A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings J. Bruyn, B. Haak, S.H. Levie, P.J.J. van Thiel, E. van de Wetering, 2013-05-14 Since the second half of the last century art historians realizing that the image of Rembrandt's work had become blurred with time have attempted to redefine the artist's significance both as a source of inspiration to other artists and as a great artist in his own right In order to carry on the work started by previous generations a group of leading Dutch art historians from the university and museum world joined forces in the late 1960s in order to study afresh the paintings usually ascribed to the artist The researchers came together in the Rembrandt Research Project which was established to provide the art world with a new standard reference work which would serve the community of art historians for the nearby and long future They examined the originals of all works attributed to Rembrandt taking full advantage of today's sophisticated techniques including radiography neutron activation autoradiography dendrochronology and paint sample analysis thereby gaining valuable insight into the genesis and condition of the paintings The result of this meticulous research is laid down chronologically in the following Volumes A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume I which deals with works from Rembrandt's early years in Leiden 1629-1631 published in 1982 A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume II covering his first years in Amsterdam 1631-1634 published in 1986 THIS VOLUME A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume III goes into his later years of reputation 1635-1642 published in 1990 Each Volume consists of a number of Introductory Chapters as well as the full Catalogue of all paintings from the given time period attributed to Rembrandt In this catalogue each painting is discussed and examined in a detailed way comprising a descriptive an interpretative and a documentary section For the authenticity evaluation of the paintings three different categories are used to divide the works in A Paintings by Rembrandt B Paintings of which Rembrandt's authorship cannot be positively either accepted or rejected and C Paintings of which Rembrandt's authorship cannot be accepted This volume Volume III contains 820 pages starting off with three introductory chapters and discussing 86 paintings In clear and accessible explanatory text all different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging In this volume important paintings including the Night Watch are discussed

Scepticism, disappointment, renunciation: the situation of the church seems more volatile than ever. Paul M. Zulehner, however, is convinced that it is not the church that is in crisis but the changing times demand a reshaping. In a run through the history of the Christian Church and Culture, he shows that Christianity has often come to crossroads at which renewal and departure were necessary. The key to rebirth, he sees, in powerful visions. In the gospel and in art, in poetry and myth, he finds stimuli which encourage finding new pathways. With this book, Zulehner gives Christians incentives for a church committed to the future. Meditating, true to life and practical, his vision calls for a resurrection of the church. Live Today: perhaps we have so much discontent in some parts of the worldwide church because we lack motivating visions. Structures are indispensable for the incarnation of a vision in history. But they are not a substitute for visions. The present church reorganisation concerns more structures than visions. We speak more about money than God. Of course, Churches have to make structural adjustments. And only if these are done, the Churches start thinking about visions. As Saarinen teaches, we should look at things the other way round. The Art of Etching Ernest S. Lumsden, 1926. World Famous Artists Archana Srinivasan, 2004-09. Short life sketches of 14 artists. Genre Imagery in Early Modern Northern Europe Arthur J. DiFuria, 2017-07-05. Exploring the rich variety of pictorial rhetoric in early modern northern European genre images, this volume deepens our understanding of genre's place in early modern visual culture. From 1500 to 1700, artists in northern Europe pioneered the category of pictures now known as genre: portrayals of people in ostensibly quotidian situations. Critical approaches to genre images have moved past the antiquated notion that they portray uncomplicated slices of life, describing them instead as heavily encoded pictorial essays laden with symbols that only the most erudite contemporary viewers and modern iconographers could fully comprehend. These essays challenge that limiting binary, revealing a more expansive array of accessible meanings in genre's deft grafting of everyday scenarios with a rich complex of experiential, cultural, political, and religious references. Authors deploy a variety of approaches to detail genre's multivalent relations to older, more established pictorial and literary categories; the interplay between the meaning of the everyday and its translation into images and the multifaceted concerns genre addressed for its rapidly expanding, unprecedentedly diverse audience. Rembrandt? Lene Bøgh Rønberg, Eva de la Fuente Pedersen, Ernst van de Wetering, Statens museum for kunst (Denmark), 2006. Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007. Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Baroque Art Victoria Charles, Klaus H. Carl, 2023-12-28. The Baroque period lasted from the beginning of the seventeenth century to the middle of the eighteenth century. Baroque art was artists' response to the Catholic Church's demand for solemn grandeur following the Council of Trent and through its monumentality and grandiloquence it seduced the great European courts Amongst the Baroque arts architecture has without doubt left the greatest mark in Europe the continent is dotted with magnificent Baroque churches and palaces commissioned by patrons at the height of their power The works of Gian Lorenzo Bernini of the Southern School and Peter Paul Rubens of the Northern School alone show the importance of this artistic period Rich in images encompassing the arts of painting sculpture and architecture this work offers a complete insight into this passionate period in the history of art The Story of Dutch Painting Charles Henry Caffin,1911
