Religious Education Encounters Liberation Theology:

Religious Education Encounters Liberation Theology Daniel S. Schipani, 1988 Religious Education and Christian Theologies Inter-European Commission on Church and School, Sturla Sagberg, Gaynor Pollard, Peter Schreiner, Peter Schreiner, Religious Education as Encounter. A Tribute to John M. Hull Siebren Miedema, 2009

This volume is a tribute to our esteemed colleague Professor John Martin Hull for his exceptional academic achievements in the field of religious education. Especially worth mentioning are his worldwide continuous efforts in trying to realize interreligious education and interreligious learning in public schools. In his approach there is a strong emphasis on openness, dialogue, and encounter. When we are looking for an adequate vignette to characterize the contribution of this famous religious educator, a good one might be religious education as encounter. That is why this volume is systematically focusing on this topic. It brings together contributions from leading researchers in the international field of religious education, adhering to a great variety of religious or worldview traditions, and it addresses a wide range of perspectives regarding the concept of encounter in religious education.

Living Spiritual Praxis Eric J. Kyle, 2013-10-24. Christian ministers working in congregations and with nonprofits seek to discern what it is that God has been doing and where it is that the Spirit might be leading them. In Living Spiritual Praxis, Eric Kyle looks to address the lack of resources on the work and dynamics of Christian spiritual formation that actually develop a specific process for spiritual formation programs. Kyle strives to provide a guide for spiritual formation by using the praxis-oriented fields of action research and practical theology. He explores a process for understanding the nature and dynamics of a situation, discerning specific formative interventions, assessing various approaches, and continually assessing and modifying these understandings and approaches. Living Spiritual Praxis will be an invaluable resource for all Christians, leaders and laity alike, who are challenged by the spiritual formation of church members, communities, groups, and individuals.

Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25. First Published in 1991. The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology, mostly in book form, available in English. It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world. It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography.

International Handbook of Practical Theology Birgit Weyel, Wilhelm Gräb, Emmanuel Lartey, Cas Wepener, 2022-09-06. Practical theology has outgrown its traditional pastoral paradigm. The articles in this handbook recognize that faith, spirituality, and lived religion within and beyond institutional communities refer to realms of cultures, ritual practices, and symbolic orders whose boundaries are not clearly defined and whose contents are shifting. The International Handbook of Practical Theology offers insightful transcultural conceptions of religion and religious matters gathered from various cultures and traditions of faith. The first section presents concepts of religion. Chapters have to do with considerations of the conceptualizing of religion in the fields of anthropology, community family institution law media and politics among others The second section is dedicated to case studies of religious practices from the perspective of their actors The third section presents major theoretical discourses that explore the globally significant diversity and multiplicity of religion Altogether sixty one authors from different parts of the world encourage a rethinking of religious practice in an expanded transcultural globalized and postcolonial world Pentecostal Formation

Cheryl Bridges Johns,2010-11-01 The Pentecostal movement has been subject to some negative external assumptions In this enlightening and challenging book Cheryl Bridges Johns argues that in fact Pentecostals employ a powerful process of formation of catechesis which has enabled millions of believers to own and articulate the Christian story She engages dialectically with the work of Paulo Freire a specialist in education among the marginalized As well as looking more broadly at the nature of all catechesis there is also an attempt to move beyond the rationalism found in a praxis epistemology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore,2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims,2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity s underside The result is the AAEC s spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century
