Remaking Asia Essays On The American Uses Of Power:

Remaking Asia Mark Selden, 1974 A Companion to Asian American Studies Kent A. Ono, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Asian American Studies is comprised of 20 previously published essays that have played an important historical role in the conceptualization of Asian American studies as a field Essays are drawn from international publications from the 1970s to the present Includes coverage of psychology history literature feminism sexuality identity politics cyberspace pop culture queerness hybridity and diasporic consciousness Features a useful introduction by the editor reviewing the selections and outlining future possibilities for the field Can be used alongside Asian American Studies After Critical Mass edited by Kent A Ono for a complete reference to Asian American Studies Coming to Jakarta Peter Dale Scott, 2017-04-13 Not since Robert Duncan's Ground Work and before that William Carlos Williams Paterson has New Directions published a long poem as important as Coming to Jakarta James Laughlin A devastating revelation of violence exploitation and corrupt politics Coming to Jakarta derives its title from the role played by the CIA banks and oil companies in the 1965 slaughter of more than half a million Indonesians A former Canadian diplomat and now a scholar at the University of California Peter Dale Scott has said that the poem is triggered by what we know of the bloody Indonesian massacre However it is not so much a narrative of exotic foreign murder as one person's account of what it is like to live in the 20th century possessing enough access to information and power to feel guilty about global human oppression but not enough to deal with it The usual result is a kind of daily schizophrenia by which we desensitize ourselves to our own responses to what we read in the newspapers The psychic self alienation which ensues makes integrative poetry difficult but necessary With a brilliant use of collage placing the political against the personal childhood acquaintances are among the darkly powerful figures Scott works in the tradition of Pound's Cantos but his substance is completely his own Mass Media, Consumerism and National Identity in Postwar Japan Martyn David Smith, 2018-04-05 Mass Media Consumerism and National Identity in Postwar Japan addresses Japan's evolving nationalism and national identity in relation to its newly rising consumerism during the two decades from 1952 to 1972 through a study of the transformation of the print media and the market for weekly and monthly magazines Martyn Smith argues that the transformation of the print media in the 1950s and 1960s expanded the possibilities for social individual and national identities in Japan From the late 1950s the growth in the market for weekly magazines was fuelled by the huge potential for advertising revenue the rapid development of the Japanese economy and the necessity for the growth of a consumer society This resulted in the merging of national identity with individual subjectivity which this book describes as national subjectivity as the Japanese media promoted individual consumption to aid the recovery of the Japanese nation as a whole Examining housewife magazines such as Fujin Koron Fujin no Tomo and Fujin Gaho as well as news magazines such as Mainichi Graph and Asahi Graph and publications aimed at young people Shukan Heibon and Heibon Punch Smith shows how the relationship of nationalism to everyday life is best understood by taking into account the changing nature of consumption in the period By presenting an alternative to the traditional top down narrative of state driven economic nationalism this book therefore makes a unique contribution to the study of postwar Japanese history and Japanese nationalism The Sources of Social Power: Volume 3, Global Empires and Revolution, 1890-1945 Michael Mann,2012-09-17 This third volume of Michael Mann s analytical history of social power focuses on the interrelated development of capitalism nation states and empires The Debt Trap Cheryl Payer,1975 Details the history of the first thirty years of the system of aid and credit in which the IMF is the keystone China's Development Experience in Comparative Perspective Joint Committee on Contemporary China. Subcommittee on Research on the Chinese Economy,1980 Monographic collection of essays on comparison of economic development trends and economic policy in China and experiences in other developing countries covers economic growth employment public debt income distribution regional development choice of technology health services etc Diagrams map and references No Other Way Out Jeff Goodwin,2001-06-04 No Other Way Out provides a powerful explanation for the emergence of popular revolutionary movements and the occurrence of actual revolutions during the Cold War era This sweeping study ranges from Southeast Asia in the 1940s and 1950s to Central America in the 1970s and 1980s and Eastern Europe in 1989 Following in the state centered tradition of Theda Skocpol s States and Social Revolutions and Jack Goldstone s Revolutions and Rebellion in the Early Modern World Goodwin demonstrates how the actions of specific types of authoritarian regimes unwittingly channeled popular resistance into radical and often violent directions Revolution became the only way out to use Trotsky s formulation for the opponents of these intransigent regimes By comparing the historical trajectories of more than a dozen countries Goodwin also shows how revolutionaries were sometimes able to create and not simply exploit opportunities for seizing state power Perestroika and the Party Francesco Di Palma,2019-08-01 Countless studies have assessed the dramatic reforms of Mikhail Gorbachev but their analysis of the impact on European communism has focused overwhelmingly on the Soviet Union and Eastern bloc nations This ambitious collection takes a much broader view reconstructing and evaluating the historical trajectories of glasnost and perestroika on both sides of the Iron Curtain Moving beyond domestic politics and foreign relations narrowly defined the research gathered here constitutes a transnational survey of these reforms collective impact showing how they were variably received and implemented and how they shaped the prospects for proletarian internationalism in diverse political contexts Special Bibliography Series ,1957
