coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the first ITV broadcast this accessible book offers a range of perspectives on the complex and multifaceted history of Britain's first commercial broadcaster. The book explores key tensions and conflicts which have influenced the ITV service. Chapters focus on particular institutions including London Weekend Television and ITN and programme forms including Who Wants to be a Millionaire, Upstairs Downstairs and Trisha. The contributors show that ITV has had to tread an uneasy line between public service and commercial imperatives between a pluralistic regional structure and a national network and between popular appeal and quality programming. A timeline of key events in the history of ITV is also included. ITV Cultures provides a timely intervention in debates on broadcasting and cultural history for academics and researchers and a lively introduction to the history of ITV for students and general readers. Contributors: Rod Allen City University, Jonathan Bignell University of Reading, John Ellis Royal Holloway University of London, Jackie Harrison University of Sheffield, Jamie Medhurst University of Wales Aberystwyth, Matt Hills Cardiff University, Steve Neale University of Exeter, Helen Wheatley University of Reading, Sherryl Wilson Bournemouth University.

Sounds of Fear and Wonder Janet K. Halfyard, 2016-06-20. Characters and plot developments similarly are enhanced by their musical accompaniment. The different scoring strategies employed in supernatural and horror based genres comprising for example True Blood and Supernatural are considered alongside cult shows set in our reality such as Dexter, The Sopranos and 24. These discussions are complimented by in depth case studies of musical approaches in two high profile series Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Hannibal. Written from a musicological standpoint but fully accessible to non musicologists, the book significantly advances television and music studies.
