Rencontres 1 Chroniques Et Entretiens

Dudley Andrew

Rencontres 1 Chroniques Et Entretiens:

Luis Buñuel Román Gubern, Paul Hammond, 2012-01-04 The turbulent years of the 1930s were of profound importance in the life of Spanish film director Luis Buñuel 1900 1983 He joined the Surrealist movement in 1929 but by 1932 had renounced it and embraced Communism During the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 he played an integral role in disseminating film propaganda in Paris for the Spanish Republican cause Luis Buñuel The Red Years 1929 1939 investigates Buñuel's commitment to making the politicized documentary Land without Bread 1933 and his key role as an executive producer at Filmfono in Madrid where he was responsible in 1935 36 for making four commercial features that prefigure his work in Mexico after 1946 As for the republics of France and Spain between which Buñuel shuttled during the 1930s these became equally embattled as left and right totalitarianisms fought to wrest political power away from a debilitated capitalism Where it exists the literature on this crucial decade of the film director's life is scant and relies on Buñuel's own self-interested accounts of that complex period Román Gubern and Paul Hammond have undertaken extensive archival research in Europe and the United States and evaluated Buñuel's accounts and those of historians and film writers to achieve a portrait of Buñuel's Red Years that abounds in new information

Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carné, Gremillon, Duvivier and Chenal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts

Cinema Engagé Jonathan Buchsbaum, 1988
L'Office national du film et le cinéma canadien (1939-2003) Caroline Zéau, 2006 L'historique de la structure de l'Office national du film du Canada un organisme de production d'Etat créé en 1939 par John Grierson est suivi de l'examen partiel d'un choix de films de textes et d'archives de sa politique de production Cette étude révèle les filiations entre l'ONF et le cinéma canadien depuis les années 1960
