Chuku, 2016-04-27 In this groundbreaking collection leading historians Africanists and other scholars document the life and work of twelve Igbo intellectuals who educated within European traditions came to terms with the dominance of European thought while making significant contributions to African intellectual traditions The African and Conscientization Christian C. Anyanwu, 2012-01-10 The withdrawal of imperial colonizers from Africa in the second half of the 20th century precipitated the need for newly independent African nations to establish political economic and social structures that would ensure the development of cohesive stable and functional nations While Africans yearned for independence once granted the challenges of nation building became apparent immediately Nigeria like many African nations has stumbled through the early postcolonial period with no clear post colonial direction dashing the hopes of its people and undermining confidence in its future This book makes the case that the protracted decades of underdevelopment in Africa and especially Nigeria is traceable to a crisis of leadership that has crystallized in the institutionalization of organized corruption as part of its professional ethos. It argues that as a direct consequence of such practices over several decades the population has been dehumanized. The situation of Africa in general and Nigeria in particular has been deemed so inimical and colossal that Justice Oputa's panel advised a program of moral action from kindergarten right through to the entire polity. Report of the Human Rights Violations Investigation Commission 2002. This is an indictment on the Nigerian population and rightly so because for more than 40 years after independence the country has been through a spiraling crisis in leadership and corruption such that massive looting of the national treasure is unprecedented in the history of developing countries. So many attempts have been made in search of national ideology that might spur development. This writer is proposing in this vein the implementation of a Conscientization philosophy similar to Paulo Freire's as a viable ideology that would arrest and reverse the deteriorating situation. Freire's thought was influenced largely by socio-economic and political situations in Brazil. These same ugly and dehumanizing conditions are now generally characteristic of Nigeria. Hence Freire's education as practice of freedom is very relevant to the Nigerian situation. This dissertation elaborates how to develop and implement the Conscientization philosophy and shows why it would be extraordinarily appropriate in Nigeria in such a way as to contribute to the good society.

SOUTH AFRICA AA.VV., 2016-11-14. Has the new South Africa once an inspiring rainbow nation failed the expectations it had generated? Is the country now in a crisis? Two decades after the end of the apartheid regime Africa's southernmost state faces multiple political, economic and social challenges. A lackluster growth performance is compounded by mounting corruption and political turbulence as well as by the frustration of many ordinary citizens who expected much more rapid social and economic improvement. Labour strikes, student protests and anti-immigrant riots have all been on the rise. As a clear sign of increasing dissatisfaction, uncertainty and decline, the ruling African National Congress recently ran into its worst electoral result ever if still only at local levels. Meanwhile Jacob Zuma's embattled presidency, marred by allegations of corruption and political cronyism, sent South Africa's international image plummeting alongside the Rand, the national currency. This volume sheds light on the current difficulties and discusses future prospects. The new South Africa is a country in dire need for change.
