Religious Studies Theology And The University Conflicting Maps Changing Terrain:

Religious Studies, Theology, and the University Linell E. Cady, Delwin Brown, 2002-10-10 Explores the relationship between religious studies and theology and the place of each in the modern secular university Discourse in Ritual Studies Hans Schilderman, 2007 Discourse in Ritual Studies offers an introduction into the study of public worship from the perspective of ritual studies The contributing authors confront an action oriented and empirical approach of ritual studies with perennial and normative questions that characterize the study of liturgy

The Eternal Present of Sport Daniel A. Grano, 2017-06 In his persuasive study The Eternal Present of Sport Daniel Grano rethinks the sport religion relationship by positioning sport as a source of theological trouble Focusing on bodies time movement and memory he demonstrates how negative theology can be practically and theoretically useful as a critique of elite televised sport Grano asserts that it is precisely through sport s highest religious ideals that controversies are taking shape and constituting points of political and social rupture He examines issues of transcendence legacy e g greatest ever or all time and witnessing through instant replay which undermine institutional authority Grano also reflects on elite athletes representing especially powerful embodiments of religious and social conflict including around issues related to gender sexuality ability doping traumatic brain injury and institutional greed Elite sport is in a period of profound crisis It is through the ideals Grano analyzes that we can imagine a radically alternative future for elite sport

Theology and Prayer Gary Eaborn, 2023-06-26 What does it mean for rigorous thought about God to be guided by prayer What do Ignatius of Loyola s Spiritual Exercises teach us about discernment How can that discernment become a spiritual discipline which guides our choices throughout life How can that discipline guide the theological choices we all make including those of academic theologians This book moves beyond the abstract notion that theology should be prayerful to bring theology together with a particular spiritual practice It argues that the Spiritual Exercises are a system of prayerful discernment which already provide for reason to be used alongside an openness to all experience and all the ways that we can be guided by the Holy Spirit This book provides a constructive interpretation of the Exercises as a path of prayerful discernment which can be used throughout life It sees in the Exercises a way of active receptivity to all experience treating all experience as worthy of attention but also approaching that experience with humility and caution This book sees theology practiced in this way as a discerning spiritual discipline as more resistant to the challenges of modernity than theology which has been sundered from our spiritual life

Christian Theology and the Secular University Paul A. Macdonald, Jr., 2017-02-24 If the secular university by definition is non sectarian or non denominational then how can it accommodate a discipline like Christian theology Doesn t the traditional goal of theological study which is to attain knowledge of the divine fundamentally conflict with the main goal of secular academic study which is to attain knowledge about ourselves and the world in which we live So why should theology be admitted or even care about being admitted into secular academic life And even if theology were admitted what contribution to secular academic life could it make Working from a Christian philosophical and theological perspective but also engaging a wide range of theologians philosophers and religious studies scholars Christian Theology and the Secular University takes on these questions arguing that Christian theology does belong in the secular university because it provides distinct resources that the secular university needs if it is going to fulfill what should be its main epistemic and educative ends This book offers a fresh and unique perspective to scholars working in the disciplines of theology philosophy and religious studies and to those in other academic disciplines who are interested in thinking critically and creatively about the place and nature of theological study within the secular university

Comparative Secularisms in a Global Age L. Cady, E. Hurd, 2010-05-10 The history and politics of secularism and the public role of religion in France India Turkey and the United States It interprets the varieties of secularism as a series of evolving and contested processes of defining and remaking religion rather than a static solution to the challenges posed by religious and political difference

Reinventing Religious Studies Scott S. Elliott, 2014-10-20 Reinventing Religious Studies offers readers an opportunity to trace the important trends and developments in Religious Studies over the last forty years Over this time the study of religion has been transformed into a critical discipline informed by a wide range of perspectives from sociology to anthropology politics to material culture and economics to cultural theory Reinventing Religious Studies brings together key writings which have helped shape scholarship teaching and learning in the field All the essays are drawn from the CSSR Bulletin a provocative occasionally irreverent and always critical journal which has long been at the centre of debates in Religious Studies This collection will prove invaluable for students and scholars of theory and method in Religious Studies It offers readers a unique opportunity to understand the history of key issues in the study of religion and what remains central to the study of religion today

Theology and the End of Doctrine Christine Helmer, 2014-08-22 This book is about the crisis brought about by doctrine's estrangement from reality that is from actual lives experiences histories and from God By invoking the end of doctrine Christine Helmer opens a new discussion of doctrinal production that is engaged with the challenges and possibilities of modernity The end of doctrine refers on the one hand to unquestioning doctrinal reception which Helmer critiques and on the other represents an invitation to a new way of understanding the aim of doctrine in deeper connection to the reality that it seeks The book's first section offers an analysis of the current situation in theology by reconstructing a trajectory of Protestant theology from the turn of the twentieth century to today This history focuses primarily on the status of the word in theology and explains how changes in theology in the context of the political and social crisis in Europe in the 1920s and 1930s led to a distancing of the word from reality Helmer then turns to the constructive section of the book to propose a repositioning of theology to the world and to God Helmer's powerful work will inspire revitalized interest in both doctrine and theological inquiry itself

What is Religion? Nigel Ajay Kumar, 2014-01-15 What Is Religion is one of those questions rarely asked by Christian theologians who engage in interreligious discourse Nigel Ajay Kumar makes the case however that to answer this question is critical for Christian scholars who want to negotiate multiple religious identities as well as for those who want a clearer understanding of their own faith as religion Kumar takes a historical and theological approach to answering this question The history of the concept of religion is traced from biblical times to the Indian independence era Then a theological answer is offered not only by looking at the classical Indian theologian Pandipeddi Chenchiah but also by listening to other contemporary secular and theological voices This is the South Asian Edition of the original Wipf Stock edition 2013 with the same name Explorations in Post-Secular Metaphysics Josef Bengtson, 2015-11-02 This book explores the metaphysical assumptions that underlie different interpretations of the relationship between religion and the secular faith and reason and transcendence and immanence It explores different answers to the question of how people of diverse religious and cultural identities can live together peacefully
