Remaking Women : Feminism and modernity in the Middle East Joseph L Battenwieser Professor of Social Science Lila Abu-Lughod,2001 Remaking Women Lila Abu-Lughod,1998-07-01 Contrary to popular perceptions newly veiled women across the Middle East are just as much products and symbols of modernity as the upper and middle class women who courageously took off the veil almost a century ago To make this point these essays focus on the woman question in the Middle East most particularly in Egypt and Iran especially at the turn of the century when gender became a highly charged nationalist issue tied up in complex ways with the West The last two decades have witnessed an extraordinary burst of energy and richness in Middle East women s studies and the contributors to this volume exemplify the vitality of this new thinking They take up issues of concern to historians and social thinkers working on the postcolonial world The essays challenge the assumptions of other major works on women and feminism in the Middle East by questioning among other things the familiar dichotomy in which women s domesticity is associated with tradition and modernity with their entry into the public sphere Indeed Remaking Women is a radical challenge to any easy equation of modernity with progress emancipation and the empowerment of women The contributors are Lila Abu Lughod Marilyn Booth Deniz Kandiyoti Khaled Fahmy Mervat Hatem Afsaneh Najmabadi Omnia Shakry and Zohreh T Sullivan The book is introduced by the editor with a piece called Feminist Longings and Postcolonial Conditions which masterfully interfaces the critical studies of feminism and modernism with scholarship on South Asia and the Middle East An Enchanted Modern Lara Deeb,2011-06-27 Based on two years of ethnographic research in the southern suburbs of Beirut An Enchanted Modern demonstrates that Islam and modernity are not merely compatible but actually go hand in hand This eloquent ethnographic portrayal of an Islamic community articulates how an alternative modernity and specifically an enchanted modernity may be constructed by Shi I Muslims who consider themselves simultaneously deeply modern cosmopolitan and pious In this depiction of a Shi I Muslim community in Beirut Deeb examines the ways that individual and collective expressions and understandings of piety have been debated contested and reformulated Women take center stage in this process a result of their visibility both within the community and in relation to Western ideas that link the status of women to modernity By emphasizing the ways notions of modernity and piety are lived debated and shaped by everyday Islamists this book underscores the inseparability of piety and politics in the lives of pious Muslims The American University of Beirut Betty S. Anderson,2011-11-15 Since the American University of Beirut opened its doors in 1866 the campus has stood at the intersection of a rapidly changing American educational project for the Middle East and an ongoing student quest for Arab national identity and empowerment Betty S Anderson provides a unique and comprehensive analysis of how the school shifted from a missionary institution providing a curriculum in Arabic to one offering an English language American liberal education extolling freedom of speech and analytical discovery Anderson discusses how generations of students demanded that they be considered legitimate voices of authority over their own education increasingly these students sought to introduce into their classrooms the real life political issues raging in the Arab world The Darwin Affair of 1882 the introduction of coeducation in the 1920s the Arab nationalist protests of the late 1940s and early 1950s and the even larger protests of the 1970s all challenged the Americans and Arabs to fashion an educational program relevant to a student body constantly bombarded with political and social change Anderson reveals that the two groups chose to develop a program that combined American goals for liberal education with an Arab student demand that the educational experience remain relevant to their lives outside the school s walls As a result in eras of both cooperation and conflict the American leaders and the students at the school have made this American institution of the Arab world and of Beirut

Religion, Politics and Gender in Indonesia Sonja van Wichelen, 2010-06-10 The political downfall of the Suharto administration in 1998 marked the end of the New Order in Indonesia a period characterized by 32 years of authoritarian rule It opened the way for democracy but also for the proliferation of political Islam which the New Order had discouraged or banned Many of the issues raised by Muslim groups concerned matters pertaining to gender and the body They triggered heated debates about women s rights female political participation sexuality pornography veiling and polygamy The author argues that public debates on Islam and Gender in contemporary Indonesia only partially concern religion and more often refer to shifting moral conceptions of the masculine and feminine body in its intersection with new class dynamics national identity and global consumerism By approaching the contentious debates from a cultural sociological perspective the book links the theoretical domains of body politics the mediated public sphere and citizenship Placing the issue of gender and Islam in the context of Indonesia the biggest Muslim majority country in the world this book is an important contribution to the existing literature on the topic As such it will be of great interest to scholars of anthropology sociology and gender studies
