Taddeo and Federico Zuccaro Julian Brooks, Peter M. Lukehart, Christina Strunck, Robert Williams, 2007 One of the most important series of drawings in late sixteenth century Italian art the twenty large sheets by Federico Zuccaro ca 1541 1609 showing the early life of his older brother Taddeo 1529 1566 was acquired by the J Paul Getty Museum in 1999 Never fully published the series shows Taddeo's trials and tribulations as a young artist trying to achieve success in Renaissance Rome and his eventual triumph. The drawings contain charming details of the life of a struggling artist and reveal much about the younger brother Federico, a successful artist in his own right. This volume published to coincide with an exhibition at the J. Paul Getty Museum to be held from October 1, 2007 to January 6, 2008, presents Federico Zuccaro's twenty drawings and accompanying poems in their historical and artistic context and will be of interest to art historians and general readers alike. Of particular importance is its examination of the role of the copying of masterworks in the training of young Renaissance artists.

Master Drawings from the Yale University Art Gallery Yale University (New Haven, Conn.). Art Gallery, Suzanne Boorsch, John Marciari, Nicole Bensoussan, Yale University. Art Gallery, Margaret E. Hadley, Elisabeth Hodermarsky, Rena Hoisington, Jan Leja, Edgar Munhall, 2006-01-01. This beautiful and important book highlights the collection of European drawings at the Yale University Art Gallery, one of America's premier university museums. From intimate studies to exquisite finished compositions, this selection of works documents the history of European drawing practices beginning with late medieval model books and progressing to the verge of the modern period. The accompanying text, written by a team of scholars, offers a unique introduction to various critical and technical aspects of the study of master drawings brought to life through drawings from a range of national schools and in a variety of media. Among the drawings examined in this handsomely produced volume are an animated pen and ink sketch by Giulio Romano, a pastoral landscape by Claude Lorrain, a forceful and humorous caricature by Guercino, a scene from the epic poem Orlando Furioso by Jean Honor Fragonard, and a delicate portrait by Edgar Degas.

The Traveling Artist in the Italian Renaissance David Young Kim, 2014-12-23. In this important and revelatory book, David Young Kim examines how mobility and travel affected the identities and artistic styles of artists such as Giotto, Brunelleschi, Donatello, Lotto, Michelangelo, Raphael, and Titian. It is well known that Italian Renaissance artists traveled; this book considers the cultural and historical contexts of their voyages. Kim establishes connections between artists' travel and responses to their work in early modern literature with critical analysis of 16th century written culture Relevant themes in Giorgio Vasari's monumental Lives of the Artists are explored in depth Through new readings of critical ideas prejudices and entire biographies in Renaissance art literature Kim makes a groundbreaking case for the circuitous development of the artists' individual styles offering a complex understanding of how the concepts of mobility and identity were changing in a shifting and widening world
