do so in different ways and with different visions of what a moral person actually is A close comparative reading focused on the differences between these three texts reveals the diverse visions of moral personhood held by Jains in premodernity and demonstrates the innovative narrative strategies authors utilized in order to actualize those visions The book is thus a valuable contribution to the fields of Jain studies and religion and literature in premodern South Asia
