Suspect Identities Simon A. COLE, Simon A Cole, 2009-06-30 No two fingerprints are alike or so it goes For nearly a hundred years fingerprints have represented definitive proof of individual identity in our society We trust them to tell us who committed a crime whether a criminal record exists and how to resolve questions of disputed identity But in Suspect Identities Simon Cole reveals that the history of criminal identification is far murkier than we have been led to believe Cole traces the modern system of fingerprint identification to the nineteenth century bureaucratic state and its desire to track and control increasingly mobile diverse populations whose race or ethnicity made them suspect in the eyes of authorities In an intriguing history that traverses the globe taking us to India Argentina France England and the United States Cole excavates the forgotten history of criminal identification from photography to exotic anthropometric systems based on measuring body parts from fingerprinting to DNA typing He reveals how fingerprinting ultimately won the trust of the public and the law only after a long battle against rival identification systems As we rush headlong into the era of genetic identification and as fingerprint errors are being exposed this history uncovers the fascinating interplay of our elusive individuality police and state power and the quest for scientific certainty Suspect Identities offers a necessary corrective to blind faith in the infallibility of technology and a compelling look at its role in defining each of us well Guildcraft Bastion Press, Wes Nicholson, 2002-11 Rogues' Gallery Philip Hook, 2017-01-26 Philip Hook takes the lid off the world of art dealing to reveal the brilliance cunning greed and daring of its practitioners In a richly anecdotal narrative he describes the rise and occasional fall of the extraordinary men and women who over the centuries have made it their business to sell art to kings merchants nobles entrepreneurs and museums From its beginnings in Antwerp where paintings were sometimes sold by weight to the rich hauteur of the contemporary gallery in London Paris and New York art dealing has been about identifying what is intangible but infinitely desirable and then finding clients for whom it is irresistible Those who have purveyed art for a living range from tailors spies and the occasional anarchist to scholars aristocrats merchants and connoisseurs each variously motivated by greed belief in their own vision of art and its history or simply the will to win The cast of characters includes Paul Durand Ruel the Impressionists champion Herwath Walden who first brought Modernism into the limelight Daniel Henry Kahnweiler high priest of Cubism Leo Castelli dealer midwife to Abstract Expressionism and Pop Art and Peter Wilson the charismatic Sotheby's chairman who made the auction room theatre Philip Hook's history is one of human folly greed and duplicity interspersed with ingenuity inspiration and acts of heroism Rogues' Gallery is learned witty and irresistibly readable NYPD James Lardner, Thomas Reppetto, 2001-08 Traces the history of the world's largest municipal police force from its founding in 1845 to the present day revealing an organization fraught with hidden conflicts between politicians bureaucrats and the cops on the beat Hard Core Linda Williams, 1989-01-01 Looks at the history of pornographic films discusses what they reveal about attitudes towards sexuality and considers the censorship issue The New York Supplement, 1911 Cases argued and determined in the Court of Appeals Supreme and lower courts of record of New York State with key number annotations varies Our Police George Mortimer Roe, 1890 New York Supplement, 1911 Includes decisions of the Supreme Court and various intermediate and lower courts of record May Aug 1888 Sept Dec 1895 Superior Court of New York City Mar Apr 1926 Dec 1937 Jan 1938 Court of Appeals Complete Digest of All Lawyers Reports Annotated, 1924 How To Be a Rogue Trader John Gapper, 2011-12-01 A compelling topical e book on the motives and patterns of rogue traders and the investment banking system that hosts them by John Gapper of the Financial Times Nick Leeson at Barings Jerome Kerviel at Societe Generale John Rusnak at Allied Irish Banks And now the thirty one year old Kweku Adoboli a director on a derivatives desk who allegedly ran up 2.3 billion in losses at UBS These are the rogue traders who have brought banks to their knees and global financial systems to a halt Each time the banks declare themselves to be innocent victims of a fraud But why do traders keep on committing apparently senseless crimes with little benefit apart from higher bonuses and an enormous risk of ending up in prison And why do banks which should have learned the tricks of the traders keep being deceived In this short e book the Financial Times associate editor John Gapper unlocks the mystery by delving into the evolutionary risk taking instincts of both humans and animals from yellow eyed junco sparrows in Arizona to honeybees He reveals how banks encourage their traders to evade risk limits and shows how the rogue traders merely mimic the strategies used by their firms to seem more profitable than they really are A rogue trader is often an outsider who starts in a lowly role and secretly gambles with a bank's money in a bid to become a star Gapper traces patterns of behaviour and personality that could be used to catch them before disaster strikes But do the banks really want to And are the rogue traders just the symptoms of a financial system gone rogue
