Religious Pluralism and Truth Thomas Dean, 1997 A Protestant Theology of Religious Pluralism Livingstone Thompson, 2009 In this book three main things have been accomplished First it locates the emergence of religious pluralism as a problem for Christian theology Secondly it shows the critical weaknesses in the approaches to pluralism that we find in the works of Gavin D Costa George Lindbeck and John Hick all major players in the field of religious pluralism Retrieving theological material from seventeenth century Comenius and eighteenth century Zinzendorf the book shows that the Protestant tradition has suitable theological material that can better serve the development of a theology of religious pluralism Thirdly the book enters into dialogue with Islam and highlights exciting new approaches to addressing the issues of salvation the Qur'an and Christology One critical outcome of the book is that it breaks new ground in showing the limitations of liberation theology and proposes a fascinating new pluralism sensitive hermeneutical approach to contextual theology

Ferrer, 2002-01-01 A participatory alternative to the perennialism and experientialism dominant in transpersonal psychology Faith, Reason, and Culture George Karuvelil, 2020-07-24 In this book George Karuvelil seeks to establish the rationality of religion and theology in the contemporary world Theology has always required some philosophical basis Moreover Christian theology has had a dynamic character that enabled it to adapt to more than one philosophy depending on the need of the time For instance it shifted in accordance with the change from Neo Platonism to Aristotelianism in the thirteen century However this dynamism has been absent since the dawn of modernity when reason became identified with modern science to disastrous results While the advent of postmodernism has brought the limits of modernism to light it has done nothing to establish the rationality of religion other than to treat religion as a cultural phenomenon along with science This book conceives fundamental theology as a discipline that seeks religious truth in the midst of diverse perspectives ranging from militant atheism to violent religious fanaticism

Deep Religious Pluralism David Ray Griffin, 2005-01-01 A groundbreaking scholarly work Deep Religious Pluralism is based on the conviction that the philosophy articulated by Alfred North Whitehead encourages not only religious diversity but deep religious pluralism Arising from a 2003 Center for Process Studies conference at Claremont Graduate University this book offers an alternative to the version of religious pluralism that has dominated the recent discussion especially among Christian thinkers in the West which has evoked a growing call to reject pluralism as such Renowned contributors of a diversity of faiths include Steve Odin John Shunji Yakota Sandra B Lubarsky Jeffery D Long Mustafa Ruzgar Christopher Ives Michael Lodahl Chung ying Cheng Wang Shik Jang and John B Cobb Jr

Renewing Philosophy of Religion Paul Draper, J. L. Schellenberg, 2018-01-26 This book is animated by a shared conviction that philosophy of religion needs to change thirteen new essays suggest why and how The first part of the volume explores possible changes to the focus of the field The second part focuses on the standpoint from which philosophers of religion should approach their field In the first part are chapters on how an emphasis on faith distorts attempts to engage non western religious ideas on how philosophers from different traditions might collaborate on common interests on why the common presupposition of ultimacy leads to error on how new religious movements feed a naturalistic philosophy of religion on why a focus on belief and a focus on practice are both mistaken on why philosophy s deep axiological concern should set much of the field s agenda and on how the field might contribute to religious evolution The second part includes a qualitative analysis of the standpoint of fifty one philosophers of religion and also addresses issues about humility needed in continental philosophy of religion about the implausibility of claiming that one s own worldview is uniquely rational about the Moorean approach to religious epistemology about a Spinozan middle way between insider and outsider perspectives and about the unorthodox lessons we could learn from scriptures like the book of Job if we could get past the confessional turn in recent philosophy of religion The goal of the volume is to identify new paths for philosophers of religion that are distinct from those travelled by theologians and other scholars of religion
