Rodin Joan Vita Miller, Gary Marotta, 1986 Auguste Rodin, 1840-1917 Gary Marotta, 1981 Rodin's Art the late Albert E. Elsen, Rosalyn Frankel Jamison, 2003-03-13 The late Albert Elsen was the first American scholar to study seriously the work of the French sculptor Auguste Rodin and the person most responsible for a revival of interest in the artist as a modern innovator after years during which the sculpture had been dismissed as so much Victorian bathos After a fortuitous meeting with the financier philanthropist and art collector B Gerald Cantor Elsen helped Cantor to build up a major collection of Rodin's work A large part of this collection consisting of more than 200 pieces was donated to the Stanford Museum by Mr Cantor who died recently In size it is surpassed only by the Musée Rodin in Paris and rivaled only by the collection in Philadelphia In scope the collection is unique in having been carefully selected to present a balanced view of Rodin's work throughout his life Rodin's Art encompasses a lifetime's thoughts on Rodin's career surveying the artist's accomplishments through the detailed discussion of each object in the collection It will begin with essays on the formation of the collection the reception of Rodin's work and his casting techniques The entries that follow are arranged topically and include extensive discussions of Rodin's major projects Notable Acquisitions, 1984-1985 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1985 Auguste Rodin Auguste Rodin, 1979 The Central Liberal Truth Lawrence E. Harrison, 2008-07-08 Which cultural values beliefs and attitudes best promote democracy social justice and prosperity How can we use the forces that shape cultural change such as religion education and political leadership to promote these values in the Third World and for underachieving minorities in the First World In this book Lawrence E Harrison offers intriguing answers to these questions in a valuable follow up to his acclaimed Culture Matters Drawing on a three year research project that explored the cultural values of dozens of nations from Botswana Sweden and India to China Egypt and Chile Harrison offers a provocative look at values around the globe revealing how each nation's culture has propelled or retarded their political and economic progress The book presents 25 factors that operate very differently in cultures prone to progress and those that resist it including one's influence over destiny the importance attached to education the extent to which people identify with and trust others and the role of women in society Harrison pulls no punches and many of his findings are controversial Contradicting the arguments of multiculturalists this book contends that when it comes to promoting human progress some cultures are clearly more effective than others It convincingly shows which values beliefs and attitudes work and how we can foster them Harrison takes up the question that is at the center of politics today Can we self consciously change cultures so they encourage development and modernization David Brooks New York Times I can think of no better entrance to the topic both for what it teaches and the way it invites and prepares the reader to continue A gateway study David S Landes author of The Wealth and Poverty of Nations Los Angeles County Museum of Art Report, July 1, 1973, to June 30, 1975 Los Angeles County Museum of Art, 1976 Observations of Rodin's Tower of Labor Christine
