The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references Literary Depictions of the Scribal Profession in the Story of Ahiqar and Jeremiah 36 James D. Moore, 2021-12-06 This is the first study to compare the allusions to scribal culture found in the Aramaic Story of Ahiqar and the Hebrew Tale of Jeremiah and Baruch s Scroll in Jeremiah 36 It is shown that disguised in the royal propagandistic message of Ahiqar is a sophisticated Aramaic critique on the social practices of Akkadian scribal culture Jeremiah 36 however uses loci of scribal activity as well as allusions to scribal interactions and the techniques of the scribal craft to construct a subversive tale When studied from a comparative perspective it is argued that the Story of Ahiqar which has long been associated with the well known court tale genre is an example of a subgenre which is here called the scribal conflict narrative and Jeremiah 36 is found to be a second example of or a response to it This observation is arrived at by means of rigorous manuscript examination combined with narrative analysis which identified among other things the development of autobiographical and biographical styles of the same ancient narrative This study not only provides new perspectives on scribal culture Ahiqar studies and Jeremiah studies but it may have far reaching implications for other ancient sources
